"Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others." Philippians 2:3-4

A MESSAGE FROM BISHOP ANTHONY

MY DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN CHRIST,

The Gospel, which is the Good News of Jesus Christ, is not just there to be proclaimed, although that is an important action. A more important and even more difficult action is integrating the Gospel into the fibre of our very lives. If we are honest, we would find that many of us struggle with this aspect the most. The theology and the proclamation of the Word is relatively easy. What is more challenging is the living out of the Word of God and becoming a credible witness to the Gospel.

In the Gospels, Jesus spoke of a cost involved in responding to His call to become a disciple (Lk 14:28), in terms of what becoming a disciple will do to our plans, our reputations and our possessions. He told Peter that answering the call will take him to places he would rather not go (Jn 21:18). The Christian vocation would cost them their very lives. To live one's vocation can appear to be foolishness according to the wisdom of the secular world. Why bother with such foolishness? Because when the Word of God is integrated into our lives, we undergo a transformation.

COVID UPDATE

WE HAVE HAD MANY REQUESTS FROM PARISHIONERS REGARDING HOW TO WEAR A MASK.

The poster to the left, from the NSW Government has a wealth of information about the Do's and the Don'ts of wearing masks

AROUND THE DIOCESE

On Sunday 9 August, St Agatha's Pennant Hills was closed due to a positive COVID-19 case and within a few hours, the deep cleaning had commenced, which was quite a thorough process. At this point the church remains closed until further notice.

Bishop Anthony had a word of encouragement for our parishes:

"I encourage our Catholic communities to adhere to the Covid-Safety Plans we have in place and to continue to practice Covid-safe behaviour. This will ensure the safest possible environment in our churches."

"The quick action at St Agatha's resulted in no spread or contamination from the parish church. Thank you for following the correct procedures!"

MASS OF THE OILS

Due to the risk at this time in the pandemic, Bishop Anthony has decided to limit the number of clergy and people who will gather with him on Thursday 17 September for the Mass of the Oils. The Mass will continue but will be celebrated with a small, representative group of clergy and laity. It will be live streamed and all will be encouraged to join with Bishop Anthony online. Whilst the situation of the pandemic presents with such uncertainty and risk, Bishop Anthony considers that this will be the best way for us to proceed. Further details of the ceremony will be forthcoming in the coming weeks.

NATIONAL WEBINAR:

KNOWING THE COMMUNITY WHOM WE ARE CALLED TO SERVE

How well do we know the people who come to Mass? How well do we know those beyond the worshipping community? In our mission to share the Good News of Jesus Christ, we are called to engage with the hopes and struggles of those in our local context. In this time of COVID-19, the need to connect has become even more pronounced. This webinar, led by the National Centre for Pastoral Research, addresses these questions, and ways we can be informed and supported, drawing upon the Parish Social Profiles and in dialogue with community leaders.

This event will be hosted on the Zoom platform by the Pastoral Ministry Network (formerly known as NAPPA) and supported by the Mission Planners Network Oceania and the National Centre for Pastoral Research (NCPR).

All clergy, Parish Pastoral Councils, Finance Committees and other parish leaders are encouraged to attend.

Date: Tuesday 25 August 2020

Time: 11am – 12pm

Please find attached an A4 flyer and social media tile for this event.

Safeguarding Month

This is the fifth year that the Diocese of Broken Bay will highlight Safeguarding in the month of September. The theme for this year's Safeguarding Month is "Promoting the Rights of the Child".

The month will begin with the annual Liturgy of Lament to acknowledge and pray for those who have suffered harm by the Catholic Church. The theme for this year's liturgy is "Listening to the past; caring for the future." The Liturgy will be held on Tuesday 1 September at 7.00pm at Our Lady of the Rosary Cathedral, Waitara. With restrictions still in place, a limited number of people will be present at the Liturgy, and for the first time it will be live streamed for people to view at home.

CF. PS 85:1-3

Turn your ear, O Lord, and answer me; save the servant who trusts in you, my God.

Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long.

FIRST READING

IS 22:19-23

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

I place the key of the House of David upon his shoulder.

Thus says the Lord of hosts to Shebna, the master of the palace:

I dismiss you from your office, I remove you from your post, and the same day I call on my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah.

I invest him with your robe, gird him with your sash, entrust him with your authority; and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the House of Judah.

I place the key of the House of David on his shoulder; should he open, no one shall close, should he close, no one shall open.

I drive him like a peg into a firm place; he will become a throne of glory for his father's house.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 137:1-3. 6. 8. R. V.8

(R.) Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands.

I thank you, Lord, with all my heart, you have heard the words of my mouth.

Before the angels I will bless you.

I will adore before your holy temple.

(R.) Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands.

I thank you for your faithfulness and love which excel all we ever knew of you.

On the day I called, you answered; you increased the strength of my soul.

(R.) Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands.

The Lord is high yet he looks on the lowly and the haughty he knows from afar.

Your love, O Lord, is eternal, discard not the work of your hands.

(R.) Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands.

SECOND READING

ROM 11:33-36

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

From him, through him, and in him are all things.

How rich are the depths of God – how deep his wisdom and knowledge – and how impossible to penetrate his motives or understand his methods! Who could ever know the mind of the Lord? Who could ever be his counsellor? Who could ever give him anything or lend him anything? All that exists comes from him; all is by him and for him. To him be glory for ever! Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

MT 16:18

Alleluia, alleluia!

You are Peter, the rock on which I will build my Church; the gates of hell will not hold out against it.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MT 16:13-20

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

You are Peter, to you I will give the keys of the kingdom of heaven.

When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say he is John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' 'But you,' he said 'who do you say I am?' Then Simon Peter spoke up, 'You are the Christ,' he said, 'the Son of the living God.' Jesus replied, 'Simon son of Jonah, you are a happy man! Because it was not flesh and blood that revealed this to you but my Father in heaven. So I now say to you: You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church. And the gates of the underworld can never hold out against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven: whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in heaven.' Then he gave the disciples strict orders not to tell anyone that he was the Christ.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

CF. PS 103:13-15

The earth is replete with the fruits of your work, O Lord; you bring forth bread from the earth and wine to cheer the heart.

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

The first reading narrates the transfer of authority from one man to another. Some form of mismanagement or deceit had taken place, and so Shebna, the master of the palace was deposed. The description of the transfer resembles a ritual of investiture. Three metaphors characterise the authority bestowed upon Eliakim the successor:

father of the people, key to the house, and tent peg. This oracle promises a person who will provide the order and stability that the kingdom of Judah must have needed. If this person was not himself a messianic figure, he seems to have ensured that the kingdom, which would eventually produce a messiah, would survive.

The temple setting of the psalm suggests that the psalmist has come to worship and publicly witness to the goodness of God. The temple was considered the earthly representation of the heavenly divine dwelling. Thus, standing in the temple in the presence of God, the psalmist would also be in the presence of the attending angels. The reason for the psalmist's gratitude is God's faithfulness to covenant commitment: loving-kindness and truth. The psalmist concludes the prayer of thanksgiving on a note of confidence that this commitment will endure forever. God is not only faithful to past promises, but will be faithful into the endless future.

Paul speaks again of the mysterious ways of God in the plan of salvation. He argues that it will be through the very salvation of others that the first people (the Jews) will be brought to the gospel. God's ways do not follow the path of human logic. Even though human beings cannot grasp God's plan, it has meaning and purpose, and God's plan for all creation will unfold in God's way. The mysterious ways of salvation have brought Paul to praise the incomprehensible wisdom that determined them. Paul concludes by extolling God as creator and source of all that is, as the sustainer through whom all creation continues to be, and as the goal for whom all things were made and to whom all things proceed.

Jesus asks the disciples what people are saying about him; Who do they think he is? He seeks to discover how his words and actions are being understood, thus preparing the disciples for their own assessment of him. The answers given are all religious figures who have already died. The people seem to believe that Jesus is a prophetic figure come back from the dead. Speaking in the name of others, Simon Peter proclaims that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus insists that the only reason why Peter could make such a testimony of faith was that Jesus' identity had been revealed to him by God. After this Jesus announces that his church will be founded on Peter.
