ANYBODY WHO WELCOMES YOU WELCOMES ME

MT 10:42

In today's Gospel Jesus tells the Disciples that they must put Jesus before all else, including their parents and siblings. He then goes on to explain, if anybody puts themselves out to serve the disciples, it will be as if they are helping Jesus and therefore, God.

Jesus then explains anybody who welcomes the disciples will not lose their reward.

I like to think there is more meaning to this reading than the literal. Help me, and I will reward you.

I believe Jesus is using another way to describe the truth about and the full impact of Love!

Is this Gospel telling us to help his original disciples, or should we be thinking in terms of today, our times?

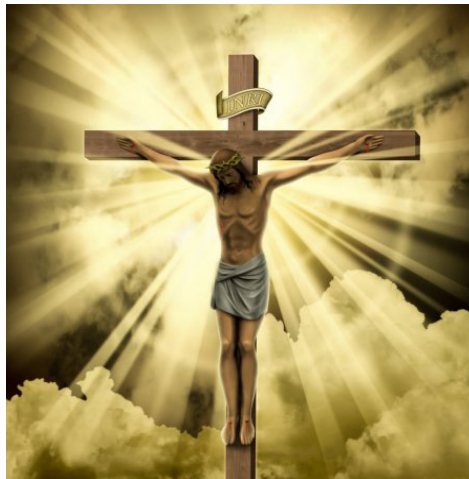

If so, is Jesus talking about helping our current Priests and Clergy, I believe yes, that is precisely how we should be interpreting this Gospel. But more than just helping our Priests and Clergy I presume it implies assisting one another, being careful to ensure our religious are cared for.

Who are the current day disciples, surely our Priests and Clergy, but isn't it also our fellow people of faith. That I believe means you and me.

Love in the context of today's Gospel and today's society, from my perspective, means helping and standing alongside our fellow Christians and beyond. Our fellow human beings!

MT 10:37 – 42

In the context of St Patrick's "Year of Love", we can once more see Gods love come through the readings. Today we see Jesus telling us even if we offer so little as a glass of water to one of his disciples, he will ensure we will get our reward.

My take on this is; God loves us so much he will reward us for merely being respectful and kind to one another because we are his current day disciples.

But don't forget Fr Greg, Fr Paul and all the clergy, they have an enormous task and fearsome responsibility on their hands. Their role is to cater to our spiritual needs to ensure our eternal life. The least we can do for them is to offer our help, even if it is just a glass of water.

Yes, the Coffee Shop will start operating from Saturday July 11 – keeping custom to the limit prescribed by the size of the Jordan Room. Whilst only 15 people may be able to sit in the Jordan Room at any one time [this excludes 2 volunteer staff], don't forget a take-away coffee enjoyed in our mural garden is always very pleasant.

Please remember that the Coffee Shop is a not for profit initiative as all profits are donated to charities.

CONGRATULATIONS GIANAH!

We welcome today Gianah Ferragamo who is making her First Communion at the 8.45am Mass in the presence of her family, and her faith family. Unfortunately Gianah

FR PAUL'S OFFICIAL FIRST MASSES

NEXT WEEKEND JULY 4 & 5

We have been waiting for the first opportunity to officially welcome Fr Paul as our Assistant Parish Priest and congratulate him on his Ordination on April 16, 2020 so please join us at our Masses next weekend to celebrate. Unfortunately we will not be able to have refreshments afterwards due to the restrictions, however, the first opportunity we get, Fr Paul will certainly enjoy celebrating with you, his flock.

WE ACKNOWLEDGE AND APPRECIATE

A sizeable bequest has been left by former long term parishioner, Ray Maher. Ray's bequest is of great benefit to the parish and Ray will be memorialised in the parish in a way yet to be determined.

Perhaps we could take this opportunity for others to consider whether giving in this way is something they would like to do?

THANK YOU TO THE TROPIANO FAMILY

Unfortunately, the Tropianos who contributed so significantly to the parish in the music and other ministries, are no longer available. We can only thank them for their gifts of time and talents over many years. We are hopeful that one day Joe, Rosa, Sal, Isabella and all the Tropianos, we will see you again!

THANK YOU TO ELIZABETH & JANICE

We have been struggling to find musicians for our Vigil Mass and offer our sincere thanks to Elizabeth & Janice. They have offered their musical skills to us! A huge thank you, ladies!!

THE CHRISTIAN BROTHERS LEAVE EAST GOSFORD

July 17 marks the last day there will be the Christian Brothers' presence at St Edward's College, and it is with sadness that we see the Brothers depart. Br Peter Hester has been in leadership at East Gosford for the last 16 years and he, and his fellow Brothers, have been great friends to our clergy and of the parish. We ask you to please remember them in your prayers.

PARISH COOKBOOK

The contributions have been trickling in, and we can tell you that some of them have been mouthwatering! We believe that when it's published, it'll be a handy reference in anyone's kitchen – particularly in this era when we've quite forgotten how to cook! We may even replace Light N Easy or Hello Fresh J

Please keep the contributions coming in – you don't need to have a picture of the dish, or yourself if you don't want to – we just need your recipes. Spread the word to your friends and family for their contributions, we welcome them from any source.

THRIVING MARRIAGE SERIES

STARTS ON JULY 6

Woman to woman: we do a lot. We parent, work, cook, keep track of schedules, maintain friendships, and we are wives. We are the hearts of our families and the thread running through our communities, bringing everything together.

While all the roles we play are gratifying, they can also be all-consuming at times, right?

So, it's no surprise that so many of us wake up one day to realise we've lost our connection with our spouse. Whether there's a big problem in the marriage or just a nagging feeling that something is missing, this realisation hurts. After all, you want your spouse to be your best friend and partner on this journey we call life, right?

The good news is that, with the right knowledge and tools, you can repair and strengthen your marriage to recreate that intimacy, both you and your spouse crave. My friend, a positive psychology practitioner and coach Anne Nelson is on a mission to give you that knowledge and those tools. To that end, she's hosting a no-cost interview series, The Thriving Marriage Series: How to Create Deep Connection and Intimate Communication in Your Life and Marriage, starting July 6.

It brings together more than 15 experts, including me, to share our best advice for cultivating effective communication and intimacy in your marriage. You can reserve your spot here, at no cost:

Cultivate The Intimacy And Connection You Crave.

When you go to the link above and sign up to join us for this series of powerful conversations, you'll discover insightful tips on masterful communication. You will learn how men and women relate differently, what you can do to ensure your spouse is hearing you, and how to become a truly good listener (and why that's critical). We'll talk about how to move forward from where you are now, and you will gain what's needed to develop greater intimacy and purpose in your marriage as well as all your relationships.

I cannot wait to share my own insights, and to listen in on what others are sharing! If you're ready to transform your marriage and truly enjoy your relationship with your Number One person, then I sincerely hope you'll join us for The Thriving marriage Series: How to Create Deep Connection and Intimate Communication in Your Life and Marriage, starting July 6.

If you'd like to join the conversation, reserve your spot here: You Can Nurture Your Marriage. Sign Up Here To Learn How.

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES FOR 20/21

ARE AVAILABLE IN THE FOYER TODAY!

Your 2020/2021 planned giving envelopes are available, for collection, in the foyer today, and we thank you for your ongoing financial support of the parish.

We advised in our recent piece on parish finances that a number of people converted to giving monthly via a direct debit on their account during this recent COVID period and we thank them for giving in this way. Should any of those parishioners prefer to resume giving via envelopes, simply contact the Parish Office to have them reinstated.

Similarly, please contact the office should you wish to join our planned giving, either via envelope or direct debit or complete the form in this Bulletin and pop it on the plate, or deliver via email or at the office.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS 2020/21

We invite anyone who has been contemplating becoming a Catholic to make an enquiry at the office or with Frs Greg or Paul to explore it further. Once the decision has been made we'd invite you, or perhaps someone you would recommend contacting us, to join our programme which commences in August and culminates at the Easter Vigil in 2021 – all further pandemics excluded!

ALPHA WILL COMMENCE IN THE PARISH SOON!

However, we need to train our facilitators which will take place in our parish on Saturday July 4 from 2 to 5pm. If you would like to be a facilitator, please have a chat with Fr Greg or contact the Parish Office.

BUS DRIVER'S HELPER NEEDED

We are looking for someone to the driver assist the bus driver every 2nd Sunday of the month, commencing in July. This will entail leaving with Sherree to collect the passengers for the 9am Mass and basically being a spare set of eyes for her that all is fine with her passengers and that the right number get on and off the bus. If you are interested please contact the Parish Office.

AUDIO VISUAL PRESENTERS REQUIRED

We are desperately in short supply of people willing to present the audio visual slides at Mass. All presentations are ready for you and available at a single click. If you are computer literate perhaps this may be something you would be interested in doing? Full training is given and consideration of your availability. Please give the office a call or contact Peter McLean at mcleanpeter@bigpond.com

PS 46:2

FIRST READING

2 KGS 4:8-11. 14-16

A reading from the second book of the Kings

That is the holy man of God, let him remain there.

One day as Elisha was on his way to Shunem, a woman of rank who lived there pressed him to stay and eat there. After this he always broke his journey for a meal when he passed that way. She said to her husband, 'Look, I am sure the man who is constantly passing our way must be a holy man of God. Let us build him a small room on the roof, and put him a bed in it, and a table and chair and lamp; whenever he comes to us he can rest there.'

One day when he came, he retired to the upper room and lay down. 'What can be done for her?' he asked. Gehazi (his servant) answered, 'Well, she has no son and her husband is old.' Elisha said, 'Call her.' The servant called her and she stood at the door. 'This time next year,' Elisha said 'you will hold a son in your arms.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 88:2-3. 16-19. R. V.2

(R.) Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

I will sing for ever of your love, O Lord; through all ages my mouth will proclaim your truth.

Of this I am sure, that your love lasts for ever, that your truth is firmly established as the heavens.

(R.) Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

Happy the people who acclaim such a king, who walk, O Lord, in the light of your face, who find their joy every day in your name, who make your justice the source of their bliss.

(R.) Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

For it is you, O Lord, who are the glory of their strength; it is by your favour that our might is exalted: for our ruler is in the keeping of the Lord; our king in the keeping of the Holy One of Israel.

(R.) Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

SECOND READING

ROM 6:3-4. 8-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

Having been buried with him through baptism, we shall walk in a new life.

When we were baptised in Christ Jesus we were baptised in his death; in other words, when we were baptised we went into the tomb with him and joined him in death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the Father's glory, we too might live a new life.

But we believe that having died with Christ we shall return to life with him: Christ, as we know, having been raised from the dead will never die again. Death has no power over him any more. When he died, he died, once for all, to sin, so his life now is life with God; and in that way, you too must consider yourselves to be dead to sin but alive for God in Christ Jesus.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

1 PT 2:9

Alleluia, alleluia!

You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy people.

Praise God who called you out of darkness and into his marvellous light.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MT 10:37-42

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Anyone who does not accept his cross is not worthy of me. Anyone who welcomes you, welcomes me.

Jesus instructed the Twelve as follows: 'Anyone who prefers father or mother to me is not worthy of me. Anyone who prefers son or daughter to me is not worthy of me. Anyone who does not take his cross and follow in my footsteps is not worthy of me. Anyone who finds his life will lose it; anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it.

'Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me; and those who welcome me welcome the one who sent me.

'Anyone who welcomes a prophet because he is a prophet will have a prophet's reward; and anyone who welcomes a holy man because he is a holy man will have a holy man's reward.

'If anyone gives so much as a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is a disciple, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward.'

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

by Dianne Bergant CSA

In the first reading, the Shunemite woman recognises Elisha as a prophet. She is a woman of influence, who was able to convince him to dine with her (see Lydia in Acts 16:15). She was also a woman of means, who could afford to add a room to her home so that the prophet might stay there on a regular basis. Compelled to reward her generosity, the prophet promises: By this time next year you will have a son. There is no magic here, no divination. The only way that Elisha could have made a promise that would eventually be fulfilled would have been through the power of God.

Today's responsorial psalm comes from a royal hymn that praises God's commitment to David (see 2 Sam 7:16). Lovingkindness and faithfulness are technical terms for God's covenant fidelity. Unlike the covenant made with the people through the mediation of Moses (see Exodus 19-21), an agreement which required their compliance to God's law, this covenant imposes no added responsibilities on David or his descendants. These covenant promises are pure gift. The psalmist then turns to the people (vv. 16-17) who will enjoy the blessings that flow from God's lovingkindness and faithfulness. They are brought to praise God for such goodness.

Today Paul explains how Baptism enables believers to participate in the death and resurrection of Jesus. The ritual is itself the re-enactment of his death and resurrection. As they were plunged into the water, they were buried with Christ in death; as they emerged from the water, they rose with him into new life. Paul's real purpose in drawing these lines of comparison between the death and resurrection of Jesus and baptism and new life of the Christians is ethical exhortation. He seeks to encourage them to set aside their old manner of living and to take on a new life of holiness. This may entail hardships, but the cross is the only way to new life.

The gospel reading is an instruction on the demands (vv. 37-39) and rewards (vv.40-42) of discipleship. Jesus insists that if the believers are not willing to measure up to these demands, they are not worthy to become his disciples. This 'cost of discipleship' challenges the ties of kinship which are marked by natural affection. Such bonds must take second place to commitment to him. "Carrying the cross" is probably an allusion to Jesus' own crucifixion. Playing with the idea of finding and losing, Jesus states that to find one's life means to live self-centredly, but to lose oneself in sacrifice will be rewarded with
