10TH ANNIVERSARY OF MARY MACKILLOP'S CANONISATION

The date of 17 October 2020 marks the 10th anniversary of the canonisation of St Mary of the Cross MacKillop. The Sisters of St Joseph invite us to celebrate the wonderful life and inspirational legacy of our first Saint.

ENTRUSTING OUR PARISH FOR ITS PROTECTION TO ST MARY OF THE CROSS MACKILLOP

St Mary of the Cross Mackillop,
 We entrust you with our parish;
 our needs, our hard work and our very souls.
 Through your intercession,
 may we obtain the necessary grace to lead
 faithful lives,
 may we always be guided by love and a sense
 of justice,
 and may we always remain confident in God's goodness and his love.
 Bless our parish.
 Awaken in us a faithful spirit and a love for Mary, the Mother of God.
 Through your intercession, may we love our Church,
 live in accordance with the commandments,
 and may we achieve everlasting life.
 Amen.

PLEASE HELP KEEP US THIS WAY.

OUR PARISH OWES A VERY BIG THANK YOU

TO PAM McCRAE AND HUSBAND JOHN.

Pam has been the lady who has done the cleaning of the presbytery and for some of the priests, even washing and provided meals over a period spanning more than 30 years. Pam's husband John has always been by her side helping and supporting. What a team they are! So, we wish them well and offer our sincere thanks and blessing for the future.

CATECHIST CORNER

Thank you to our catechist team who have returned to our schools for Term 4. We also welcome Margaret Hunter (who has started in a Kinder class) and Raelene O'Connor & Nora Koleszar who have joined the team and have just obtained their CCD authorization. If you feel God is calling you to this important ministry but are apprehensive as to what is involved just ask them about their recent experiences. You can also collect a yellow catechist flyer from the Church and speak to Fr Greg or Alain (0414273654).

Thanks & blessings, Alain.

GREAT NEWS FOR CATHOLIC ORANA RESIDENTS

THEY'RE NOW ACCESSING OUR LIVE STREAMED MASSES! It's been so difficult for our retirees at most of the aged care facilities but from this weekend, Orana has arranged that its residents may now watch St Patrick's Mass and feel like part of their parish once more.

SOME OF OUR SERVICES ARE RESUMING:

YOU'LL BE PLEASED TO KNOW

- From Wednesday, October 25 we will resume our NOVENA FOR THE INTERCESSION OF OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP. After the 11:30 am Mass and hopefully, each last Wednesday of the month after that.
- We will resume our FIRST FRIDAY MASS WITH ANOINTING OF THE SICK at 12noon commencing November 6.
- Are you aware that our GRIEF & LOSS PRAYER & SUPPORT group meets in the Jordan Room each first Thursday of the month at 2 pm.
- Our CANCER PRAYERS group has resumed meeting on the 4th Tuesday of the month after the 9 am Mass, at the Jordan Room?

NOVEMBER — THE MONTH OF REMEMBRANCE

Commencing with the Feast of All Saints on Sunday, November 1, we take the time to remember our departed loved ones.

One way of doing this is to have them remembered at each of the nominated Masses during the month. In the foyer today you will find special November Mass envelopes. On which you may list [BLOCK LETTERS PLEASE] those for whom you would like Mass said, pop in your offering to our clergy, and either place in the collection boxes or drop it into the parish office.

Those names will then be listed and kept at the sanctuary during November.

Just a reminder though that during November we do not record or offer individual Masses of Remembrance and therefore names are not noted in the Bulletin. Individual Masses may be offered after December 1. Masses for the recently deceased and those whose anniversaries occur in November are offered as usual.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 16:6,8

To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God; turn your ear to me; hear my words.

Guard me as the apple of your eye; in the shadow of your wings protect me.

FIRST READING

IS 45:1-4-6

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

I have taken the hand of Cyrus to subdue nations before his countenance.

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whom he has taken by his right hand to subdue nations before him and strip the loins of kings, to force gateways before him that their gates be closed no more:

It is for the sake of my servant Jacob, of Israel my chosen one, that I have called you by your name, conferring a title though you do not know me.

I am the Lord, unrivalled; there is no other God besides me.

Though you do not know me, I am you that men may know from the rising to the setting of the sun that, apart from me, all is nothing.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 95:1. 3-5. 7-10. R. V.7

(R.) Give the Lord glory and honour.

O sing a new song to the Lord, sing to the Lord all the earth.

Tell among the nations his glory and his wonders among all the peoples.

(R.) Give the Lord glory and honour.

The Lord is great and worthy of praise, to be feared above all gods; the gods of the heathens are naught.

It was the Lord who made the heavens.

(R.) Give the Lord glory and honour.

Give the Lord, you families of peoples, give the Lord glory and power, give the Lord the glory of his name.

Bring an offering and enter his courts.

(R.) Give the Lord glory and honour.

Worship the Lord in his temple. O earth, tremble before him.

Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king.'

He will judge the peoples in fairness.

(R.) Give the Lord glory and honour.

SECOND READING

1 THES 1:1-5

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

We are mindful of your faith, hope, and love.

From Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonika which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; wishing you grace and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We always mention you in our prayers and thank God for you all, and constantly remember before God our Father how you have shown your faith in action, worked for love and persevered through hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ.

We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

PHIL 2:15. 16

Alleluia, alleluia!

Shine on the world like bright stars; you are offering it the word of life.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MT 22:15-21

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Give to Caesar the things that belong to Caesar and to God the things that are God's.

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with the Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because a man's rank means nothing to you. Tell us your opinion, then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?' But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, 'You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me? Let me see the money you pay the tax with.' They handed him a denarius, and he said, 'Whose head is this? Whose name?' 'Caesar's' they replied. He then said to them, 'Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar - and to God what belongs to God.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

CF. PS 32:18-19

Behold, the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

The God of Israel addresses Cyrus, the Persian king, instructing him to release the Israelites from captivity in Babylon so that they can return home and rebuild their temple (see Ezra 1:1-8). Cyrus is called God's anointed, a title ascribed to Davidic kings. Cyrus was called even though he did not know the God of Israel. Here we see God working through people without their knowing that it is God who directs the events of history. Cyrus the foreigner is the agent of the release of the Israelites, but their release is for the enlightenment of the foreign nations. The phrase, 'I am the Lord, there is no other', seems to be God's primary self-identification (see Dt 4:35, 39;

I Kgs 8:6)

Twice the psalmist calls for praise of God for the wonderful deeds that God has performed (vv.1, 3), each time highlighting a different aspect of the song. First, the song is to be new, suggesting that the old ways have passed away. Some kind of transformation has taken place. Second, it is directed to all the earth or all the lands (vv.1, 9). 'Earth' can mean both the natural world and human society. Everything is called to praise God, who is acclaimed king, creator and judge. The glory of God refers to the visible manifestation of God's splendour. While it is usually revealed in the temple (v.8), here it is also associated with the wondrous deeds that God has accomplished.

In the First letter to the Thessalonians, Paul writes in his own name and in the names of two missionary companions, Silvanus and Timothy. He tells the Thessalonians how grateful the missionaries are for their fidelity to the gospel that was preached to them. Theirs is an active faith, one that produces fruits, especially love. Having praised them, Paul reminds the Thessalonians of the circumstances of their conversion. They accepted the gospel though his preaching, but also through the power of the Holy Spirit. They had the example of the missionaries to strengthen them, but it was divine power that grounded them. Though spiritual children of Paul and his companions, they really belong to God.

The issue in the gospel reading is the possibility of being faithful both to God and to a secular state. The Pharisees did not approve of Gentile rule over the Jewish people. The Herodians, on the other hand, were Roman loyalists. The Zealots vehemently opposed the occupation, while many others had made their peace with it and sometimes even benefited from it. Roman taxation was an issue that could easily cause people to take sides. It was with this very issue that the Pharisees hoped to ensnare Jesus, but Jesus outwits them. Besides exonerating himself from possible political or religious reproach, Jesus' response suggests that one can indeed be loyal to both a religious tradition and a secular power.

PRAYERS & CONDOLENCES

We advise of the sad loss of Sandy McPherson [98], a parishioner at St Patrick's for some 50 years, who passed last week and whose Requiem Mass was held here on Friday July 30 in the presence of his large family. Sandy will be sadly missed by all who knew him, and we keep him and his family in our prayers. May God hold him in the palm of His Hand.
