LOVE VERSES & QUOTES FOR YOUR SELF WORTH

I TELL YOU TO FORGIVE NOT SEVEN TIMES BUT SEVENTY TIMES SEVEN.

"For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well."
Psalm 139:13-14

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!"
2 Corinthians 5:17

"For God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control."
2 Timothy 1:7

"Let me tell you how worthwhile you are. You are infinitely valuable to God. First, God created you. Second, Jesus died for you. Third, he puts his Spirit within you. Fourth, he wants you to be with him forever in eternity. That's how valuable you are to God. You are infinitely valuable to God."

"But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light."
1 Peter 2:9

"Forgiveness is the only lethal weapon which can destroy all evil."
Abraham Varghese

FR FRANCIS JORDAN SDS

"True humility is the key to heaven's treasury of grace. Oh pilgrim, get up bravely, if you stumble along the rugged path to life."

POPE FRANCIS' SEPTEMBER 2020 INTENTION

Respect for the Planet's Resources

We pray that the planet's resources will not be plundered, but shared in a just and respectful manner.

Love is an act of endless forgiveness, a tender look which becomes a habit.

We look forward to a productive and safe year ahead at St Patrick's Church and the three Catholic schools in our area.

OUR DIOCESAN COMMITMENT TO SAFEGUARDING

We the people of the Catholic Diocese of Broken Bay are committed to fostering communities of safety and care for all people, especially for children and others in the community who are vulnerable.

Our commitment is underscored by our faith in Jesus Christ who teaches the fundamental sanctity of each human person, and by our dedication to sustained education, practice, and conversation about our moral, legal, and spiritual obligation to safeguard all those within our community.

The protection of children and vulnerable adults within our Diocese will be achieved as every member of our community strives to be a person who:

1. Wants our children to be safe, to grow and to flourish, and have zero tolerance to any attitude and activity that makes children less than safe;
2. Acts with integrity, humility and sincerity, being truthful and open-hearted, and accountable and transparent, throughout our diocesan community;

3. Shows care for the rights of all people who are supported by Diocesan Systems that are clear, accessible, and compliant;
4. Leads by a constant commitment to raising awareness, education, professional development, and supervision;
5. Listens to others with an open heart and mind, and responds well so that concerns and risks may be identified early and addressed;
6. Reaches out with compassion to all who have experienced hurt in our community, restoring relationships and building hope through support, acknowledgement and just redress;
7. Communicates openly and honestly so that there is a clear articulation and demonstration of expectations, standards, structures and processes for Safeguarding throughout our Diocesan community;
8. Engages the knowledge and experience of the wider community so that through dialogue and collaboration we can contribute to growth in the safety and wellbeing of our communities.

WE ARE A COVID SAFE PARISH AND SANITISING IS UNDERTAKEN AFTER EACH MASS

We would like to assure parishioners that sanitising of the pews takes place after each weekday or weekend Mass and a schedule is available at the sacristy where people who do the cleaning sign off. This is available for viewing at any time. Your health is paramount to us and we respect and adhere to all regulations.

OUR SANCTUARY GROUPS NEED SOME VOLUNTEERS!

Firstly our Altar Society group, particularly the group for the 2nd Sunday of the month, is desperate and needs some support. Each week we enjoy the lovely floral displays beautifying the sanctuary, which is the work of the Altar Society, and we'd love this to continue, but helpers are required. No great artistic talent is needed, just your help and an open mind!

Secondly, our Altar Linen group needs another person to take the linen home to wash and iron and return a few days later.

We had four groups rostered which meant only a commitment of once a month. But after many years of service, Clem & Marie O'Donovan have retired. We want to express our deep gratitude for the work committed over many, many years, and we need to replace them so that it remains a commitment of only once a month.

If you are interested, and we pray you are, in either or both of the above, please call the Parish Office.

SOME LIGHT RELIEF

- 🍷 Age 60 might be the new 40, but 9:00 pm is the new midnight.
- 🍷 It's the start of a brand new day, and I'm off like a herd of turtles.
- 🍷 The older I get, the earlier it gets late.
- 🍷 When I say, "The other day," I could be referring to any time between yesterday and 15 years ago.
- 🍷 I remember being able to get up without making sound effects.
- 🍷 I had my patience tested. I'm negative.
- 🍷 To me, "drink responsibly" means don't spill it.
- 🍷 I finally got eight hours of sleep. It took me three days, but whatever.
- 🍷 I run like the winded.
- 🍷 When you do squats, are your knees supposed to sound like a goat chewing on an aluminum can stuffed with celery?

👤 I don't mean to interrupt people. I just, randomly, remember things and get really excited.

👤 Amanpreet heard a rumor that his father, grandfather and great-grandfather had all walked on water on their 21st birthdays. So, on his 21st birthday, Amanpreet and his good friend Brian headed out to the lake. "If they did it, I can too!" he insisted.

When Amanpreet and Brian arrived at the lake, they rented a boat and began paddling. When they got to the middle of the lake, Amanpreet stepped off of the side of the boat... and nearly drowned. Furious and somewhat shamed, he and Brian headed for home. When Amanpreet arrived back at the family farm, he asked his grandmother for an explanation.

"Grandma, why can I not walk on water like my father, and his father, and his father before him?"

The feeble old grandmother took Amanpreet by the hands, looked into his eyes, and explained, "That's because your father, grandfather, and great-grandfather were born in Summer... you were born in Winter, dear."

👤 My grandson was visiting one day when he asked, "Grandma, do you know how you and God are alike?" I mentally polished my halo while I asked, "No, how are we alike?"

You're both old," he replied.

👤 God grant me the Senility, to forget the people I never liked anyway, the good fortune to run into the ones I do, and the eyesight to tell the difference.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. SIR 36:18

Give peace, O Lord, to those who wait for you, that your prophets be found true.

Hear the prayers of your servant, and of your people Israel.

FIRST READING

SIR 27:30 – 28:7

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus

Forgive your neighbour's faults and when you pray, your sins will be forgiven.

Resentment and anger, these are foul things, and both are found with the sinner.

He who exacts vengeance will experience the vengeance of the Lord, who keeps strict account of sin.

Forgive your neighbour the hurt he does you, and when you pray, your sins will be forgiven.

If a man nurses anger against another, can he then demand compassion from the Lord?

Showing no pity for a man like himself, can he then plead for his own sins?

Mere creature of flesh, he cherishes resentment; who will forgive him his sins?

Remember the last things, and stop hating, remember dissolution and death, and live by the commandments.

Remember the commandments, and do not bear your neighbour ill-will; remember the covenant of the Most High, and overlook the offence.

The Word of The Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 102:1-4. 9-12. R. v.8

(R.) The Lord is kind and merciful; slow to anger and rich in compassion.

My soul, give thanks to the Lord, all my being, bless his holy name.

My soul, give thanks to the Lord and never forget all his blessings.

(R.) The Lord is kind and merciful; slow to anger and rich in compassion.

It is he who forgives all your guilt, who heals every one of your ills, who redeems your life from the grave, who crowns you with love and compassion.

(R.) The Lord is kind and merciful; slow to anger and rich in compassion.

His wrath will come to an end; he will not be angry for ever.

He does not treat us according to our sins nor repay us according to our faults

(R.) The Lord is kind and merciful; slow to anger and rich in compassion.

For as the heavens are high above the earth so strong is his love for those who fear him.

As far as the east is from the west so far does he remove our sins.

(R.) The Lord is kind and merciful; slow to anger and rich in compassion.

SECOND READING

ROM 14:7-9

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

Whether alive or dead, we belong to the Lord.

The life and death of each of us has its influence on others; if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead we belong to the Lord. This explains why Christ both died and came to life, it was so that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

The Word of The Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JN 13:34

Alleluia, alleluia!

I give you a new commandment: love one another as I have loved you.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MT 18:21-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

I tell you that you forgive not seven times but seventy times seven.

Peter went up to Jesus and said, 'Lord, how often must I forgive my brother if he wrongs me? As often as seven times?' Jesus answered, 'Not seven, I tell you, but seventy-seven times.'

'And so the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who decided to settle his accounts with his servants. When the reckoning began, they brought him a man who owed ten thousand talents; but he had no means of paying, so his master gave orders that he should be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, to meet the debt. At this, the servant threw himself down at his master's feet. "Give me time," he said "and I will pay the whole sum." And the servant's master felt so sorry for him that he let him go and cancelled the debt. Now as this servant went out, he happened to meet a fellow servant who owed him one hundred denarii; and he seized him by the throat and began to throttle him. "Pay what you owe me", he said. His fellow servant fell at his feet and implored him, saying, "Give me time and I will pay you." But the other would not agree; on the contrary, he had him thrown into prison till he should pay the debt. His fellow servants were deeply distressed when they saw what had happened, and they went to their master and reported the whole affair to him. Then the master sent for him. "You wicked servant," he said. "I cancelled all that debt of yours when you appealed to me. Were you not bound, then, to have pity on your fellow servant just as I had pity on you?" And in his anger the master handed him over to the torturers till he should pay all his debt. And that is how my heavenly Father will deal with you unless you each forgive your brother from your heart.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

CF. PS 35:8

How precious is your mercy, O God! The children of men seek shelter in the shadow of your wings.

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

The passage from Sirach reflects sentiments of the 'Golden Rule', as well as the 'Lord's Prayer', specifically, 'forgive us as we forgive others'. The basis of this teaching is our own need to be forgiven. We have all offended others, and so we are all in need of forgiveness. If we are not willing to forgive others, how can we hope to be forgiven? Sirach appeals to human frailty and mortality. The certainty of death should prompt us to set aside any anger that we might experience. Life is too short to bear attitudes that can undermine our spirits. More importantly, we should be willing to extend to others the same gracious compassion that God has extended to us.

The responsorial psalm begins with a summons to bless the Lord because of God's willingness to pardon, to heal, and to redeem or save. These are all acts that flow from God's loving-kindness and compassion (vv.3-4). It is out of this mercy that God acts, not requiring the harsh punishment that sin would warrant. Two images denoting immeasurable distance describe the breadth of God's devotion: the expanse between the heavens and the earth; and the area between east and west. Using these images the psalmist claims the same limitlessness for God's loving-kindness. God puts our transgression so far from us that the distance cannot even be imagined.

In this short reading, Paul maintains that Christ, by virtue of his death and resurrection, exercises power over life and death. Because of this, nothing – neither life nor death – can separate those who are joined to Christ from the love of Christ (see Rom 8:38). Here Paul is speaking about the total lordship of the risen Christ. He insists that in every aspect of life and even in death, Christians are under the lordship of Christ. Whether they live or they die, they belong to Christ and are accountable to Christ. Their lives and their deaths must demonstrate this. This understanding is the bedrock of Paul's ethics. For Christians there is no radical individualism or self-fulfilment independent of Christ.

In today's gospel Peter seems to have thought that he was being extraordinarily generous if he forgave seven times, a number that carried overtones of completeness. However, Jesus indicates that not even this was enough for members of his community. Jesus' parable illustrates the extent to which his followers must be willing to forgive, and the consequences that will befall them if they are not. With one simple statement Jesus draws a connection between the generosity of the king and that of God. If God is willing to forgive the exorbitant debt we owe God, surely we can forgive the paltry debts owed us. However, if we are unwilling to show mercy, the mercy already shown us will be taken back and a severe retribution will be exacted.
