God's Love for You

"And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow—not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love. No power in the sky above or in the earth below—indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord."

ST PATRICK'S YOUTH PROGRAM

OUR NEW YOUTH MINISTER JAMIE ANDREWS

Hi everyone! It's Jaimi here, your new parish Youth Minister. I graduated, last year, from St Peter's College at Tuggerah, where I was lucky enough to be heavily involved in its youth ministry program. I'm now so excited to be joining your parish! Thank you to everyone for being so welcoming as I've gotten to know a few of you through our online youth group in the last few months. I'm really excited to get to know you all in person really soon. All are more than welcome at Gosford youth group and mass, and I look forward to learning and growing this parish together!

I really believe that youth are not the future of the Church, we are the Now of the Church. I'm so excited to see all the things in store for Gosford Youth as they continue to deepen their relationships with God and His Church. I am looking forward as we strive to be true disciples of Jesus Christ.

I can't wait to meet and get to know you all very soon, and until then I'd like to leave you with a little part of one of my favourite Bible verses.

"My dear brothers and sisters, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain." - 1 Corinthians 15:58

THANK YOU TO MATTHEW FRENCH

OUR OUTGOING YOUTH LEADER

Matthew has grown our youth group over the last twelve months and leave us to take on new challenges in business. We wish him well in his new venture and thank him for his dedication and work. We are looking forward to see Matthew in St Patrick's each weekend as he attends Mass.

PARISH VISION AND MISSION STATEMENT – 26 JULY 2020.

Fr Greg will launch a survey regarding the Parish of St Patrick's Gosford to gather ideas from parishioners as to their thoughts for an appropriate Parish Vision and Mission Statement.

So, now is the time to put your thinking caps on and discuss among yourselves. What do you think should be at the heart of St Patrick's Gosford?

BISHOP RANDAZZO ANNOUNCES CHANGE TO THE CELEBRATION OF THE SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

Bishop Anthony Randazzo has made adjustments to the age of children receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation in the Diocese of Broken Bay.

In a letter to clergy of the Diocese last week, Bishop Randazzo acknowledged the crisis of the COVID-19 pandemic has disrupted the course of Sacramental Preparation Programmes across all parishes.

"I have been unable to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation in the parishes of the Diocese at all this year," said Bishop Randazzo, who has decided, due to ongoing uncertainty and for the sake of clarity for parents and families, parishes and personnel involved in preparing children for the Sacraments that he will not celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation at all in 2020.

Formerly, children receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation were seven years old, typically those in Year 2. For the future celebration of the Sacrament, Bishop Randazzo has announced that candidates will be at least eight years old, those who are in Year 3.

The change has been made after Bishop Randazzo consulted and received feedback about the Sacrament of Confirmation and after discussions with the Council of Priests.

"The practice of celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation with those who have reached the age of seven, typically those in Year 2, seems early for the most meaningful reception of the Sacrament," said Bishop Randazzo.

"Therefore, I wish to use the circumstances afforded us negatively by the pandemic to place our practice of Sacramental preparation, positively, on a new footing going forward."

The Bishop has not changed the order of the Sacraments of Initiation being Baptism, followed by Confirmation and Eucharist. Under the new program, Reconciliation and Eucharist will therefore be celebrated by those who are aged nine and in Year 4.

"I regard this as the best and most sustainable way forward to address both the suspension of the celebration of Confirmation for the rest of this year, and to engage the unique opportunity with which we are now presented to bring Sacramental Preparation Programmes into the future on a different footing for children who are older and more able to appreciate the significance of their Christian Initiation."

The letter to clergy announcing the changes, explained some of the implications on Sacramental Preparation Programmes. With the various timings of the programmes across parishes throughout the Diocese taking place either in the first or second halves of the year, it will take the course of 2021 to 2022 to establish the consistent foundation of the preparation programme for children who are aged eight and older.

Bishop Randazzo also explained norms around who has the faculty to Confirm, especially regarding the various circumstances arising for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. With some exceptions, the Bishop clarified particularly regarding the Confirmation of children, "I am the ordinary minister of the Sacrament of Confirmation and I do not wish this to be compromised by widespread delegation of this faculty".

The Bishop explained he is aware of the practical implications for parishes during a period of adjustment but looks forward to achieving consistency across the diocese as soon as is practicable.

"We have been through a great disruption that has affected parish communities in numerous ways," said Bishop Randazzo, "and I acknowledge the many creative and innovative initiatives adopted by our people to keep the faith flourishing”.

“I am grateful for the way in which parishes will bring to completion this year sacramental preparations commenced in 2019, so that in the new year, we can resume the programme for new cohorts on a new premise.”

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES FOR 20/21

ARE AVAILABLE IN THE FOYER TODAY!

Your 2020/2021 planned giving envelopes are available, for collection, in the foyer today, and we thank you for your ongoing financial support of the parish.

We advised in our recent piece on parish finances that a number of people converted to giving monthly via a direct debit on their account during this recent COVID period and we thank them for giving in this way. Should any of those parishioners prefer to resume giving via envelopes, simply contact the Parish Office to have them reinstated.

Similarly, please contact the office should you wish to join our planned giving, either via envelope or direct debit or complete the form in this Bulletin and pop it on the plate, or deliver via email or at the office.

CHARITABLE WORKS FUND & PROJECT COMPASSION TAX RECEIPTS NOW AVAILABLE

If you contributed to the Charitable Works Fund Appeal or Project Compassion [and ticked the Tax Receipt boxes] your receipt is available for collection in the foyer today.

OUR NEXT FUND RAISING INITIATIVE

Calling all cooks to submit their favourite recipes for inclusion in our upcoming cook book – which we're sure will be titled with a catchy name.

Simply email the office [patsgos@acs.net.au] with your recipe/s.

There's nothing like a home bake and we're sure there'll be some great recipes included. Perhaps an ideal present for someone you know?

We are planning on a Book that includes sections on:

➤ Winter and Summer Receptions

🍷 Entrees

🍲 Mains

🍰 Desserts & Cakes

🍹 Cocktails

WE WOULD LIKE TO RECEIVE AROUND 50 RECIPES, SO DON'T HOLD BACK?

We are still accepting recipes for our parish cookbook but they've not really been coming in thick and fast! If you are worried to submit one because you don't want your photo taken with the dish/cake/biscuits/etc, then please don't worry. If you aren't comfortable, you don't have to submit one – but please, submit the recipes!

MOST REV ANTHONY RANDAZZO BISHOP OF BROKEN BAY MESSAGE FOR BBNEIGHBOURHOODS 14 JULY 2020

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Last week I reflected upon how Jesus is the foundation of our mission as a community of the Church, especially in his respect, protection, and care for the children, the vulnerable, and indeed all people. These are a description of our "core values": respect, care, and protection of others. They are always Christ-centred and people oriented.

As a community of the faithful, an essential element of our vocation requires that we are to be vigilant in living these values. In our Diocese of Broken Bay, we are blessed to have a dedicated team whose mission is to assist us via ongoing formation and education regarding the safety of our children, young people, and vulnerable adults.

For my part, as your bishop, I meet regularly with the Director of the Office for Safeguarding. Together we discuss how as individuals and as a community we will ensure that our standards meet best practice procedures, which are correct and most effective. The work of our Safeguarding team allows me to have oversight of child related activities in our parishes, schools and works of mercy; screening and training procedures; visiting clergy audits; and Redress compliance.

I am grateful for this work as it allows full transparency and accountability and it is supported by external processes in collaboration with the Office of the Children's Guardian. It is helpful to recognise this good work while at the same time recognising the need not to become complacent.

Within the Diocese, there is one Office for Safeguarding because we are one community of the Church. The Office includes three different teams for Chancery, Catholic Schools Office, and CatholicCare, which are under the direction of the Diocesan Director. Our Diocesan website has a dedicated page for the Safeguarding Office's work and activities. On that page, you will find links to training and education, policies, resources and research.

Our Gospel values drive all this good work. It is important for me to ensure that our community of the Church is vigilant and that we have robust external processes to assist us in our mission to proclaim and live the Good News of Jesus Christ and to ensure the safety and wellbeing of all. Blessings on your week,

+Anthony

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

PS 53:6,8

See, I have God for my help. The Lord sustains my soul. I will sacrifice to you with willing heart, and praise your name, O Lord, for it is good.

FIRST READING

WIS 12:13.16-19

A reading from the book of Wisdom

In the place of sin, you give repentance.

There is no god, other than you, who cares for everything, to whom you might have to prove that you never judged unjustly.

Your justice has its source in strength, your sovereignty over all makes you lenient to all.

You show your strength when your sovereign power is questioned and you expose the insolence of those who know it; but, disposing of such strength, you are mild in judgement, you govern us with great lenience, for you have only to will, and your power is there.

By acting thus you have taught a lesson to your people how the virtuous man must be kindly to his fellow men, and you have given your sons the good hope that after sin you will grant repentance.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 85:5-6. 9-10. 15-16. R. V.5

(R.) Lord, you are good and forgiving.

O Lord, you are good and forgiving, full of love to all who call.

Give heed, O Lord, to my prayer and attend to the sound of my voice.

(R.) Lord, you are good and forgiving.

All the nations shall come to adore you and glorify your name, O Lord: for you are great and do marvellous deeds, you who alone are God.

(R.) Lord, you are good and forgiving.

But you, God of mercy and compassion, slow to anger, O Lord, abounding in love and truth, turn and take pity on me.

(R.) Lord, you are good and forgiving.

SECOND READING

ROM 8:26-27

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

The Spirit himself pleads for us in a way that could never be put into words.

The Spirit comes to help us in our weakness. For when we cannot choose words in order to pray properly, the Spirit himself expresses our plea in a way that could never be put into words, and God who knows everything in our hearts knows perfectly well what he means, and that the pleas of the saints expressed by the Spirit are according to the mind of God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

SEE MT 11:25

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MT 13:24-43

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Let them grow together until the harvest.

Jesus put a parable before the crowds, 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field. While everybody was asleep his enemy came, sowed darnel all among the wheat, and made off. When the new wheat sprouted and ripened, the darnel appeared as well. The owner's servants went to him and said, "Sir, was it not good seed that you sowed in your field? If so, where does the darnel come from?" "Some enemy has done this" he answered. And the servants said, "Do you want us to go and weed it out?" But he said, "No, because when you weed out the darnel you might pull up the wheat with it. Let them both grow till the harvest; and at harvest time I shall say to the reapers: First collect the darnel and tie it in bundles to be burnt, then gather the wheat into my barn.'"

He put another parable before them, 'The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field. It is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the biggest shrub of all and becomes a tree so that the birds of the air come and shelter in its branches.'

He told them another parable, 'The kingdom of heaven is like the yeast a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour till it was leavened all through.'

In all this Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables; indeed, he would never speak to them except in parables. This was to fulfill the prophecy:

I will speak to you in parables and expound things hidden since the foundation of the world.

Then, leaving the crowds, he went to the house; and his disciples came to him and said, 'Explain the parable about the darnel in the field to us.' He said in reply, 'The sower of the good seed is the Son of Man. The field is the world; the good seed is the subjects of the kingdom; the darnel, the subjects of the evil one; the enemy who sowed them, the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; the reapers are the angels. Well then, just as the darnel is gathered up and burnt in the fire, so it will be at the end of time. The Son of Man will send his angels and they will gather out of his kingdom all things that provoke offences and all who do evil, and throw them into the blazing furnace, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth. Then the virtuous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Listen, anyone who has ears!'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

The Lord, the gracious, the merciful, has made a memorial of his wonders; he gives food to those who fear him.

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

In the passage from the Book of Wisdom, the author lists several forceful divine characteristics and then seems to temper them with traits that could be considered their opposites. First he brings divine care and condemnation together (v.13). The principal theme of this verse is an acknowledgment of the total and exclusive providence of God. Next, God's might is assuaged by leniency. Actually it is because God is so powerful that God can decide to be lenient. God's manner of dealing with the people of Israel becomes a lesson to be learned by them. They are exhorted to pattern their treatment of others after their God's treatment of them.

Parts of an individual lament are singled out for the psalm response: a prayer to be heard by God (vv.5-6); expressions of praise (vv. 9-10); and a plea for mercy (vv. 15-16). The structure of the first section is the same as that of the third: God is extolled in the first verse (vv.5, 15); presuming on the attributes expressed there, the psalmist makes a fervent plea (vv. 6, 16). Covenant language appears throughout these verses. God is compassionate, gracious, slow to anger and filled with lovingkindness. The excellence of the God of Israel is then extolled. It is no wonder that all nations praise the name of the God of Israel.

Paul provides a bold and moving explanation of prayer to God. He first acknowledges human weakness which prevents people from knowing how to pray as they ought. Paul refers to weak human beings committed to Jesus as holy ones, saints. Such a reference itself shows that Paul maintains that human weakness is not an obstacle to holiness. The Spirit does more than merely offer aid. Rather, the Spirit identifies with this weakness, takes it on, and thus comes to our assistance, acting as intermediary between God and humankind. God has a purpose, and though we do not know what that purpose is, the enabling Spirit of God moves us toward it. Once again the gospel shows us Jesus as a wisdom teacher, using parables to illustrate aspects of the growth of the kingdom of heaven. The field sown with weeds illustrates the fact that, despite all of the dedicated work that goes into the establishment of the kingdom of God, there will not be a perfect yield. The parables of the mustard seed; and the yeast in the dough both address the unimpressive beginnings of the kingdom of heaven, its gradual and imperceptible growth, and the extraordinary yield that it will ultimately produce. The fate of the righteous is reminiscent of a passage found in the Book of Daniel (12:3). Their radiance will be like that of the cosmic bodies.
