SEVEN WAYS TO DEVELOP HOPE IN YOUR CHILD

BY DR. RANDY CARLSON,

The Intentional Living Center

The evening news is filled with loss, grief, disappointment and disaster. Children are forced to deal with issues in their world on a daily basis that twenty years ago didn't exist. Our world today wrestles with what it means to experience hope.

As Christians, we have the hope given to us by Christ Jesus and can live each day by placing our hope in Him. Many followers of Christ know the end of the story, but still live in hopelessness and, sadly, raise their children with that same hopelessness.

Intentional Living is about recognizing our need to live today the way we are intended to become in Christ tomorrow. As parents that means demonstrating that lifestyle and living it out in front of our children. That raises the question, "What were we intended to become as followers of Christ?" The place to start is with our relationship with God. We were intended to experience the hope we've been given in Christ—hope for eternal salvation—hope in the promises God made to you as an heir of salvation found in the Bible. If you're not experiencing hope in your life today, then I would challenge you to ask yourself, "How intentional am I in my faith?"

Take some time with that question. It may really surprise you. Look at your head (thoughts), heart (feelings) and hands (actions) when it comes to your faith.

Is your thinking in alignment with the things God says in His Word about you—His child?

Are your emotions in check when it comes to your relationship with God and those He has placed in your life?

Do you choose actions that bring pleasure to Christ as you go throughout your day?

When you bring your head, heart and hands into balance by thinking and behaving like Christ, you will find the hope and assurance that you need to begin your journey toward becoming all God destined you to be, and in turn provide that same hope to your children as you parent them.

Here are seven ONE THINGS you can do to help your child grow in their relationship with God, keeping in mind his or her unique personality. Check off each one you are willing to do. Choose the most important "one thing" to practice starting today. Once you become consistent in that, do the next right "one thing" on the list.

Tell my child how important my own relationship to God is.

Take my child to church.

Show my child the effects of having a relationship with God in my own life.

Make sure my child meets other godly people who are genuine, interesting and impressive.

Choose a church that truly understands how important children are to God. As my child becomes a teenager, I will ensure that adolescents receive proper discipleship opportunities.

Demonstrate godliness to my child, beginning with keeping my promises.

Show my child the unconditional love that God gives me.

YOU HAVE OUR DEEPEST GRATITUDE!

THANK YOU TO OUR CRAFT GROUP

We received a generous donation covering the cost of the new silk flower resources used to decorate our church for our weekly Masses etc. You may have noticed that we have had some spectacular arrangements lately [and often] and this new stock gives our Altar Society greater depth for their talents. The Craft Group's donation of the full amount is so very much appreciated by the parish.

A HUGE THANK YOU TO CHRIS GALEA

For his voluntary work procuring and installing the cabinetry in the Piety Stall, and for his renovation of the former chapel to a counselling space. Chris committed many hours and a lot of thought in his work for the parish and we couldn't be more thankful. Hopefully we don't overwork him as his generosity has extended to further work as required. We are a very lucky parish to have the volunteers that we have who are committed to making St Patrick's the best it can be.

NEXT SUNDAY A BIG CELEBRATION FOR FR GREG'S 10TH ANNIVERSARY

Fr Greg celebrates his 10 Anniversary of Priesthood on Friday 28th May. We will be having a Celebratory Morning Cuppa and Cake after 9:30 am Mass next Sunday. Everyone is welcome!

SATURDAY MORNING COFFEE SHOP

Following the retirement of Saturday Morning Coffee Shop baristas and organisers, Lucy & Gerard Price & Joscelyn & Neil Murphy after their eight or so years of not only providing a great social occasion for parishioners, but donating their profits to charity.

Fr Greg would like to see this opportunity for parishioners to gather by continuing the coffee shop and would like to hear from people who may be interested in being barista trained and being on a roster to keep it going.

Please contact the Parish Office if you'd like help.

CATECHIST CORNER

We also invite parishioners to join our Ministry, in a Relief teaching capacity to support our existing Catechists.

Relief teaching would typically require a once a term commitment.

I look forward to hearing from Parishioners available for this commitment.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

WIS 1:7

The Spirit of the Lord has filled the whole world and that which contains all things understands what is said, alleluia.

FIRST READING

ACTS 2:1-11

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak different languages.

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome - Jews and proselytes alike - Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 103:1. 24. 29-31. 34. R. V.30

(R.) Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the Lord, my soul!

Lord God, how great you are, How many are your works, O Lord!

The earth is full of your riches.

(R.) Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

You take back your spirit, they die, returning to the dust from which they came.

You send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the earth.

(R.) Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the Lord last for ever!

May the Lord rejoice in his works!

May my thoughts be pleasing to him.

I find my joy in the Lord.

(R.) Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

SECOND READING

1 COR 12:3-7, 12-13

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

In the one Spirit we were all baptised, making one body.

No one can say, 'Jesus is Lord' unless he is under the influence of the Holy Spirit.

There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose.

Just as a human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit because all these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ. In the one Spirit we were all baptised, Jews as well as Greeks, slaves as well as citizens, and one Spirit was given to us all to drink.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JN 20:19-23

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

As the Father sent me, so I send you: Receive the Holy Spirit.

In the evening of the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you,' and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you.'

'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.'

After saying this he breathed on them and said: 'Receive the Holy Spirit.'

For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

ACTS 2:4,11

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke of the marvels of God, alleluia.

REFLECTION FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

BY LISA-MARIE CALDERONE-STEWART

Pentecost is called the birthday of the church because before Pentecost, there really was no church. Jesus had ascended back into the heavens, the Apostles were hanging around, scared and confused, and nobody knew what to do. Going out to baptise people and preach about Jesus was the last thing they had in mind because their lives would be in danger.

But Pentecost celebrates the coming of the Holy Spirit – the force that turned a bunch of frightened, mixed-up people into church. There was a rush of wind, tongues of fire, and then suddenly there was courage, knowledge, direction and commitment! Everyone started speaking and was understood, no matter what the language of the listener was! These were saints suddenly on fire with the Holy Spirit. And it all began with the wind and fire of the Spirit.

What changes in you do you wish the Spirit could blow your way? How can you cooperate with the Spirit? In what ways do you need more courage, knowledge, direction or commitment? What else might you need?

In what ways are you and your parish like the disciples before Pentecost? In what ways are you and your parish like the disciples after Pentecost?

When people speak about your school, would they say that it has school spirit? What do they mean by that? How is school spirit like the Holy Spirit?
