HOUSE-TOPS AND SPARROWS

Our Gospel reads: '... not one [sparrow] falls to the ground without your Father knowing.'

But that is a bad translation. The Greek simply says 'not one [sparrow] will fall to the ground without your Father.' Full stop! Our Heavenly Father accompanies a dying sparrow as it dies! That is the measure of the Creator's love for all creatures. God wants to – does – enter into the moment of death, our moment of death.

Now, that would be consoling if I were facing what Jesus was foreseeing for his disciples in the first century.

One of the first Christian groups to hear this Gospel was that set around

DO NOT FEAR THOSE WHO CAN KILL THE BODY.
MT 10:26-33

the Tigris River running through Baghdad in modern day Iraq. Now they face terrible persecution from fanatical Muslims. We can barely imagine hearing today's Gospel amongst the remnant, left in Baghdad today. How does 'Do not be afraid' really sound to them?

So, we could pause for a moment to pray for those for whom today's Gospel is a challenge beyond our imagining.

Rev Prof Michael Tate graduated in Law from the University of Tasmania in 1968, and in Theology from Oxford University in 1971. He lectured at the University of Tasmania from 1972-78, being Dean of the Faculty of Law in 1977-78. He was a Senator for Tasmania from 1978-93, being Federal Minister for Justice from 1987-93. He served as Ambassador to The Hague and the Holy See from 1993-96. He then returned to Australia and was ordained in May 2000 and has been a parish priest in the Archdiocese of Hobart since then. He is currently Vicar General in the Archdiocese and is an Honorary Professor of Law at the University of Tasmania where he lectures in International Humanitarian Law.

In our year of Love we have been concentrating on God's love for us and how lucky we are to have that Love. We have also been talking about how we should love one another.

Fr Michael Tate in just a few paragraphs brings us back to reality!

Our Love of God has to be so great that we can stand up and say "We are not afraid because we have faith in the Love God has for us."

What a truly wonderful concept, to be able to stand up on the house top, with confidence in the face of the persecution going on around the world today. To be able to stand up knowing no matter what, our souls and eternal life cannot be touched by evil. The Holy Spirit is always with us.

We just have to have faith in God and Love ourselves, neighbours and above all Love God. (Tom Croll)

A VISIT FROM BISHOP ANTHONY

Bishop Anthony will be visiting our parish 28 June, and will be celebrating Mass at 10am. The Mass will be Live-streamed on Facebook and Youtube via the normal Mass links.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR RCIA CANDIDATES & CATECHUMENS

At our 10am Mass this weekend we welcome Brooke Stanford & Carlos Diaz Lenis who will be Received into the Church, and Yolanda Kasteel and Ryan Fountain who will be baptised after undertaking a journey since May 2019 to reach this momentous day in their spiritual lives.

We thank Chris Paget & Amanda Dillon for being their mentors and educators on this journey and I am sure you join with us in wishing Brooke, Carlos, Yolanda & Ryan every blessing.

Please give them all a big St Patrick's welcome, and keep them in your prayers

LIVE STREAMING MASS TIMES

REMINDER:

Monday to Saturday at 9am

Saturday Vigil 5pm

Sunday 10am

If for some reason you didn't receive your email with the link to book Masses on www.trybooking.com, it is:

<https://www.trybooking.com/BKCLT> and bookings are open from 7pm on Sunday June 14.

Thank you to everyone for your support of this method of booking Masses until such time as restrictions are eased even further which we anticipate may happen at any time.

THE FURTHER EASING OF RESTRICTIONS!

We will shortly be able to gather again much as we used to!

Effective 1 July 2020 the numbers at Mass will be restricted only by the application of the 4sq metre rule to the size of our church.

This means that from the weekend of July 4/5 we can welcome 140 people to each Mass in our church. This is also the number we can welcome for funerals, effective from 14 June.

With this welcome news our weekend Mass Schedule from July 4/5 will now be:

Saturday 5:00 pm

Somersby 5:30 pm

Sunday 7:30am, 8:45 am, 10:15 am and 6:00 pm

Baptisms 11:30 am

Our weekday Mass Schedule from July 1 will return to our normal schedule

Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday 9:00 am.

Wednesday 11:30 am and Friday 12:00 pm

There will be no need to book for Masses from the weekend of July 4/5 HOWEVER, you must still sign in with your details upon your entry through the foyer doors. Entry will be via both the east and west doors of the foyer with multiple sheets available to reduce congestion.

SATURDAY MORNING COFFEE SHOP

REOPENS JULY 11!

Yes, the Coffee Shop will start operating from Saturday July 11 – keeping custom to the limit prescribed by the size of the Jordan Room. Whilst only 15 people may be able to sit in the Jordan Room at any one time [this excludes 2 volunteer staff], don't forget a take-away coffee enjoyed in our mural garden is always very pleasant.

Please remember that the Coffee Shop is a not for profit initiative as all profits are donated to charities.

GROUPS CAN RECOMMENCE MEETING AT THE PARISH

If your group is under 15 people then you may meet at the Jordan Room or Admin Centre, however, if your group is between 16 and 20 we would need to consider the timing of your meeting so that you may meet at the school library. It would be great to get as many groups returning as possible

- † Bible Study groups
- † Cancer Prayers
- † Salvatorian Collaborators' Prayer Group
- † Grief & Loss Group
- † Men Alive
- † Women's Faith Circle
[a new group – information will be available in the weeks to come]

We appreciate our Craft Group can't recommence as numbers are too large, but we are thankful for any small steps towards normality that we can take.

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES FOR 20/21

ARE AVAILABLE IN THE FOYER TODAY!

Your 2020/2021 planned giving envelopes are available, for collection, in the foyer today, and we thank you for your ongoing financial support of the parish.

We advised in our recent piece on parish finances that a number of people converted to giving monthly via a direct debit on their account during this recent COVID period and we thank them for giving in this way. Should any of those parishioners prefer to resume giving via envelopes, simply contact the Parish Office to have them reinstated.

Similarly, please contact the office should you wish to join our planned giving, either via envelope or direct debit or complete the form in this Bulletin and pop it on the plate, or deliver via email or at the office.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS 2020/21

We invite anyone who has been contemplating becoming a Catholic to make an enquiry at the office or with Frs Greg or Paul to explore it further. Once the decision has been made we'd invite you, or perhaps someone you would recommend contacting us, to join our programme which commences in August and culminates at the Easter Vigil in 2021 – all further pandemics excluded!

ALPHA WILL COMMENCE IN THE PARISH SOON!

However, we need to train our facilitators which will take place in our parish on Saturday July 4 from 2 to 5pm. If you would like to be a facilitator, please have a chat with Fr Greg or contact the Parish Office.

A BIG THANK YOU TO ROBYN MCBRIDE

RETIRING FROM MINISTRY AFTER 40 YEARS!

We are completely indebted to Robyn McBride who for 40 years has passionately devoted her free time to ensuring that Catholic patients at Gosford Hospital were visited and given the opportunity to receive the Blessed Sacrament.

The time has come for Robyn to step back which has been a big decision for her to make as it has been part of the fabric of her life but now that she has decided, she takes with her our deepest gratitude and we are sure that of the thousands of people for whom she has been a gateway to the Church over the years.

THANK YOU ALSO TO JOHN & BRENDA DONNELLY

John and Brenda have been driver and helper bringing our aged care facility residents to Mass on the bus for a number of years now but sadly for us, and our elderly, they have given it prayerful consideration and decided it is time for them to retire from this ministry. Thank you John and Brenda, great work, and many blessings on you!

BUS DRIVER'S HELPER NEEDED

Firstly we thank Sherree Sullivan for taking on the role of driver on the 2nd Sunday of the month and we are looking for someone to assist her commencing in July. This will entail leaving with Sherree to collect the passengers for the 9am Mass and basically being a spare set of eyes for her that all is fine with her passengers and that the right number get on and off the bus. If you are interested please contact the Parish Office.

CATECHIST CORNER

This week we received great news that the Department of Education is moving to re-open Special Religious Education (SRE) classes to our catechists in Term 3.

This comes as Bishop Anthony reminds us all that "the community of the Church is an evangeliser, and to evangelise we must be generous and enthusiastic for the Lord". He acknowledged "the marvelous work that our catechists do by proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ".

However, in a "covid environment" many of our catechist team find themselves in the "at risk category" and may not be able to return to the classroom.

This provides both a challenge and an opportunity to our community at St Patrick's. A challenge to continue our mission to the children in State schools and an opportunity for more parishioners to join our team.

The return from "lockdown" may give you reason to be thankful for your Faith. Maybe you can be generous in response to the Lord by joining our catechist team.

Pick up a yellow catechist flyer at the Church doors, talk to a catechist, and contact Alain for more details (0414273654).

Thanks & blessings Alain

AUDIO VISUAL PRESENTERS REQUIRED

We are desperately in short supply of people willing to present the audio visual slides at Mass. All presentations are ready for you and available at a single click. If you are computer literate perhaps this may be something you would be interested in doing? Full training is given and consideration of your availability. Please give the office a call or contact Peter McLean at mcleanpeter@bigpond.com

ROSARY EVERY NIGHT AT 9:00 PM

CAN YOU HELP LEADING THE ON-LINE SESSIONS?

Due to other Parish and Salvatorian duties it is not Possible for Fr Greg and or Fr Paul to lead us in the Rosary every night.

Fr Greg is looking for volunteers to lead help the On-Line Rosary on a regular or occasional basis.

Maybe once a week or once a month.

You don't need to be a computer wiz. But a computer of reasonable power and a good NBN internet connection are required.

Tom Croll will help with the set-up of the Live Streaming program, and give full training to those interested. Tom is also producing a Training Video Tutorial, which will be made available to anyone who would like to help.

Contact Fr Greg or the Parish Office if you can help.

GREAT NEWS ABOUT VENERABLE FRANCIS JORDAN

GREAT NEWS!

Today, June 19, 2020, Pope Francis has officially approved the promulgation of the decree acknowledging the miracle attributed to our Founder - Fr. Francis Mary-of-the-Cross Jordan.

The miracle: A young couple who were expecting a baby in 2014 in Jundiai (Brazil), were informed by several medical doctors and specialists that their unborn child was suffering an incurable bone disease (skeletal dysplasia).

Being members of a group of Lay Salvatorians, the parents began to pray through the Intercession of the Venerable Servant of God, Fr. Francis Jordan, inviting other members of the Salvatorian Family to join them.

The child was born completely healthy on 8 September 2014, the Feast of the Birth of the Blessed Mother, and the anniversary of Fr. Francis Jordan's death.

After the required canonical procedures had been successfully completed, the Holy Father, Pope Francis, declared that this miraculous healing was worked by God through the Intercession of Fr. Francis Jordan.

This declaration by the Pope opens definitively the way towards the beatification of Fr. Francis Jordan.

As soon as the date and place of the beatification ceremony are determined by the Holy See, we will announce it.

VENERABLE FRANCIS JORDAN

soon to be called
"Blessed Francis Jordan"

CONTRIBUTIONS TO OUR COOK BOOK

OUR NEXT FUND RAISING INITIATIVE

Calling all cooks to submit their favourite recipes for inclusion in our upcoming cook book – which we're sure will be titled with a catchy name.

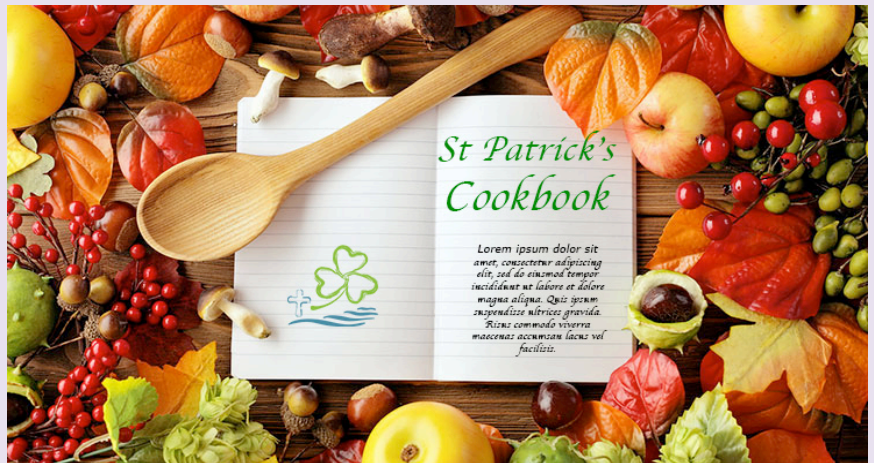

Simply email the office [patsgos@acs.net.au] with your recipe/s.

There's nothing like a home bake and we're sure there'll be some great recipes included. Perhaps an ideal present for someone you know?

We are planning on a Book that includes sections on:

➤ Winter and Summer Recepies

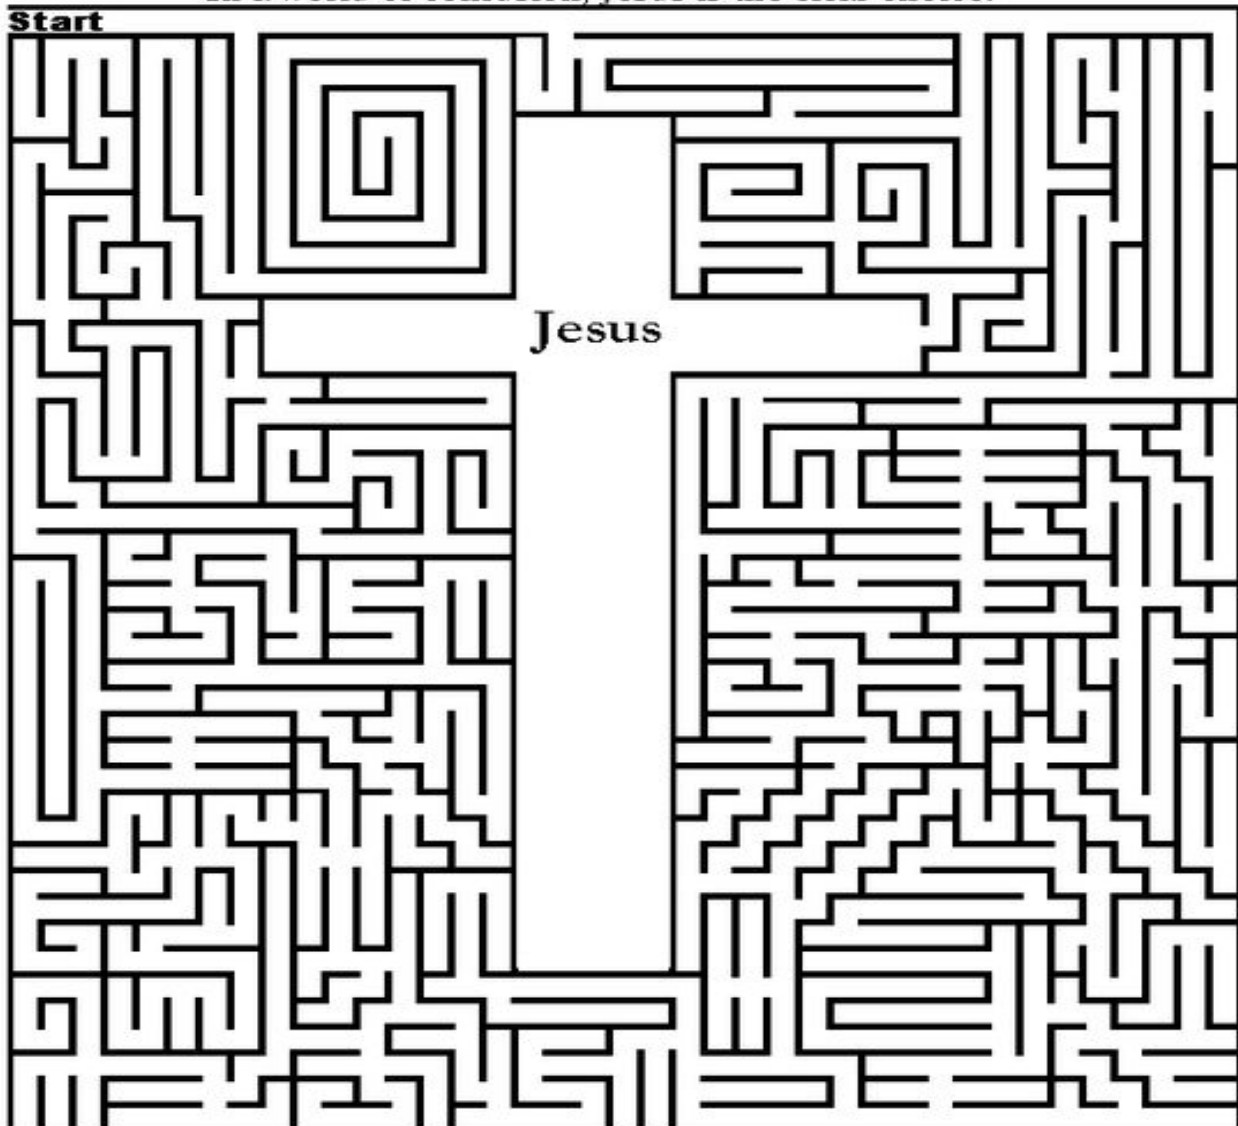

- 🍷 Entrees
- 🍲 Mains
- 🍰 Desserts & Cakes
- 🍹 Cocktails

WE WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE AROUND 50 RECEPIES, SO DON'T HOLD BACK?

We are still accepting recipes for our parish cookbook but they've not really been coming in thick and fast! If you are worried to submit one because you don't want your photo taken with the dish/cake/biscuits/etc, then please don't worry. If you aren't comfortable, you don't have to submit one – but please, submit the recipes!

In a world of confusion, Jesus is the clear choice.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 27:8-9

The Lord is the strength of his people, a saving refuge for the one he has anointed.

Save your people, Lord, and bless your heritage, and govern them for ever.

FIRST READING

JER 20:10-13

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah

He has delivered the soul of the needy from the hands of those who are evil.

Jeremiah said:

'I hear so many disparaging me, "Terror from every side!

Denounce him! Let us denounce him!" All those who used to be my friends watched for my downfall, "Perhaps he will be seduced into error.

Then we will master him and take our revenge!"

But the Lord is at my side, a mighty hero; my opponents will stumble, mastered, confounded by their failure; everlasting, unforgettable disgrace will be theirs.

But you, Lord of Hosts, you who probe with justice, who scrutinise the loins and heart, let me see the vengeance you will take on them, for I have committed my cause to you.

Sing to the Lord, praise the Lord, for he has delivered the soul of the needy from the hands of evil men.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 68:8-10. 14. 17. 33-35. R. V.14

(R.) Lord, in your great love, answer me.

It is for you that I suffer taunts, that shame covers my face, that I have become a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my own mother's sons.

I burn with zeal for your house and taunts against you fall on me.

(R.) Lord, in your great love, answer me.

This is my prayer to you, my prayer for your favour.

In your great love, answer me, O God, with your help that never fails: Lord, answer, for your love is kind; in your compassion, turn towards me.

(R.) Lord, in your great love, answer me.

The poor when they see it will be glad and God-seeking hearts will revive; for the Lord listens to the needy and does not spurn his servants in their chains.

Let the heavens and the earth give him praise, the sea and all its living creatures.

(R.) Lord, in your great love, answer me.

SECOND READING

ROM 5:12-15

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

God's gift to us is nothing like our sin against him.

Sin entered the world through one man, and through sin death, and thus death has spread through the whole human race because everyone has sinned. Sin existed in the world long before the Law was given. There was no law and so no one could be accused of the sin of 'law-breaking', yet death reigned over all from Adam to Moses, even though their sin, unlike that of Adam, was not a matter of breaking a law.

Adam prefigured the One to come, but the gift itself considerably outweighed the fall. If it is certain that through one man's fall so many died, it is even more certain that divine grace, coming through the one man, Jesus Christ, came to so many as an abundant free gift.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JN 15:26. 27

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of Truth will bear witness to me, says the Lord, and you also will be my witnesses.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MT 10:26-33

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Do not fear those who can kill the body.

Jesus instructed the Twelve as follows: 'Do not be afraid. For everything that is now covered will be uncovered, and everything now hidden will be made clear. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the daylight; what you hear in whispers, proclaim from the house-tops.

'Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; fear him rather who can destroy both body and soul in hell. Can you not buy two sparrows for a penny? And yet not one falls to the ground without your Father knowing. Why, every hair on your head has been counted. So there is no need to be afraid; you are worth more than hundreds of sparrows.

'So if anyone declares himself for me in the presence of men, I will declare myself for him in the presence of my Father in heaven. But the one who disowns me in the presence of men, I will disown in the presence of my Father in heaven.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

PS 144:15

The eyes of all look to you, Lord, and you give them their food in due season.

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

Jeremiah is the innocent victim of slander, entrapment and vengeance. Still he is confident, for God is on his side as a mighty champion who will fight for him. This military imagery calls to mind the cosmic war that God victoriously waged against evil (see Ps 24:9-11). Jeremiah believes that God will turn upside down the plans of his assailants. They watched for him to mis-step, but God will cause them to stumble; they hoped to prevail over him, but they will not triumph; they tried to take vengeance on Jeremiah, but God will take vengeance on them. They will be put to shame and confusion, a fate sometimes worse than death.

Elements of a lament can be detected in the psalm: the cry of lament (vv.14, 17); reasons for the lament (vv.8-10); expressions of confidence (vv.33-34); and praise for having been heard (v.35). We may not be accustomed to complain to God, but a lament is a statement of profound faith. Acknowledging that God has power over the circumstances of life, it is an expression of humble faith that God will come to the aid of those who cry out. This passage contains covenant vocabulary: lovingkindness; truth; salvation; and passionate love. The psalmist brings the strength and the personal dimension of the covenant to the plea for deliverance.

Paul proclaims the incomparable nature of God's salvific grace by contrasting the actions of Adam and Christ. Though the contrast appears to be between Adam and Christ, it is really between the epochs that each inaugurated. Adam brought in the era of sin and death; Christ established the eschatological era of acquittal and life. Paul points to the first offence (Gen 3:6) and the common experience of all people to explain the pervasive presence of sin and death in the world. All die, therefore all must have sinned. However, as death for all entered the world through the sin of one – Adam, so grace was won for all through the gift of one – Christ.

Jesus exhorts: Fear no one! Neither those who resist the gospel, nor those who might put you to death. Rather fear total destruction in Gehenna and rejection by God. It is now time for the gospel to be proclaimed openly and boldly. The doors have been flung open:

what was concealed, must be revealed; what was secret, must be made known; what was said in darkness, must be spoken in light; what was whispered, must be shouted.

Jesus encourages the disciples to trust in God despite hardships. Suffering is not proof that God is disinterested. Rather, if God cares for the insignificant sparrows, how much more will God care for them? If God can count the hairs on their heads; how much more does God know their needs?
