DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

During the Mass of canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000, the year of the Great Jubilee, Pope John Paul II proclaimed: "It is important then that we accept the whole message that comes to us from the word of God on this Second Sunday of Easter, which from now on throughout the Church, will be called Divine Mercy Sunday." The readings on that Sunday are always about mercy, trust and the forgiveness of sins.

By the words "the whole message," the Holy Father was referring to the strict connection between the "Easter Mystery of the Redemption" -- the suffering, death, burial, resurrection, and ascension of Christ, followed by the sending of the Holy Spirit -- and this Feast of Divine Mercy, on the Octave Day of Easter. This feast adds so much more meaning to the Easter celebrations. It was Jesus, Himself who asked for it to be celebrated on this particular Sunday following Easter.

There has been much confusion as to how this feast is to be celebrated. To know how to celebrate the Feast, one must only look at the two decrees that were issued by the Holy See and the words of Our Lord in the diary of St. Faustina, which the Church has accepted, as reliable and worthy of belief. The first decree which established the Feast states that the normal readings for that Sunday are always to be used. They are already perfect as they are and reflect what the Image of Divine Mercy portrays.

The second decree is for the plenary indulgence for Divine Mercy Sunday that was issued on June 29, 2002. This decree also states Priests are to, hear confessions, and lead the prayers. The indulgence decree also asks Priests to gently encourage the Faithful to practice works of charity or mercy as often as they can, following the example of Christ.

The words of Our Lord in the diary are very clear, Jesus said, "I want the image to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it. By means of the Image I shall be granting many graces to souls; so let every soul have access to it." (Diary 341, 570) The Image should be placed in the church so that everyone can see it, perhaps in the sanctuary area and at all the masses on that day so that everyone may venerate and know about it and come to trust in the Lord.

Our Lord also said, "I desire that priests proclaim this great mercy of Mine towards souls of sinners. Tell My priests that hardened sinners will repent on hearing their words when they speak about My unfathomable mercy, about the compassion I have for them in My Heart. To priests who proclaim and extol My mercy, I will give wondrous power; I will anoint their words and touch the hearts of those to whom they will speak."

REQUIEM MASS FOR JOHN BURG

MONDAY, 12 APRIL AT 11:00 AM

St Patrick's will farewell and give thanks to one of our most loved parishioners this Monday. John has been a very active member of the church for many years. This will be a wonderful opportunity to show how much we respected him and all his family. Wife Margaret, all the wonderful children, many of us have seen grow to maturity, son Andrew and daughters Katie, Elizabeth, Amanda and Fiona. And all the beautiful grandchildren we now see regularly at St Patrick's.

Following the funeral service, the family hosts an event at Breakers Country Club, 64 Dover Rd, Wamberal NSW 2260.

MAY JOHN'S SOUL REST IN THE PEACE OF OUR LORD JESUS.

PROJECT COMPASSION BOXES

GOSFORD PARISH ARTICLE

MADE ALIVE IN THE SPIRIT 1 PETER 3:18

Gosford Parish has been entrusted to the loving care of the Society of the Divine Saviour since 2002. We have been blessed in our Parish to have been pastorally supported by many wonderful Salvatorian Priests, mostly from Poland, but also from Germany and more recently Vietnam.

Under the guidance of our Parish Priest, Fr Greg Skulski and his assistant Fr Paul Tran, St Patrick's has continued to be a dynamic and alive parish with many wonderful initiatives, that provide opportunities for all parishioners to develop their relationship with, and be the face of Jesus in our community.

Over the past few years our many parish ministries have grown with increased support and new ministries have emerged to meet the needs of our vibrant parish community.

Our ministries include a Senior Ministry group that tends to the spiritual needs of our elderly community in both private homes and nursing home facilities. They have regular meetings and outings that provide a wonderful vehicle for connection to the parish for those less active and mobile. An extension of this group is the wonderful men and women who regularly visit Gosford Hospital to sit and spend time with members of our community that are unwell.

The parish supports numerous prayer and bible study groups. This has been a particular passion of Fr Paul's and he has bought his knowledge and passion to others and encourages the spiritual growth of many in the parish. Our Children's Liturgy group is well supported by both the number of children attending and the adult parishioners that give their time to develop the understanding of the Jesus story to our younger parishioners, in both a fun and authentic way.

Gosford Parish has an active MenAlive ministry which encourages a strengthening of and rejuvenation of faith in God for men within the parish. It supports them to be an active force of renewal in the Church and Parish community. We have a Women's group that meets to pray together regularly and provides opportunities to discuss issues specific to women in the Church community. We also have a family group that meets regularly, allowing an opportunity for parents and couples to pray and grow in their faith in communion with other parishioners.

Pope Francis reminds us that the youth of the Church "are not the future they are the now of God". It is in this spirit, and with the tremendous energy of Fr Greg, Gosford Parish has developed and supported a significant number of groups to provide young people an opportunity to express their faith and grow in relationship with God. These groups include a Years 5/6 youth group, Youth group for high school students, and a Young Adults group. Each group provides immense vitality and opportunities for our young people to get to know Christ more deeply.

Gosford Parish strives to live the charism of Fr Francis Jordan, founder of the Salvatorians, who challenges us "not to rest content until all people know, love, and serve Jesus as their Saviour".

OUR FRIDAY HOSPITAL VISITING MINISTRY NEEDS YOUR ASSISTANCE

To refresh your memories, we have a team of volunteers who visit Catholic patients at Gosford Hospital on a Friday morning to touch base and determine if they would like communion brought to them on the Sunday by a different team. COVID hit and our teams could no longer function, and even though restrictions have eased we are not back to a full complement of visitors as some are still wary, and others have decided to retire. Sadly we can only visit fortnightly now due to the drop in numbers, and we would like more members so that we can reinstitute weekly visits. You may determine whether you would like to visit weekly, fortnightly or even monthly.

Those wishing to join this ministry should have a 40 hour CPE course certificate, or be happy to attend the next course in July, as well as the required vaccinations to protect themselves and the patients. If you are interested in this ministry, please contact the Parish Office.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

1 PT 2:2

Like newborn infants, you must long for the pure, spiritual milk, that in him you may grow to salvation, alleluia.

FIRST READING

ACTS 4:32-35

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

The whole group was united, heart and soul.

The whole group of believers was united, heart and soul; no one claimed for his own use anything that he had, as everything they owned was held in common.

The apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus with great power, and they were all given great respect.

None of their members was ever in want, as all those who owned land or houses would sell them, and bring the money from them, to present it to the apostles; it was then distributed to any members who might be in need.

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 117:2-4. 15-18. 22-24. R. V.1

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

Let the sons of Israel say: 'His love has no end.'

Let the sons of Aaron say: 'His love has no end.'

Let those who fear the Lord say: 'His love has no end.'

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up.

I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds.

I was punished, I was punished by the Lord, but not doomed to die.

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes.

This day was made by the Lord; we rejoice and are glad.

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

SECOND READING

1 JN 5:1-6

A reading from the first letter of St John

Anyone begotten by God has already overcome the world.

Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ has been begotten by God; and whoever loves the Father that begot him loves the child whom he begets.

We can be sure that we love God's children if we love God himself and do what he has commanded us; this is what loving God is – keeping his commandments; and his commandments are not difficult, because anyone who has been begotten by God has already overcome the world; this is the victory over the world – our faith.

Who can overcome the world?

Only the man who believes that Jesus is the Son of God; Jesus Christ who came by water and blood, not with water only, but with water and blood; with the Spirit as another witness – since the Spirit is the truth.

The Word of the Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JN 20:29

Alleluia, alleluia!

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me; happy are those who have not seen me, but still believe!

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JN 20:19-31

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

After eight days, Jesus came in and stood among them.

In the evening of that same day, the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you,' and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you.'

'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.'

After saying this he breathed on them and said: 'Receive the Holy Spirit.

For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

Thomas, called the Twin, who was one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. When the disciples said, 'We have seen the Lord', he answered, 'Unless I see the holes that the nails made in his hands and can put my finger into the holes they made, and unless I can put my hand into his side, I refuse to believe.' Eight days later the disciples were in the house again and Thomas was with them. The doors were closed, but Jesus came in and stood among them. 'Peace be with you' he said. Then he spoke to Thomas, 'Put your finger here; look, here are my hands. Give me your hand; put it into my side. Doubt no longer but believe.' Thomas replied, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him:

'You believe because you can see me.

Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.'

There were many other signs that Jesus worked and the disciples saw, but they are not recorded in this book. These are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing this you may have life through his name.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

CF. JN 20:27

Bring your hand and feel the place of the nails, and do not be unbelieving but believing, alleluia.

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

This short passage is one of the best known descriptions of the early Christian community (cf. Acts 2:42-47). Although it depicts values and relationships that were highly prized by the early Christians, the picture sketched is probably more theologically idealised than it is historically accurate. The principal values that characterise this community are: unity in mind and heart; sharing of possessions; and apostolic witness. Sharing possessions was a response to an ancient Jewish directive (cf. Deut 15:4): being of one mind and heart characterises the Greek concept of friendship. This picture of communal harmony espouses values from both cultures. The noble ideals of this Christian community held out a way of life that is attainable through the grace of the resurrection.

The Letter of John is a testimony to Trinitarian faith: God (the Father) begets; Jesus is the Son of God; and the Spirit testifies to the triumph of Jesus' death and resurrection. The letter declares: Jesus is the Christ: Faith in Jesus, who is both Messiah and Son of God, brings one into the family of God, where one is expected to love God and all others begotten of God through faith in the same Jesus. Love of God and of others are so connected that it makes little difference which comes first. One form of love always results in the other. Finally, It is through faith in Jesus that believers can conquer the evils that threaten them.

In the gospel, the closed doors not only secured the disciples from harm, but also underscore the mysterious character of Jesus' risen body. The wish of peace was a prayer for the eschatological blessing. Finally, Jesus' wounds showed the disciples that he was really the crucified one now risen. Thomas should not be remembered as the one who was absent or who doubted. He represents the second generation of Christians and those like us, who are called to believe on the testimony of others. In fact, he has insights that the others in the story do not have. They recognised that the one in their midst was their Lord. Thomas declared that the risen Lord was God.
