SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

The first reading contains one of the most important creedal statements found in the Pentateuch (cf. Deut 6:20-24 and Josh 24:2b-13). It enumerates the saving events that shaped Israel's faith: an admission of its humble beginnings; a report of its oppression in Egypt; a testimony to its deliverance by God; an acknowledgment of God's gift of the land to them. This brief account covers three very distinct periods in the history of the people: the age of the ancestors; the time of the deliverance from bondage; the period of the entrance into the land.

The verses from Psalm 91 are a kind of cultic liturgy: the worshipper is addressed (vv. 1-2); there is a message of assurance (vv. 10-13); the psalm concludes with an oracle of salvation (vv. 14-16). Four divine titles describe God. 'Most High', the name ascribed to the deity worshipped in Jerusalem even before David conquered that ancient city (cf. Gen 14:18-22), describes God as creator of heaven and earth. 'Almighty' is a name associated with the early ancestors (cf. Gen 17:1; 28:3; 35:11; 43:14; 48:3). 'Lord' or YHWH, the personal name of the God of Israel, is linked with the covenant made through Moses. Though each title has a slightly different meaning, together they sketch a picture of a victorious creator who entered into covenant with human beings.

Paul speaks of three important themes: the importance of faith as the basis of salvation; the Christological interpretation of Scripture; the universal character of salvation through Christ. The essence of Paul's preaching is twofold: the centrality of Christ in the drama of salvation; and the need to accept the gospel in order to open oneself to Christ's saving power. Paul alludes to two prophetic passages. Isaiah speaks of a firm cornerstone that God lays in Zion (Isa 28:16). Paul claims that Jesus is that cornerstone. Joel described some of the terrors that will accompany the Day of the Lord (Joel 3:5, Hebrew). Paul identifies Jesus as this Lord.

The account of Jesus' temptations in the wilderness connects Jesus with ancient Israel. The wilderness had been the place of Israel's testing (cf. Deut 8:2). This account shows that unlike that ancient people, Jesus did not fail his test. The length of Jesus' fasting also has ancient Israelite

"A person speaks from what is in his heart."

significance. The two men who represented Israel's law and prophets, Moses and Elijah respectively, fasted for forty days and forty nights. Moses fasted as he wrote the ten commandments on tablets of stone (cf. Exod 34:28). Elijah fasted as he walked to Horeb (cf. 1 Kgs 19:8). The temptations themselves occurred in three different places: the wilderness, on a high mountain; on the parapet of the temple in Jerusalem. In each instance, Jesus is challenged to prove that he is the Son of God. Jesus never directly addresses the question of his divine sonship, but he always shows himself to be faithful as Israel was not.

'WITH A HEART BROKEN,'

POPE PRAYS FOR PEACE IN UKRAINE

VATICAN CITY (CNS) — Pope Francis said his heart was "broken" by the war in Ukraine, and he pleaded again, "Silence the weapons!"

"Many times, we prayed that this path would not be taken," he told people gathered in St. Peter's Square for the midday recitation of the Angelus prayer Feb. 27.

But rather than giving up, he said, "we beg God more intensely."

SALVATORIAN SEMINARY COLLECTION

THIS WEEKEND, 5 & 6 MARCH

ANNUAL SALVATORIAN SEMINARY COLLECTION

Each year in our Salvatorian parishes, we ask for support for our seminaries in the Australian region and Poland. Your generous contributions help in the training and education of our young seminarians and the upkeep of our seminaries.

The Seminary is a place for Salvatorian candidates to study and reflect on their vocation to priesthood and religious life. The Australian Salvatorian community has a close connection with two Salvatorian seminaries. One in Poland where most of our members concluded formation towards priesthood and a second in the Philippines where young candidates from east Asia receive their spiritual and intellectual nourishment.

We invite you to unite in prayer for our young Seminarians as well as for vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life.

Thank you in anticipation for your generosity and God bless you all, Fr Greg and Fr Paul.

Salvatorian donation envelopes are available in the church this weekend or you can take advantage of the form on page 5 opposite.

Below are two photos of seminarians at seminaries in Poland and in the Philippines. There are many other seminaries throughout the world where seminarians study to become Salvatorian priests.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 90:15-16

When he calls on me, I will answer him; I will deliver him and give him glory, I will grant him length of days.

FIRST READING

DT 26:4-10

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy

The confession of faith of the elect.

Moses said to the people: 'The priest shall take the panner from your hand and lay it before the altar of the Lord your God. Then, in the sight of the Lord your God, you must make this pronouncement:

"My father was a wandering Aramaean. He went down into Egypt to find refuge there, few in numbers; but there he became a nation, great, mighty, and strong. The Egyptians ill-treated us, they gave us no peace and inflicted harsh slavery on us. But we called on the Lord, the God of our fathers. The Lord heard our voice and saw our misery, our toil and our oppression; and the Lord brought us out of Egypt with mighty hand and outstretched arm, with great terror, and with signs and wonders. He brought us here and gave us this land, a land where milk and honey flow. Here then I bring the first-fruits of the produce of the soil that you, Lord, have given me." You must then lay them before the Lord your God, and bow down in the sight of the Lord your God.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 90:1-2. 10-15. R. V.15

(R.) Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.

1. He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High and abides in the shade of the Almighty says to the Lord: 'My refuge, my stronghold, my God in whom I trust!'

(R.) Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.

2. Upon you no evil shall fall, no plague approach where you dwell.

For you has he commanded his angels, to keep you in all your ways.

(R.) Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.

3. They shall bear you upon their hands lest you strike your foot against a stone.

On the lion and the viper you will tread and trample the young lion and the dragon.

(R.) Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.

4. His love he set on me, so I will rescue him; protect him for he knows my name.

When he calls I shall answer: 'I am with you.' I will save him in distress and give him glory.

(R.) Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.

SECOND READING

ROM 10:8-13

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

The confession of faith of the believers in Christ.

Scripture says: The word, that is the faith we proclaim, is very near to you, it is on your lips and in your heart. If your lips confess that Jesus is Lord and if you believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, then you will be saved. By believing from the heart you are made righteous; by confessing with your lips you are saved. When scripture says: those who believe in him will have no cause for shame, it makes no distinction between Jew and Greek: all belong to the same Lord who is rich enough, however many ask for his help, for everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

MT 4:4

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

GOSPEL

LK 4:1-13

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus was led by the Spirit through the wilderness where he was tempted.

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit through the wilderness, being tempted there by the devil for forty days. During that time he ate nothing and at the end he was hungry. Then the devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to turn into a loaf.' But Jesus replied, 'Scripture says: Man does not live on bread alone.'

Then leading him to a height, the devil showed him in a moment of time all the kingdoms of the world and said to him, 'I will give you all this power and the glory of these kingdoms, for it has been committed to me and I give it to anyone I choose. Worship me, then, and it shall all be yours.' But Jesus answered him, 'Scripture says:

You must worship the Lord your God, and serve him alone.'

Then he led him to Jerusalem and made him stand on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are the Son of God', he said to him 'throw yourself down from here, for scripture says:

He will put his angels in charge of you to guard you, and again:

They will hold you up on their hands in case you hurt your foot against a stone.'

But Jesus answered him, 'It has been said:

You must not put the Lord your God to the test.'

Having exhausted all these ways of tempting him, the devil left him, to return at the appointed time.
