PARISH VISION AND MISSION STATEMENT – 26 JULY 2020.

St Patrick's Parish Community Consultation

One of the goals of the St Patrick's Parish Council for 2020 is to establish a Vision and Mission Statement for the Parish which articulates the values and beliefs of the contemporary Church in Australia. It is critical that this Vision and Mission Statement reflects the sentiments of the St Patrick's Parish Community as we seek to encounter the Living Christ.

The following survey is designed to provide members of St Patrick's Parish the opportunity to provide feedback to inform the development of the Vision and Mission Statement.

Father Greg and the Parish Council values your input and look forward to analysing your feedback in the development process.

The Survey can be filled in on line at:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/SX6GW5M>

THANK YOU

John Malicki who stepped back from his role as our very valued volunteer caretaker & jack of all trades! We will miss him greatly in this role and extend our heartfelt thanks to him for his time and his talents.

CATECHIST CORNER

Special Religious Education (SRE or Scripture) is resuming over the next three weeks in the State schools in our Parish. Praise the Lord! Unfortunately, some of our dedicated catechists are unable to resume teaching due to the "COVID environment" and their health status. We are inviting parishioners to join the team to fill in during Term 3, or for the rest of the year. A Working with Children Check and some mandatory training (Child Protection in particular) would be required. Pre-prepared lessons that are age-appropriate and easy to use will be supplied. It's as simple as clicking through a PowerPoint. Classes are about 30mins duration each week. Grab a yellow catechist flyer at the Church doors and talk to a catechist after Mass. Or call Alain (0414273654) for more details.

COVID UPDATE

Late last night the New South Wales government released the latest amendments to the Public Health (COVID-19 Restrictions on Gathering and Movement) Order (No 4) Amendment Order (No 2) 2020, effective from 24 July 2020.

In summary the changes relevant are:

- the number of people allowed inside a place of public worship is the lesser of 'one person per 4 square metre' rule or 100 persons.
- the number of people allowed at a funeral is the lesser of 'one person per 4 square metre' rule or 100 persons.
- The number of people allowed at a wedding to have a capacity of the lesser of 'one person per 4 square metre' rule or 150 persons.
- places of public worship must complete and adhere to the most recent approved COVID Safety Plan AND register as a COVID Safe business via the NSW Government website - <https://www.nsw.gov.au/register-your-business-as-covid-safe>.

In addition to these amendments in the Public Health Order, the COVID Safety Plan for Places of Public Worship has also been updated. In summary the relevant changes are:

- Music is permissible if conducted safely. Musicians should be distanced 1.5 meters. Woodwind instruments should be discouraged. Singers should maintain at least 3 meters of physical distancing.
- Mingling and gathering after services should be suspended or adjusted.
- Continued need to record names and contact details of those present at services along with the date and time they attended.

We are providing musicians at our 5 pm, 10.15 am & 6 pm Masses, however, we discourage people from joining in the singing as suggested by NSW Health.

KIDS WISDOM

(written by kids)

HOW DO YOU DECIDE WHO TO MARRY?

- You got to find somebody who likes the same stuff. like, if you like sports, she should like it that you like sports, and she should keep the chips and dip coming.-- Alan, age 10
- No person really decides before they grow up who they're going to marry. God decides it all way before, and you get to find out later who you're stuck with.-- Kristen, age 10

WHAT IS THE RIGHT AGE TO GET MARRIED?

- Twenty-three is the best age because you know the person forever by then. -- Camille, age 10

HOW CAN A STRANGER TELL IF TWO PEOPLE ARE MARRIED?

- You might have to guess, based on whether they seem to be yelling at the same kids.-- Derrick, age 8

WHAT DO YOU THINK YOUR MOM AND DAD HAVE IN COMMON?

- Both don't want any more kids.-- Lori, age 8.

WHAT DO MOST PEOPLE DO ON A DATE?

- Dates are for having fun, and people should use them to get to know each other. Even boys have something to say if you listen long enough.-- Lynnette, age 8
- On the first date, they just tell each other lies and that usually gets them interested enough to go for a second date.-- Martin, age 10

WHEN IS IT OKAY TO KISS SOMEONE?

- When they're rich.-- Pam, age 7
- The law says you have to be eighteen, so I wouldn't want to mess with that.- - Curt, age 7
- The rule goes like this: if you kiss someone, then you should marry them and have kids with them. It's the right thing to do.- - Howard, age 8

IS IT BETTER TO BE SINGLE OR MARRIED?

- It's better for girls to be single but not for boys. Boys need someone to clean up after them.-- Anita, age 9

HOW WOULD THE WORLD BE DIFFERENT IF PEOPLE DIDN'T GET MARRIED?

- There sure would be a lot of kids to explain, wouldn't there?-- Kelvin, age 8.

THE #1 FAVORITE IS.....

HOW WOULD YOU MAKE A MARRIAGE WORK?

- Tell your wife that she looks pretty, even if she looks like a dump truck. -- Ricky, age 10.

THANK YOU AND WELL DONE ROBYN

We have many people in our parish that go above and beyond to serve.

Right up there is Robyn McBride, who has worked with the hospital visitation team for 40 years. It is with regret that Robyn has handed in her resignation to take some well-earned rest.

Some of her fellow team members went to lunch to bid her farewell.

THE CWF APEAL

NEXT WEEKEND

Our CWF August Appeal, the first in the 20/21 Finance Year commences next weekend and envelopes are available at all pews today in readiness. These may be placed in the 2nd collection box near the York Street exit door.

The Diocese of Broken Bay Charitable Works Fund (CWF) is a Diocesan-wide Appeal that runs three times a year to raise funds for charities in the Diocese.

Which charities does the CWF support?

Donations to the CWF are distributed to five charities that directly support the people in our Diocese.

1. CatholicCare Hospital Chaplaincy and Pastoral Care Practitioner Program

Over the last year, the Pastoral Care Practitioners have visited over 3,000 individual patients, 700 family members of a patient and more than 180 hospital staff members.

2. Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD)

In our Diocese, there are almost 1,000 volunteer catechists (Catholic Religion teachers) who have received specialised training to provide 16,500 school students with a Catholic education. CCD staff and volunteers are committed to providing quality Catholic age-appropriate education in both primary and high schools. Without your support thousands of students in our Diocese will not receive Catholic education.

3. St Lucy's School

St Lucy's School is a Catholic K-8 school (moving towards K-12 in 2024) in the Dominican tradition for students with disabilities. We provide a holistic education, operating outstanding academic programs taught by special educators. At St Lucy's we view each child individually in order to unlock their unique potential and to encourage them to become independent.

4. St Edmund's College

St Edmund's is a 7-12 high school for students with a wide range of disabilities including sensory impairment, intellectual disability and autism. St Edmunds creates a holistic learning environment incorporating academics and personal wellbeing through co-curricular activities.

5. The Ephpheta Centre

Ephpheta means "Be Open" and the Ephpheta Centre provides pastoral care, sacramental services, support and advocacy for all people who are deaf or hard of hearing. The chaplaincy team visits people confined to their homes, nursing homes, hospitals and those in prison, as well as friendship community gatherings catering to people across Sydney and the Central Coast.

FIRST EUCHARIST SACRAMENTAL PROGRAM

PARENT INFORMATION EVENING 6TH AUGUST

Eucharist is a Greek word meaning 'Thanksgiving', and of all sacraments, the Holy Eucharist, or Holy Communion, is the most central and important to Catholicism and is the third sacrament of initiation for the children. When we receive Holy Communion, we're intimately united with Jesus Christ - he literally becomes part of us. Also, by taking Holy Communion, we express our union with all Catholics who believe the same doctrines, obey the same laws and follow the same leaders.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 67:6-7,36

God is in his holy place, God who unites those who dwell in his house; he himself gives might and strength to his people.

FIRST READING

1 KGS 3:5.7-12

A reading from the first book of the Kings

You have asked for wisdom.

The Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream and said, 'Ask what you would like me to give you.' Solomon replied, 'Lord, my God, you have made your servant king in succession to David my father. But I am a very young man, unskilled in leadership. Your servant finds himself in the midst of this people of yours that you have chosen, a people so many its numbers cannot be counted or reckoned. Give your servant a heart to understand how to discern between good and evil, for who could govern this people of yours that is so great?' It pleased the Lord that Solomon should have asked for this. 'Since you have asked for this' the Lord said 'and not asked for long life for yourself or riches or the lives of your enemies, but have asked for a discerning judgement for yourself, here and now I do what you ask. I give you a heart wise and shrewd as none before you has had and none will have after you.'

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 118:57. 72. 76-77. 127-130. R. V.97

(R.) Lord, I love your commands.

My part, I have resolved, O Lord, is to obey your word.

The law from your mouth means more to me than silver and gold.

(R.) Lord, I love your commands.

Let your love be ready to console me by your promise to your servant.

Let your love come to me and I shall live for your law is my delight.

(R.) Lord, I love your commands.

That is why I love your commands more than finest gold.

That is why I rule my life by your precepts: I hate false ways.

(R.) Lord, I love your commands.

Your will is wonderful indeed; therefore I obey it.

The unfolding of your word gives light and teaches the simple.

(R.) Lord, I love your commands.

SECOND READING

ROM 8:28-30

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

He predestined us to become true images of his Son.

We know that by turning everything to their good God co-operates with all those who love him, with all those that he has called according to his purpose. They are the ones he chose specially long ago and intended to become true images of his Son, so that his Son might be the eldest of many brothers. He called those he intended for this; those he called he justified, and with those he justified he shared his glory.

The Word of the Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

SEE MT 11:25

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MT 13:44-52

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

He sells everything he owns and buys the field.

Jesus said to the crowds, 'The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field which someone has found; he hides it again, goes off happy, sells everything he owns and buys the field.'

'Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls; when he finds one of great value he goes and sells everything he owns and buys it.'

'Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet cast into the sea that brings in a haul of all kinds. When it is full, the fishermen haul it ashore; then, sitting down, they collect the good ones in a basket and throw away those that are no use. This is how it will be at the end of time: the angels will appear and separate the wicked from the just to throw them into the blazing furnace where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.'

'Have you understood all this?' They said, 'Yes.' And he said to them, 'Well, then, every scribe who becomes a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out from his storeroom things both new and old.'

Shorter form

MT 13:44-46

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

He sells everything he owns and buys the field.

Jesus said to the crowds, 'The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field which someone has found; he hides it again, goes off happy, sells everything he owns and buys the field.'

'Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls; when he finds one of great value he goes and sells everything he owns and buys it.'

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY MARY COLOE PBVM

'God's reign is like ...'

There is a story of an Indian monk who found the world's largest diamond. In a nearby village a man had a dream that if he went to a certain monastery he could gain enormous wealth beyond all his hopes. The villager arrived at the monastery and told the monk his dream. The monk explained, 'The dream probably refers to this,' and handed over the diamond to him. The villager returned home with great joy, but that night tossed and turned. The next week he returned to the monastery, utterly exhausted and begged, 'Give me the wealth that enables you to give away this diamond so easily.'

The two parables today remind me of this Indian tale. Jesus says that the reign of God is so great a treasure that it is worth giving up all you have. People who have had profound experiences often struggle to find the words to describe this for others. They find themselves resorting to images - 'It was like ...; it was as if ...'. In the parables Jesus tries to find ways of explaining why the reign of God has so captivated his own imagination. Of course Jesus speaks of a treasure and a pearl he has already found, while the disciples and later Christians only glimpse God's reign in moments of insight. And yet even these brief and veiled glimpses have been enough to sustain disciples for two thousand years and even today there are many prepared to give all they have in following Christ. These men and women have found the wealth that enabled the monk to give away the diamond.

Paul, whose letter we are currently reading, is an example of one who lived out this parable with utter recklessness. Paul's encounter with the Risen Jesus led him to know the overwhelming love of God is not determined by following the Law, but is an utterly gracious gift of God to us. He reflects today, could anything get in the way of this love God has for us; and Paul concludes, there is nothing that can separate us from God's love. This is the treasure that Paul found, enabling him to put aside all the lawful requirements of Judaism he previously thought were the only way to salvation. Paul had once been a Pharisee, one completely dedicated and given over to his Jewish traditions and teaching. Yet, when he comes to know Jesus, he is able to let all this go, to 'hand over the diamond' of his previous life and take up a new calling to spread the Gospel he has now discovered. In the reading from Romans today, it is as if we are listening in to Paul's astonishment at the depths of God's love, a love of us that enabled God to give us Jesus. In a sense, Jesus is God's diamond, given over to us in love. Recognising this enables Paul to give over the diamond of his own life.

The third parable in the collection that Matthew offers picks up the theme of last week's parable about the weeds and the wheat growing together. Today's parable shifts the image from gardening to fishing where the net hauls in a wide catch of both good fish and worthless things. Once again, there will come a time when sorting will happen but not in the middle of the fishing process. Only when the fishing work is over, will the catch be sorted.

When I think of this week's fishing parable and last week's about the wheat and the weeds, I wonder what must have been happening in Matthew's community for him to give his community these two parables, as they are not recorded in Mark and Luke. Were divisions starting to happen? Were people beginning to make judgments about others, perhaps wanting to sort out the community? Could Matthew be trying to teach his local church to leave the sorting out to God? The fact that these are only in Matthew certainly suggests that these had some particular purpose, even if today we can only guess what that might be. .... © Mary Coloe
