HOW YOU CAN HELP:

- Planned Giving: this is the best way to help because we can budget our requirements with more certainty and can be effected either by Planned Giving Envelopes placed on the plate usually but during COVID, in the boxes at all exits, or monthly direct debit which is important at the moment when in-Mass collections aren't permitted.
- Tap and Go and Cash Boxes are still available in the foyer, and from today, we have a Tap & Go device for donations to the 1st collection as well as that for the 2nd collection.
- Leave a bequest in your will: Available at the foyer today are booklets on this very topic. Please take one and reflect on whether this is something you would like to do for your parish.

At all pews today you will find an application card you may complete and pop in one of the collection boxes and you will be contacted by office staff to start your giving!

We hope you enjoyed the finance presentation today and would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your support to date.

SEPTEMBER IS SAFEGUARDING AWARENESS MONTH

The theme for Safeguarding Awareness Month 2020 is Promoting the Rights of the Child. It has been 30 years since Australia ratified the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child. It is also 30 years since Australia started celebrating Child Protection Week. The purpose of Safeguarding Month 2020 is to raise awareness about the Rights of the Child. An initiative the Diocese has undertaken in 2020 to celebrate this milestone is the production of the Rights of the Child Framework. The Framework will be launched on, Monday 14 September 2020, the day after Catholic Church Child Protection Sunday. A copy of the Framework and the matching resources including a video and child friendly poster will be provided to all Parishes.

Rights of the Child, education and prayers during Safeguarding Awareness Month – In the Media & Resource Kit Zip Folder (attached) is a document listing Easy things the Parish can do to for Safeguarding Month September 2020. All the resources listed are available from the attached Zip Folder or from the intranet found here – <https://intranet.bbcatholic.org.au/safeguarding/parish-resources>.

SOCIAL JUSTICE SUNDAY, 30 AUGUST

Sunday, 30 August marks Social Justice Sunday. The Social Justice Statement 2020-21, To Live Life to the Full: Mental health in Australia today, encourages faith communities, governments and individuals to make mental health a priority.

Parishes and local communities are called to be places of welcome and inclusion, overcoming the barriers and stigma often faced by people experiencing mental ill-health. It demands the commitment of governments and policy-makers to prevent so many people falling through the cracks of the mental health system.

It also calls for the nation's commitment to address those policies that exacerbate the already precarious circumstances of First Australians and refugees and asylum-seekers.

SOCIAL JUSTICE PRAYER

Jesus, you invite us all into the fullness of life. May we support one another to flourishing body, mind and spirit. Strengthen our commitment to ensure that nobody falls through gaps in our systems of care. People called you mad. Help us to recognise you in those who suffer mental ill-health today. Show us how to eliminate stigmatisation of mental ill-health from our parishes, schools, communities and organisations. You drew near to those who were suffering in body or mind. May we too feel your nearness when we struggle with mental health challenges. May we be one as members of Your Body. You invite us to share in your ministry of love and true compassion. May we be empowered by your Spirit to reach out to all people in need. May we build communities of welcome and inclusion. Amen

A MESSAGE FROM BISHOP ANTHONY

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

In the past, the topic of mental health and wellbeing tended to have a negative label attached to it. That is an unfortunate situation and hopefully one that is consigned to the history books.

To read the full message from the Bishop, please click the link. Copies of the Letter are also in the Foyer

Which charities does the CWF support?

Donations to the CWF are distributed to five charities that directly support the people in our Diocese.

1. CatholicCare Hospital Chaplaincy and Pastoral Care Practitioner Program

2. Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD)

CCD staff and volunteers are committed to providing quality Catholic age-appropriate education in both primary and high schools. Without your support thousands of students in our Diocese will not receive Catholic education.

5. The Ephpheta Centre

MASS OF THE OILS – THURSDAY 17 SEPTEMBER

Bishop Anthony will celebrate the Mass of the Oils on Thursday 17 September at 7.30pm. Given the current level of concern about the transmission of the contagion, and the implications for many parishes should one member of clergy test positively in a large gathering of clergy, Bishop Anthony will celebrate the Liturgy at the Cathedral with a representative group only. He will invite each of the five Deans to be present, along with one other priest from each Deanery, and two representatives from each parish. This will ensure that the number of people present in the Cathedral will be considerably less than 100, and that should an infection occur the entire Diocese will not need to be quarantined!

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 85:3,5

Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long.

O Lord, you are good and forgiving, full of mercy to all who call to you.

FIRST READING

JER 20:7-9

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah

The word of the Lord God has meant derision for me.

You have seduced me, Lord, and I have let myself be seduced; you have overpowered me: you were the stronger.

I am a daily laughing-stock, everybody's butt.

Each time I speak the word, I have to howl and proclaim: 'Violence and ruin!'

The word of the Lord has meant for me insult, derision, all day long. I used to say, I will not think about him, I will not speak in his name any more.

Then there seemed to be a fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones.

The effort to restrain it wearied me, I could not bear it.

The Word of The Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 62:2-6. 8-9. R. V.2

(R.) My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

O God, you are my God, for you I long; for you my soul is thirsting.

My body pines for you like a dry, weary land without water.

(R.) My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

So I gaze on you in the sanctuary to see your strength and your glory.

For your love is better than life my lips will speak your praise.

(R.) My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

So I will bless you all my life, in your name I will lift up my hands.

My soul shall be filled as with a banquet, my mouth shall praise you with joy. (R.)

(R.) My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

For you have been my help; in the shadow of your wings I rejoice.

My soul clings to you; your right hand holds me fast. (R.)

(R.) My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

SECOND READING

ROM 12:1-2

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

May you present your bodies as a living sacrifice.

Think of God's mercy, my brothers, and worship him, I beg you, in a way that is worthy of thinking beings, by offering your living bodies as a holy sacrifice, truly pleasing to God. Do not model yourselves on the behaviour of the world around you, but let your behaviour change, modelled by your new mind. This is the only way to discover the will of God and know what is good, what it is that God wants, what is the perfect thing to do.

The Word of The Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

EPH 1:17-18

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart, that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MT 16:21-27

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself.

Jesus began to make it clear to his disciples that he was destined to go to Jerusalem and suffer grievously at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, to be put to death and to be raised up on the third day. Then, taking him aside, Peter started to remonstrate with him. 'Heaven preserve you, Lord,' he said. 'This must not happen to you.' But he turned and said to Peter, 'Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle in my path, because the way you think is not God's way but man's.'

Then Jesus said to his disciples, 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me. For anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it. What, then, will a man gain if he wins the whole world and ruins his life? Or what has a man to offer in exchange for his life?'

'For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and, when he does, he will reward each one according to his behaviour.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

PS 30:20

How great is the goodness, Lord, that you keep for those who fear you.

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

Jeremiah's words of complaint are some of his most pathos-filled sentiments. They begin with a searing accusation that God misled him when he was called to deliver God's word. Jeremiah allowed himself to be misled, but only because he was inexperienced and naive. He is caught between fidelity to his vocation as a prophet and his own natural inclinations. He did not seek this calling. In fact, he resisted it. He is now forced to bear a threefold burden.

He must deliver a message of doom to his own people; he is mocked by those to whom he has been sent; and he receives no comfort from God. Jeremiah is indeed a man of sorrows.

The psalm contains expressions of longing, a short hymn of praise, and words of confidence. Arid land is used to portray the intensity of the psalmist's longing. It makes this longing concrete and suggests that the need for an experience of God is as natural and basic to a human being as water is basic and essential for life itself. Arid life without God is contrasted with a sumptuous life with God. As important as such joys might be, the psalmist insists that the authentic covenant bond of lovingkindness (hesed) is more precious than life itself. The psalmist's trust in being heard by God is actually rooted in this covenantal bond.

Paul appeals to the mercies of God as the basis of his admonition to the Christians of Rome. They are to offer themselves as a living sacrifice in spiritual service, an offering that is no less demanding, no less total than bloody holocaust. Paul further exhorts them: Do not conform to this age. Through faith in Jesus Christ, they have entered into the eschatological age of fulfilment. They have been saved through the blood of Christ and, filled with the Spirit of God, they are being transformed into Christ. Therefore, they must put aside the standards of this world in order to take on the standards of Christ and of the reign of God. This is the transformation and renewal of which Paul speaks.

Jesus predicts his fate and then discusses the need for the disciples to bear their own suffering. Too often the opposition of Jewish leaders has led Christians to hold an attitude of anti-Judaism. Instead we should recognise that Jesus was rejected for religious as well as for political reasons. The unrest that he caused was a political threat to Rome, and his bold claims greatly troubled the religious leaders. Peter objects to Jesus' words and Jesus accuses him of acting as an obstacle (skándalon) to the unfolding of God's will. Turning to the other disciples, Jesus insists that those who selfishly save themselves from the cross really lose in the arena of eschatological judgment, while those who unselfishly offer themselves are saved from this judgment.
