WE CANNOT LIVE WITHOUT HOPE

EXTRACT FROM DONALD DEMARCO

Despite all the problems the pandemic has brought into our lives, the present moment is nonetheless an opportunity for hope. And it may be encouraging to realize that our hope can be a blessing for others.

'True hope, the one that transcends all other hopes, is not for material things, but for God.'

The pandemic has hit many of us hard, economically, personally, morally and spiritually. Some have despaired, while others remain perplexed. We cannot live without hope. That is a truism. Yet what isn't always so obvious is that the lasting effects of hope seem dependent on the object hoped for and the behaviour such hope yields.

When people obtain the material things they hope for, they are soon disappointed and want more. Desire feeds upon desire and can be insatiable. This is because their true hope, the one that transcends all other hopes, is not for material things, but for God. When times are difficult and hope is lost for material comforts, it is under these circumstances that true hope begins to spread its wings. St. Paul tells us that "in hope we are saved" (Romans 8:24).

Hope is, therefore, redemptive.

But it is a hope that requires us to accept our present difficulties and not despair. We must act in a way that is worthy of this hope. We cannot isolate hope from virtuous behaviour.

What this comes down to is that love must be conjoined with hope. An immoral life is the destruction of hope. The difficulties one suffers during the pandemic offer a good opportunity to focus on the hope that is most important. At this time, it becomes increasingly clear that neither material possessions, comfort, status, science nor world leaders can offer us the one hope that will not betray us.

We tend to think of hope in an individualistic way. Yet the indubitable fact is that none of us lives alone. The thoughts and actions of others continually flow into mine — while, at the same time, my life continually flows into the lives of others. We are linked together through innumerable interactions. I am indebted beyond words to all those who have brought their blessings into my life. My hope, then, includes my hope for others, and their hope also includes their hope for me. As Pope Benedict XVI states in Spe Salvi, "Our hope is always essentially hope for others; only thus is it truly hope for me too." We should always be asking ourselves the question, "What can I do so that others will be saved?" Hope is a multitrack pathway.

"The mustard seed, smallest of all the seeds, grows into the biggest shrub of all."

Put your Hope in God!  Psalm 42 : 5

Despite all the problems in our lives, the present moment is nonetheless an opportunity for hope. And it may be encouraging to realise that our hope can be a blessing for others.

Sadly COVID also affected our hospital visitation team numbers as many had to withdraw with concerns for their health. Resulting in only fortnightly visits by the Friday team, who gather names for the Sunday visitors. The Sunday visitors take communion to the patients nominated by the Friday team. We would love to go back to weekly visits but need more members to share the load.

NSW Health standards must be met when visiting, which requires completing the relevant Pastoral Education course and the necessary immunisations. The parish will cover course costs upon a commitment to proceed in the ministry. If you have any questions, please call the Parish

MARRIAGE SUNDAY

THE BEAUTY OF MARRIAGE . . .

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION FOR THE MONTH OF JUNE 2021

In the Year of Amoris Laetitia Family, which began on 19 March 2021, the Pope has dedicated his prayer intention for the month of June to the beauty of marriage. The Pope has issued a video celebrating the beauty of married love and reminding people that "God has a dream for us – love – and he asks us to make it his own". Although married life can be at times challenging, the Pope affirms that "it's worth making the effort" and that Jesus accompanies those walking this journey – married people do not do it alone!

Let's join with Pope Francis in praying for all married couples during the month of June:

THE BEAUTY OF MARRIAGE

Let us pray for young people who are preparing for marriage with the support of a Christian community: may they grow in love, with generosity, faithfulness and patience.

CATHOLICARE'S WOMEN'S REFUGE FUNDRAISER

CatholicCare Diocese of Broken Bay is partnering with Bespoke & Beautiful Interiors to undertake a much needed renovation of Erin's Place, a refuge in Northern Sydney for women and children escaping domestic and family violence.

CatholicCare's Domestic Violence Response Enhancement (DVRE) team provide crisis support for women and children who are experiencing domestic violence. Many of these women are referred to their Specialist Homelessness Services (SHS) for transitional accommodation at the refuge. Specialist caseworkers then work closely with the women to ensure their safety and navigate the legal, logistical and emotional hurdles associated with leaving a violent relationship.

By making a donation to Erin's Place, you can help us create a transformational space and improve the lives of hundreds of victims of domestic violence. Please donate at <https://www.chuffed.org/project/design-for-hope>.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 26:7,9

O Lord, hear my voice, for I have called to you; be my help.

Do not abandon or forsake me, O God, my Saviour!

FIRST READING

EZ 17:22-24

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel

I have made the small tree great.

The Lord says this:

'From the top of the cedar, from the highest branch I will take a shoot and plant it myself on a very high mountain.

I will plant it on the high mountain of Israel.

It will sprout branches and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar.

Every kind of bird will live beneath it, every winged creature rest in the shade of its branches.

And every tree of the field will learn that I, the Lord, am the one who stunts tall trees and makes the low ones grow, who withers green trees and makes the withered green.

I, the Lord, have spoken, and I will do it.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 91:2-3. 13-16. R. SEE V.2

(R.) Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to the Lord
to make music to your name,

O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night.

(R.) Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

The just will flourish like the palm-tree and grow like a Lebanon cedar

(R.) Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

Planted in the house of the Lord they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just.

(R.) Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

SECOND READING

2 COR 5:6-10

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing the Lord.

We are always full of confidence when we remember that to live in the body means to be exiled from the Lord, going as we do by faith and not by sight – we are full of confidence, I say, and actually want to be exiled from the body and make our home with the Lord. Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing him. For all the truth about us will be brought out in the law court of Christ, and each of us will get what he deserves for the things he did in the body, good or bad.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower; all who come to him will live for ever.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MK 4:26-34

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

The mustard seed, the smallest of all the seeds, grows into the biggest shrub of all.

Jesus said to the crowds, 'This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man throws seed on the land. Night and day, while he sleeps, when he is awake, the seed is sprouting and growing; how, he does not know. Of its own accord the land produces first the shoot, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the crop is ready, he loses no time; he starts to reap because the harvest has come.'

He also said, 'What can we say the kingdom of God is like? What parable can we find for it? It is like a mustard seed which at the time of its sowing in the soil is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet once it is sown it grows into the biggest shrub of them all and puts out big branches so that the birds of the air can shelter in its shade.'

Using many parables like these, he spoke the word to them, so far as they were capable of understanding it. He would not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything to his disciples when they were alone.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

PS 26:4

There is one thing I ask of the Lord, only this do I seek:

to live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life..

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

The fable about a cedar tree describes a reversal that will be performed by God. What was once insignificant and vulnerable will be exalted. The shoot taken from the crown of the tree will be planted on a high and lofty mountain, a site that is traditionally regarded as the place where God dwells. There it will flourish, produce branches, yield fruit, provide shelter for every kind of winged animal. The image describes one of the most basic tenets of Israel's faith: God chooses the weak of the world to confound the strong. The splendour of the tree declares that God reverses the fortunes of the lofty and of the lowly, of the vigorous and of the withered.

Singing praises is a way of thanking God. Hymns of thanksgiving normally include reasons for gratitude. Kindness (hesed) and faithfulness (ēmûnâ) are part of the vocabulary of covenant. Prayer until dawn suggests a night vigil. The rewards of righteousness are graphically sketched, using nature imagery. 'Planted in the house of the Lord' is probably a reference to temple devotion. Just as trees were planted near water, their source of life, so the righteous are planted in the presence of God, their source of life. Such remarkable lives bear witness to the uprightness of God. Their fruitfulness is a sign that God has been faithful to the covenant promises that were made.

Paul instructs the Corinthians on how to live courageously until they see the Lord face-to-face (vv.6 & 8). During this life believers are at home in the body, but away from the Lord. In the next life, they will be away from the body and at home with the Lord. While in the body, believers walk by faith and not by sight. Paul ends his exhortation with a sobering thought. At the end of this life, all will stand before Christ to be judged according to whether or not they did in fact live lives of faith after his example. Those who did not live such lives will not be able to be fully at home with the Lord.

In many ways, parables are brain-teasers. Jesus states that the reign of God is like seed that takes root and grows and produces in secret places within human reality. In fact it is usually found in places where one would least expect to find it – among the poor and despised, in the hearts of those who suffer, in the lives of the persecuted. The potential of the reign of God is often contained in what appears to be inconsequential. Yet it thrives in its own mysterious ways. The parables of Jesus forced his hearers to stretch their imaginations and to make connections that they might not ordinarily make. The presumption was that those who followed Jesus were always willing or able to do this.
