ACT OF HOPE PRAYER

Act of Hope O my God, relying on Thy infinite goodness and promises, I hope to obtain pardon of my sins, the help of Thy grace, and life everlasting, through the merits of Jesus Christ, my Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH:

"Hope is the theological virtue by which we desire the Kingdom of Heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ's promises and relying not on our own strength, but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit. 'The Holy Spirit...poured out upon us richly through Jesus Christ our Saviour, so that we might be justified by His grace and become heirs in hope of eternal life'" (CCC 1817). Note: Theological means that this gift comes from God and leads us back to God. A virtue is an habitual and firm disposition to do the good. Supernatural means that the virtue is above our nature.

WHAT IS THE SUPERNATURAL VIRTUE OF HOPE?

The virtue of hope responds to the aspiration to happiness which God has placed in the heart of every person; it takes up the hopes that inspire our activities and purifies them so as to order them to the Kingdom of Heaven. We receive the supernatural gift of hope from God in Baptism. The supernatural virtue of hope allows the possibility for Christians to trust in God. This grace is a gift of God, infused by Him. Hope has to do with things that seem difficult or impossible to receive, such as salvation.

The gift of hope given by God never disappoints. Hope tells us that God, Who promised us eternal salvation, will also give us the graces that we need for the journey to Heaven. He is faithful to His word, so we can put our trust in Him. Faith assists us to hope in God and His promise that He will always remain with us.

Hope sustains us at all times, especially when feelings of discouragement or abandonment seem to overwhelm us. In addition, hope keeps us from discouragement. Hope opens up our heart in expectation of future blessings and eternal beatitude.

Buoyed up by hope, we are preserved from turning inward in selfishness and led to the happiness that flows from living charity.

Why do we need the supernatural virtue of hope?

God is almighty, merciful and good. The supernatural gift of hope helps us to trust in God's promises, opening our heart to His mercy. Hope ensures the desire written on our heart by God to attain the glory of Heaven promised by God to those who love Him and do His will. We trust that God will give the grace we need to attain it. Hope leads us to persevere in prayer, even when all reason for hope seems absent. Hope offers to us joy and courage which sustains us in times of trial. Hope allows us to live, grow and persevere in faith.

"Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him."

When we need the gift of hope, the most important thing we can do is ask for it: "The Lord hears the cry of the poor" (Psalm 34:6).

ON CHRISTIAN HOPE

"It is important to know that I can always continue to hope, even if in my own life, or the historical period in which I am living, there seems to be nothing left to hope for. Only the certitude of hope that my own life and history in general, despite all failures, are held firm by the indestructible power of God's Love, and that this gives them their meaning and importance, only this kind of hope can give the courage to act and to persevere."

BISHOP KAROL VISITING GOSFORD

Salvatorian Bishop Karol will be concelebrating Mass today Sunday, 20 June at 9:30 am.

I am sure we will give him a very special warm welcome to St Pats.

COMMISSIONING OF ALL MINISTERS OF THE EUCHARIST

On Sunday June 27, all ministers of the Eucharist, old and new, will be commissioned at all Masses.

PLANNED GIVING

COMMENCING THE 2021/22 FINANCIAL YEAR

Firstly thank you to all the loyal and generous parishioners currently supporting the parish via planned giving envelopes placed on the plate, or via monthly deductions. Your support is very much appreciated and we look forward to your continuing stewardship. Sadly your parish's giving suffered during COVID, as it did for many others, and we look forward to bouncing back so that we may continue with our programmes into the future.

Don't forget, whilst giving to the parish isn't tax deductible, giving to the CWF is and also assists the parish in meeting its quota so if you would like to have CWF envelopes included in your package of envelopes [or directed monthly], please just complete that section of the application.

New envelopes will be available at the foyer next week for collection by subscribers.

Please find below an application to join our planned giving programme [envelopes or monthly deductions] which we invite anyone who isn't yet giving in this way to complete and lodge in the box available at the foyer today.

A COURSE FOR CHILDREN OVER 7 WHO ARE NOT YET BAPTISED

Commencing Sunday July 25 from 4.30pm at the Jordan Room.

This 2 session course is designed to assist the children's understanding of baptism which will take place for them at its completion. If you know anyone who would be interested in this course for their, please contact the Parish Office. |

OUR HOSPITAL VISITATION TEAMS NEED YOU!

Sadly COVID also affected our hospital visitation team numbers as many had to withdraw with concerns for their health. Resulting in only fortnightly visits by the Friday team, who gather names for the Sunday visitors. The Sunday visitors take communion to the patients nominated by the Friday team. We would love to go back to weekly visits but need more members to share the load.

NSW Health standards must be met when visiting, which requires completing the relevant Pastoral Education course and the necessary immunisations. The parish will cover course costs upon a commitment to proceed in the ministry. If you have any questions, please call the Parish

DO YOU HAVE A BUSINESS?

CONSIDER ADVERTISING IN OUR BULLETIN

Our bulletin now has the ability to reach thousands of people every week. A Minimum of 350 are printed and distributed from the Church. We email a very large number of the electronic version and also put a copy onto Facebook and the Parish Website.

We also ask parishioners to to consider using those businesses who advertise in the bulletin, after all these businesses help our parish grow, by their financial contributions.

IMPROVING OUR SOUND SYSTEM

We understand that our sound system hasn't been effective enough for some and we are happy to advise that, due to generous donations, we have engaged a sound technician to make the recommended improvements, which includes a much upgraded audio unit. We anticipate that this work will be undertaken at the first available opportunity. Thank you again for your stewardship.

PASTORAL DISCERNMENT PROJECT - CENTRAL COAST

AN APPOINTMENT BY BISHOP ANTHONY RANDAZZO

TO OUR VERY OWN PATTI BEATTIE

At this week's Clergy Conference, and as part of the 35th anniversary of the Diocese of Broken

Bay, I invited the region of the Central Coast to engage a process of pastoral discernment, recognising its particular pastoral circumstances, opportunities and challenges. This project of pastoral discernment envisages a sustained and prayerful study of the various factors which give the region of Central Coast its unique character. These identify the region as a specific territory for pastoral mission, and as a particular context for a renewed proclamation of the Gospel, for evangelisation and catechesis, and for pastoral creativity.

The aim of this initiative is to renew the life of the Church in this region of the Diocese, ensuring a sustainable and thriving ecclesial community. In initiating this work, the project and its process may provide a future template for discernment in other regions of the Diocese.

I'm pleased to announce that Mrs Patti Beattie has been seconded from Catholic Schools

Broken Bay (CSBB) as the Pastoral Facilitator to coordinate and animate the project. Patti is an experienced leader with exceptional organisational, technology and communication skills with over 25 years of teaching experience in Broken Bay Diocese.

This is a major strategic pastoral initiative, to be conducted over several phases. It will require the support and commitment of a range of persons and agencies across the Diocese and the integration of several existing planning processes.

The pastoral discernment will be launched in the second half of 2021 with a timeline of 12 months to complete. In the coming months I will formally launch the project and communicate with you further the various processes that the project envisages to engage the People of God in the region of the Central Coast throughout this discernment.

Please join me in praying for the success of this important initiative.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Bishop Anthony Randazzo

Patti Beattie addressing the Clergy Conference. 17-06-2021.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 27:8-9

The Lord is the strength of his people, a saving refuge for the one he has anointed.

Save your people, Lord, and bless your heritage, and govern them for ever.

FIRST READING

JB 38:1. 8-11

A reading from the book of Job

Here I have set the boundaries of the sea.

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:

Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross and made it fast with a bolted gate?

Come thus far, I said, and no farther: here your proud waves shall break.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 106:23-26. 28-31. R. V.1

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

Some sailed to the sea in ships to trade on the mighty waters.

These men have seen the Lord's deeds, the wonders he does in the deep.

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

For he spoke; he summoned the gale, tossing the waves of the sea up to heaven and back into the deep; their soul melted away in their distress.

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress.

He stilled the storm to a whisper:

all the waves of the sea were hushed.

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired.

Let them thank the Lord for his love, the wonders he does for men.

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

SECOND READING

2 COR 5:14-17

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

All things are made new.

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

LK 7:16

Alleluia, alleluia!

A great prophet has appeared among us; God has visited his people.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MK 4:35-41

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

PS 144:15

The eyes of all look to you, Lord, and you give them their food in due season.

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

The reading from Job reports a theophany, a self-revelation of God. Using questions, God leads Job into a deeper appreciation of God's own self and enables him to look beyond the natural world that he knows and to consider the forces of nature in a new way. Such insights filled Job with both confidence in God and courage in the face of threats to his safety. This section from God's speech to Job addresses God's power over the primordial waters, a common symbol for chaos. Job may not have been present at God's cosmological victory, but he is certainly able to appreciate the order that was born of it.

In the responsorial psalm, God is praised for saving those in dangerous waters (vv.23-24). Sea (yâm) is the name of a Canaanite deity who threatened the order of the world. Defeated by God, it was bound, but never completely destroyed. Therefore it remains a constant threat until the end of time when it will finally be defeated (cf. Rev 21:1). Until then, only one with the power of the divine primordial warrior can keep the monster leashed.

Those who sail the sea witness the power of the Lord in re-harnessing this threatening force. With no effort at all the Lord quells the fury as one would hush a restless babe in swaddling bands (cf. Job 38:9).

Paul is compelled both to accept the significance of faith in Jesus' death and resurrection and to preach this message to others. He draws several contrasts to make his point. Using the Adam tradition, he argues that as Adam brought death to all, so Christ brings life to all. This insight into the mystery of the resurrection enables believers to judge no longer 'according to the flesh' but with new eyes. Transformed by the death and resurrection of Jesus they are now a new creation. Paul alludes to the eschatological distinction between this age and the age to come, when all things will be brought to fulfilment and the reign of God will be established completely and forever.

It is not by accident that the powers of chaotic water are harnessed in this nature miracle. In several ancient Near Eastern myths (e.g., Enuma Elish), the powers of chaos are portrayed as personified monsters of the deep. The gospel writer portrays Jesus as the one who alone can triumph over chaotic water. The disciples certainly recognised this, for they ask: Who has power over the sea? This is not an idle query. This question captures the gist of the account: Who is this man? By what authority does he act? This was doubly an issue, because Jesus did not invoke the power of God before he spoke or acted; he simply spoke or acted and left to those around him to decide about him for themselves.
