SPIRITUAL READING

SAINT BENEDICT, ABBOT

From the Rule of Benedict, abbot

Put Christ before everything

Whenever you begin any good work you should first of all make a most pressing appeal to Christ our Lord to bring it to perfection; that he, who has honoured us by counting us among his children, may never be grieved by our evil deeds. For we must always serve him with the good things he has given us in such a way that he may never – as an angry father disinherits his sons or even like a master who inspires fear – grow impatient with our sins and consign us to everlasting punishment, like wicked servants who would not follow him to glory.

So we should at long last rouse ourselves, prompted by the words of Scripture: Now is the time for us to rise from sleep. Our eyes should be open to the God-given light, and we should listen in wonderment to the message of the divine voice as it daily cries out: Today, if you shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts; and again: If anyone has ears to hear, let him listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches. And what does the Spirit say? Come my sons, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord. Hurry, while you have the light of life, so that death's darkness may not overtake you.

And the Lord as he seeks the one who will do his work among the throng of people to whom he makes that appeal, says again: Which of you wants to live to the full; who loves long life and the enjoyment of prosperity? And, if when you hear this you say, I do, God says to you: If you desire true and everlasting life, keep your tongue from evil and your lips from deceit; turn away from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it. And when you have done these things my eyes will be upon you and my ears will be attentive to your prayers; and before you call upon my name I shall say to you: Behold, I am here. What could be more delightful, dearest brothers, than the voice of our Lord's invitation to us? In his loving kindness he reveals to us the way of life.

"He called the Twelve, and began to send them out."

And so, girded with faith and the performance of good works, let us follow in his paths by the guidance of the Gospel; then we shall deserve to see him who has called us into his kingdom. If we wish to attain a dwelling-place in his kingdom we shall not reach it unless we hasten there by our good deeds.

Just as there exists an evil fervour, a bitter spirit, which divides us from God and leads us to hell, so there is a good fervour which sets us apart from evil inclinations and leads us towards God and eternal life. Monks should put this fervour into practice with an overflowing love: that is, they should surpass each other in mutual esteem, accept their weaknesses, either of body or of behaviour, with the utmost patience; and vie with each other in acceding to requests. No one should follow what he considers to be good for himself, but rather what seems good for another. They should display brotherly love in a chaste manner; fear God in a spirit of love; revere their abbot with a genuine and submissive affection. Let them put Christ before all else; and may he lead us all to everlasting life.

PARISH NEWS

COVID LOCKDOWN & OUR PARISH

Firstly we would like to say how much we are missing you being present at St Patrick's and we keep you all in our prayers. We are one big family and at the moment, this separation is hurting us all.

FR GREG'S MESSAGE TO THE PARISH

Fr Greg has recorded a video this week and put it up on YouTube. So, you can see his smiling face, by clicking on the link below.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0RTQdWkwb7k>

During these difficult times we all look to each other for support - physical, spiritual and even financial.

Unfortunately, like many others, our parish and our clergy have had very little income over the last few weeks and we take this time to thank those who have delivered personally or by mail their giving, or deposited directly into the parish bank account, and also those who continue with their monthly direct debit in support of their faith family.

DO YOU NEED HELP?

We have reached out to see if there is anyone we can help during this time of hardship but as yet haven't had any requests, though we have received emails from those who are willing to help so please don't feel shy, if you need someone to do your shopping or simply chat on the phone to as you would just like to hear a voice other than your own, simply let us know.

LIVE STREAMING

We hope you are all taking advantage of our live-streaming of Masses, and our rosary of an evening. We are trying our best to provide for your needs wherever we are able. A reminder that our YouTube link is as follows, and please feel free to share it with others:

https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC44NSRmeB1mg\_EKIJUFJpvg/live

MASS INTENTIONS

Regarding the Masses you have asked for in remembrance of your loved ones please know that they are being allocated at the first available Mass but as we aren't celebrating as many in each week, they are taking a little longer to be offered and we ask for your understanding.

EVERY BIT HELPS

Lastly please find below the parish's bank account details for direct deposit of your giving to support both the parish which, like everyone else, has ongoing financial commitments including now the support of our clergy's living as there are no 1st Collections. When depositing please use the reference of either your planned giving number, e.g., '2001', or if you don't have one then, '2nd Collection' or '1st Collection'. We really do need your support.

Account: Gosford Parish Church Account
BSB 062 784

Account: 4238001

Or, you may consider giving via a direct debit monthly.

Click the following link to access and complete the relevant authorities which will be effective each 3rd Monday of the month.

Thank you again to all those who have continued their financial support, and in the words of Luke [6:38]

"Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you."

We look forward so much to seeing you all again.

PLANNED GIVING

COMMENCING THE 2021/22 FINANCIAL YEAR

Firstly thank you to all the loyal and generous parishioners currently supporting the parish via planned giving envelopes placed on the plate, or via monthly deductions. Your support is very much appreciated and we look forward to your continuing stewardship. Sadly your parish's giving suffered during COVID, as it did for many others, and we look forward to bouncing back so that we may continue with our programmes into the future.

Don't forget, whilst giving to the parish isn't tax deductible, giving to the CWF is and also assists the parish in meeting its quota so if you would like to have CWF envelopes included in your package of envelopes [or directed monthly], please just complete that section of the application.

NEW ENVELOPES ARE AVAILABLE THIS WEEKEND

And can be picked up from inside the foyer. Tax receipts for those giving into tax deductible charities are now available from the Foyer as soon as the church is allowed to opened again. If you have an urgent need for your receipts please contact the parish office.

Please find on Page 9, an application to join our planned giving programme [envelopes or monthly deductions] which we invite anyone who isn't yet giving in this way to complete and return to the Parish at your earliest convenience.

NEW RCIA PROGRAM

Anybody interested in, or know someone who is interested in becoming a Catholic please contact the Parish Office to register your interest in joining the RCIA program.

Office Phone # 4325-1042.

A COURSE FOR CHILDREN OVER 7 WHO ARE NOT YET BAPTISED

Commencing Sunday July 25 from 4.30pm at the Jordan Room.

This 2 session course is designed to assist the children's understanding of baptism which will take place for them at its completion. If you know anyone who would be interested in this course for their, please contact the Parish Office.

AN INVITATION TO YOU

Our Parish Catechist team, invite parishioners to join our Ministry, in a teaching capacity to replace a team member who has left the Parish area.

For Year 6 @12.10 pm
Wednesday at Point Clare.

I look forward to hearing from Parishioners available for this commitment.

All inquiries please call Raelene
0499 995 292.

DO YOU HAVE A BUSINESS

CONSIDER ADVERTISING IN OUR BULLETIN

Our bulletin now has the ability to reach thousands of people every week. A Minimum of 350 are printed and distributed from the Church. We email a very large number of the electronic version and also put a copy onto Facebook and the Parish Website.

We also ask parishioners to consider using those businesses who advertise in the bulletin, after all these businesses help our parish grow, by their financial contributions.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 16:15

As for me, in justice I shall behold your face; I shall be filled with the vision of your glory.

FIRST READING

AM 7:12-15

A reading from the prophet Amos

Go, prophesy to my people.

Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, said to Amos, 'Go away, seer; get back to the land of Judah; earn your bread there, do your prophesying there. We want no more prophesying in Bethel; this is the royal sanctuary, the national temple.' 'I was no prophet, neither did I belong to any of the brotherhoods of prophets.' Amos replied to Amaziah, 'I was a shepherd, and looked after sycamores: but it was the Lord who took me from herding the flock, and the Lord who said, "Go, prophesy to my people Israel."' "

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 84:9-14. R. V.8

(R.) Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what the Lord God has to say, a voice that speaks of peace, peace for his people.

His help is near for those who fear him and his glory will dwell in our land.

Mercy and faithfulness have met; justice and peace have embraced.

Faithfulness shall spring from the earth and justice look down from heaven.

(R.) Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

The Lord will make us prosper and our earth shall yield its fruit.

Justice shall march before him and peace shall follow his steps.

(R.) Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

SECOND READING

EPH 1:3-14

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

Before the world was made, he chose us in Christ.

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all the spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ.

Before the world was made, he chose us, chose us in Christ, to be holy and spotless, and to live through love in his presence, determined that we should become his adopted sons, through Jesus Christ for his own kind purposes, to make us praise the glory of his grace, his free gift to us in the Beloved in whom, through his blood, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins.

Such is the richness of the grace which he has showered on us in all wisdom and insight.

He has let us know the mystery of his purpose, the hidden plan he so kindly made in Christ from the beginning to act upon when the times had run their course to the end:

that he would bring everything together under Christ, as head, everything in the heavens and everything on earth.

And it is in him that we were claimed as God's own, chosen from the beginning, under the predetermined plan of the one who guides all things as he decides by his own will; chosen to be, for his greater glory, the people who would put their hopes in Christ before he came.

Now you too, in him, have heard the message of the truth and the good news of your salvation, and have believed it:

and you have been stamped with the seal of the Holy Spirit of the Promise, the pledge of our inheritance which brings freedom for those whom God has taken for his own, to make his glory praised.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

SEE EPH 1:17-18

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MK 6:7-13

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

He called the Twelve, and began to send them out.

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs giving them authority over the unclean spirits. And he instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff – no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses. They were to wear sandals, but, he added, 'Do not take a spare tunic.' And he said to them, 'If you enter a house anywhere, stay there until you leave the district. And if any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, as you walk away shake off the dust from under your feet as a sign to them.' So they set off to preach repentance; and they cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

CF. PS 83:4-5

The sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for her young:

by your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

Blessed are they who dwell in your house, for ever singing your praise.

REFLECTION BY

FR MICHAEL TATE

The Big Picture sets you free

As St Paul would have put it in terms of modern science, before the cosmos was big-banged into existence, before human creatures evolved over the aeons, before you were loved into existence through your parents, God conceived of you, 'God chose you in Christ'.

The universe was erupted into existence by Divine Ecstasy so that creatures might be drawn to evolve into human beings so that you, personally, might enjoy a wonderful destiny.

That destiny is to be an ensouled body totally transfigured by Divine Light, made radiant by Divine Energy, living through love in God's presence.

That is the Big Picture, the 'Very Big Picture'. Grasp that, or rather be grasped by that, and it will enable you to do things you would otherwise not risk doing. One way could be that portrayed in today's Gospel. Jesus could say to his missionary followers: "take no purse, no haversack" because they had an interior freedom from anxiety about the future, a freedom generated from knowing that they had been divinely loved even before time began.

You might take a moment to pray for the courage to make a generous response to the truth spoken directly to you by St Paul. 'Before the world was made, He chose you, chose you in Christ.'
