FR PAUL'S OFFICIAL FIRST MASSES

THIS WEEKEND JULY 4 & 5

We have been waiting for the first opportunity to officially welcome Fr Paul as our Assistant Parish Priest and congratulate him on his Ordination on April 16, 2020 so please join us at our Masses this weekend to celebrate. Unfortunately we will not be able to have refreshments afterwards due to the restrictions, however, the first opportunity we get, Fr Paul will certainly enjoy celebrating with you, his flock.

Below are a few photographs of the Ordination Ceremony, where Bishop Anthony Randazzo performed his first ordination as a Bishop here in the first ordination to be performed at St Patrick's Church.

The service was very intimate with only a few priests in attendance in the church, due to the COVID-19 lockdown.

MEETING OF SENIOR SERVERS AND ACHOLYTES

TODAY SUNDAY 5TH JULY

FR GREG REQUIRES ALL SENIOR SERVERS AND ACHOLYTES TO ATTEND A MEETING IN THE CHURCH AT 4:00PM

THE CHRISTIAN BROTHERS LEAVE EAST GOSFORD

July 17 marks the last day there will be the Christian Brothers' presence at St Edward's College, and it is with sadness that we see the Brothers depart. Br Peter Hester has been in leadership at East Gosford for the last 16 years and he, and his fellow Brothers, have been great friends to our clergy and of the parish. We ask you to please remember them in your prayers.

RECEIVING COMMUNION ON THE TONGUE

Those who prefer to receive the Eucharist on the tongue are advised that it can only be distributed by the priest so please place your in that line, and at the end of it so that others are not behind you. Thank you.

SCHOOL HOLIDAY PARISH OFFICE OPENING HOURS

During the school holidays it will be business as usual on Mondays July 6 & 13 and Fridays 10 & 17, however, Tuesdays to Thursdays of each week, the office will be open only from 9am to 3pm.

We thank Denise Jay for filling in while Colleen has a few days off.

WE THANK THE TEACHERS

All teachers have withered a tumultuous time with the Covid-19 lockdown. They were faced with a complete upheaval of their normal teaching routines and had to set up and perform on-line teaching with little prior warning. This they did whilst continuing classes for the children of essential workers. They then successfully resumed normal classes, but with the added restrictions of social distancing. That can not have been an easy task!

Now they are on a break with the school holiday, we wish them well for a safe and restful holiday.

RECOMMENCEMENT OF BIBLE DISCUSSION AND PRAYER GROUPS:

Monday Morning: See the Schedule on page 2 .

Monday Evening: The first Monday after the school holidays – 7-9pm.

Wednesday Morning: Recommencing in September

Christian Unity Prayer Group: 3rd Monday in July [20th] and thereafter, after the 9am Mass.

All enquiries to Parish Office.

For further information contact Helen Moore via the Parish Office.

St Patrick's Craft Group of knitters has been running at East Gosford for 10 years under the leadership of Helen Moore. Thirty members meet each Friday afternoon and on average make 100 wraps per year for WWL. People travel from various places on the Central Coast and enjoy one another's friendship whilst knitting, crocheting or sewing up squares. Ages range up to 93. Helen's network of friends including those from tennis drop off their wraps to her to be sent to the warehouse at Alexandria.

LAY SALVATORIANS PLEA

FOR PRACTICAL ASSISTANCE FOR THE DISADVANTAGED

Next weekend at all Masses we will have representatives of the Lay Salvatorians speak at all Masses on behalf of girls in Salvatorian parishes in the Congo as endeavours are made to teach them skills, and in this case it is sewing.

Donations will be sought of practical items: fabrics, threads, tape measures, needles, pins, anything required for sewing, and we will place a box in the foyer next week for your donations.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS 2020/21

We invite anyone who has been contemplating becoming a Catholic to make an enquiry at the office or with Frs Greg or Paul to explore it further. Once the decision has been made we'd invite you, or perhaps someone you would recommend contacting us, to join our programme which commences in August and culminates at the Easter Vigil in 2021 – all further pandemics excluded!

ALPHA WILL COMMENCE IN THE PARISH SOON!

However, we need to train our facilitators which will take place in our parish on Saturday July 4 from 2 to 5pm. If you would like to be a facilitator, please have a chat with Fr Greg or contact the Parish Office.

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES FOR 20/21 ARE AVAILABLE IN THE FOYER TODAY!

Your 2020/2021 planned giving envelopes are available, for collection, in the foyer today, and we thank you for your ongoing financial support of the parish.

We advised in our recent piece on parish finances that a number of people converted to giving monthly via a direct debit on their account during this recent COVID period and we thank them for giving in this way. Should any of those parishioners prefer to resume giving via envelopes, simply contact the Parish Office to have them reinstated.

Similarly, please contact the office should you wish to join our planned giving, either via envelope or direct debit or complete the form in this Bulletin and pop it on the plate, or deliver via email or at the office.

CHARITABLE WORKS FUND & PROJECT COMPASSION TAX RECEIPTS NOW AVAILABLE

If you contributed to the Charitable Works Fund Appeal or Project Compassion [and ticked the Tax Receipt boxes] your receipt is available for collection in the foyer today.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO OUR COOK BOOK

OUR NEXT FUND RAISING INITIATIVE

Calling all cooks to submit their favourite recipes for inclusion in our upcoming cook book – which we're sure will be titled with a catchy name.

Simply email the office [patsgos@acs.net.au] with your recipe/s.

There's nothing like a home bake and we're sure there'll be some great recipes included. Perhaps an ideal present for someone you know?

We are planning on a Book that includes sections on:

➤ Winter and Summer Recepties

- 🍷 Entrees
- 🍲 Mains
- 🍰 Desserts & Cakes
- 🍹 Cocktails

WE WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE AROUND 50 RECIPES, SO DON'T HOLD BACK?

We are still accepting recipes for our parish cookbook but they've not really been coming in thick and fast! If you are worried to submit one because you don't want your photo taken with the dish/cake/biscuits/etc, then please don't worry. If you aren't comfortable, you don't have to submit one – but please, submit the recipes!

BUS DRIVER'S HELPER NEEDED

We are looking for someone to the driver assist the bus driver every 2nd Sunday of the month, commencing in July. This will entail leaving with Sherree to collect the passengers for the 9am Mass and basically being a spare set of eyes for her that all is fine with her passengers and that the right number get on and off the bus. If you are interested please contact the Parish Office.

AUDIO VISUAL PRESENTERS REQUIRED

We are desperately in short supply of people willing to present the audio visual slides at Mass. All presentations are ready for you and available at a single click. If you are computer literate perhaps this may be something you would be interested in doing? Full training is given and consideration of your availability. Please give the office a call or contact Peter McLean at mcleanpeter@bigpond.com

It's been intrusive and difficult so apologies for the disarray, but the refurbishment is now complete with new carpet and storage cupboards and it looks completely different!

May we thank John Malicki, Ron Begg & Victor Camilleri for providing the manpower required to shift heavy items of furniture and demolish our old cupboards, so again we thank these wonderful men.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 47:10-11

Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple.

Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice.

FIRST READING

ZEC 9:9-10

A reading from the prophet Zechariah

See how humbly your king comes to you!

The Lord says this:

'Rejoice heart and soul, daughter of Zion!

Shout with gladness, daughter of Jerusalem!

See now, your king comes to you; he is victorious, he is triumphant, humble and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

He will banish chariots from Ephraim and horses from Jerusalem; the bow of war will be banished. He will proclaim peace for the nations. His empire shall stretch from sea to sea, from the River to the ends of the earth.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 144:1-2. 8-11. 13-14. R. V.1

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

I will give you glory, O God my King, I will bless your name for ever.

I will bless you day after day and praise your name for ever.

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love.

How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures.

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing.

They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God.

The Lord is faithful in all his words and loving in all his deeds.

The Lord supports all who fall and raises all who are bowed down.

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

SECOND READING

ROM 8:9.11-13

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

If by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body, you will live.

Your interests are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him, and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

SEE MT 11:25

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MT 11:25-30

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

I am gentle and humble of heart.

Jesus exclaimed, 'I bless you, Father, Lord of heaven and of earth, for hiding these things from the learned and the clever and revealing them to mere children. Yes, Father, for that is what it pleased you to do. Everything has been entrusted to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, just as no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

'Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give you rest. Shoulder my yoke and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. Yes, my yoke is easy and my burden light.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

PS 33:9

Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.

NEW TESTAMENT COMMENTARY

BY MARY COLOE PBVM

'Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give you rest.'

One of the issues faced by the first Christians was how to speak about Jesus and his relationship with God. Within a decade the disciples were giving Jesus divine status and yet holding true to their Jewish creed, 'Hear O Israel the Lord our God is one.' They looked to the Old Testament to find precedents for the paradox they experienced – the oneness of God and the divine status of Jesus. Matthew's Gospel draws on the image of Divine Wisdom – present with God from the beginning, coming forth from God and coming into the world. For his Jewish community, Matthew presents Jesus as Divine Wisdom who invites all to come and 'team up with' (be yoked to) him.

Just before the passage we have in today's Gospel there is a reflection on John the Baptist who by this stage in the Gospel is in prison. Jesus speaks highly of John then compares his own ministry and its response with John's, 'For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, "He has a demon"; the Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, "Behold, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!" Yet wisdom is shown to be right by her deeds.' (Matt 11:18-19)

Here, Jesus identifies himself with Wisdom who is known to be right by her deeds. This is similar to the response Jesus gave to the disciples of John the Baptist when they were sent to ask Jesus if he was the one whom John had said was coming after him. Jesus' response to John's disciples was – look at my deeds. 'The blind see, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the good news preached to them.'

The deeds of Jesus point to his identity and show that he is right in his teaching.

Listen to Wisdom describe herself in the Old Testament book of Sirach:

Come to me, you who are untaught, and lodge in my school. Put your neck under the yoke, and let your souls receive instruction; it is to be found close by. See with your eyes that I have laboured little and found myself much rest (Sir 51:23, 26-27).

Matthew draws on these images of divine Wisdom in his presentation of Jesus. Later in the Gospel Jesus will accuse the Pharisees of laying a heavy burden on people's shoulders. (23:4) By contrast the burden of Jesus is light.

The prayer Jesus offers is typical of the blessings that are part of Jewish prayer life.

Blessed are you, Lord our God creator of the earth and the heavens. Grant us our Father, knowledge of you, the understanding and discernment of your Law.

Jesus' prayer is similar: Blessed or Praised be you Father, Lord of heaven and earth. Jesus then continues with the reason why God is to be praised and this is for the mutual intimate knowledge of Father and Son. This knowledge Jesus has revealed to his followers who are likened to 'babes' or 'infants'. Both John and Jesus experience opposition from those who were looked to for leadership. For all their learning or status, these leaders, Herod, the High Priests, the Pharisees, could not accept the message of John or the teaching of Jesus. It was the 'little ones' not the mighty who were open to his message.

The wisdom Jesus offers contradicts the wisdom of the world which is why the learned and clever cannot accept it but those with childlike simplicity of heart can. Jesus has a vision of what is essential that cuts through the many false complexities that life suggests as ways to find meaning – busyness, wealth, power, having more of everything. The soul finds no rest in such things. In the words of St Augustine, 'You have made us for yourself O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in Thee.'

APOSTLESHIP OF THE SEA SUNDAY (SEA SUNDAY) - 12 JULY

In relation to Appeals of Obligation, earlier in April we advised with respect to the Apostleship of the Sea Appeal, you may simply wish to promote it by encouraging prayers to those whose livelihoods are connected to the sea. If parishioners wish to donate, we suggest using the code SEA as a reference.

Should you wish to share the Appeal materials and promote more broadly, please find those materials attached.

The Annual Sea Sunday Appeal is to be held on Sunday, 12 July 2020

On Sea Sunday, the church prays for all those who live and work at sea.

This year marks the centenary of the Apostleship of the Sea. In 2020, the COVID-19 pandemic has highlighted the vulnerability of seafarers working on cruise ships, risking exposure to the virus, prevented from returning home and caught in critical situations of isolation on sea vessels.

Stella Maris, Apostleship of the Sea, is the official maritime welfare agency of the Catholic Church that supports seafarers both practically and spiritually, attending to their welfare in many ports around Australia and elsewhere through Stella Maris Centres and Chaplaincies.

Chaplains, volunteers and staff visit to speak to the ship's crew, offer friendship, arrange Mass and attend Mass with them, listen to their needs, and provide access to Wi-Fi or Internet so they can contact their families. Hospitality within Stella Maris Centres is also offered which provides an important break from work routines onboard.

An annual appeal runs on this day to support this ministry. Below are some resources, and further information can be found at: <http://www.aos-australia.org/>
