The Communities of St Patrick's East Gosford,
St Francis of Assisi Somersby & Holy Trinity Spencer Neighbourhoods of Grace, entrusted to the care of the Salvatorians.

ALLELUIA! HAPPY EASTER!
HE IS RISEN INDEED, ALLELUIA!

In this Year of Community in our parish, we today celebrate Easter and rejoice that Jesus Christ has risen and is no longer among the dead. Where, then, can we find Him? Where will He be? Jesus is among us and we can now encounter the Risen Christ in many ways. Have your eyes been opened? Have your sins been forgiven? Have you returned home? Have you deepened your trust in God and in others during this Lenten season? Have those parts of you that were dead returned to life?

Our Lenten journey is complete and we now follow the Easter road that will lead us to see the Risen Lord in many new ways. Was there anything that was different for you during this Holy Week? Did you try or experience anything new? Is today a new day for you? Can this Easter fulfil your dreams and desires? We are commissioned to tell the story and to testify through our lives of the one who rose from the dead. Today is a new day - let us rejoice and be glad!!!! Let us go forth and proclaim, "Jesus is risen indeed!" Let us trust God in all the situations of our lives as Jesus trusted His Heavenly Father during Holy Week when he suffered, died and rose from the death for you and for me!

Our Savior, Jesus Christ, has conquered death and everything that diminishes the Divine life in us and amongst us. His resurrection from the dead is not simply a fact of history to be retold at Easter. It is a mystery to be lived everyday. As Christians, we are just as inspired by the presence of Jesus among us today as those who first saw the empty tomb.

Like them, we too know that Jesus is not found amongst the dead. He lives among us in the community gathered to celebrate the Eucharist. He lives in the Gospel that is proclaimed by word and deed. Through the Sacraments of the Church, he gathers disciples, heals the sick, reconciles sinners and calls us to service. In the Church's outreach, it is the hand of Jesus that lifts up the poor, feeds the hungry, shelters the homeless and visits the confined. In these ways, and many others, we give witness to the mystery of Jesus living among us. Indeed, in this way we become the Body of Christ for the world.

This great Easter mystery cannot be lived in isolation. It requires the bonds of community to support us and to challenge us. Every Sunday, the Church gathers as the Body of Christ at the table of God's Word and in the celebration of the Eucharist - the source and summit of our life in Christ. We gather every Sunday as active participants in the life of our Resurrected Lord.

Dear St. Patrick's parishioners, wherever you may be on this Easter journey, I wish you blessings during this Easter season and every day. I pray that our Risen Lord will be revealed to you in the Word and the Sacraments, in the love of family, friends and the Church, in the witness of charity and holiness of life, and that this revelation helps you to renew your trust in God and in others around you!

God bless you

We have to thank the major financial sponsor, Mr Paul Dabski, in memory of his mother, Maria, and others whose contributions will allow us to refurbish the lid and basin which are from our original font as we wanted to retain that connection.

We also thank Fr Paul who through his connections with the manufacturers, "Bless Marble & Stone Pty Ltd", 13B/4 Homepride Avenue Warrick Farm NSW 2166.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR CANDIDATES

At the Holy Saturday Easter Vigil celebration, Amanda, Brant, Connor and Natalie were into full communion with the Catholic Church as they celebrated their Sacraments of Confirmation and First Eucharist. This was a special moment, not only in their lives, but in the lives of our local community and the universal church. As these members of our parish family grow in faith, hope and love of God, the entire church is strengthened along with them.

SUNDAY BUS DRIVERS TO BRING THE ELDERLY TO MASS DESPERATELY NEEDED

Our Sunday team has been hit with everything and we are now down to 1 / 2 drivers to cover four to five runs per month which isn't sustainable. We are desperately in need of drivers with a minimum of a Light Rigid licence who would be willing to take one run per month to bring our aged care residents and elderly parishioners to the 9.30am Mass. Sadly if we can't find any drivers we will be forced to stop this service to those who have no other way of getting to Mass, or at a minimum, make it fortnightly. Helpers would also be needed to monitor passengers on the journey should we get the drivers to allow us to continue. Please call the Parish Office if you would like to know more. Thank you.

At the same time, we would like to thank Brian Jay, who is continuing to fill in for the upcoming Sundays as we have no other drivers.

Note: The Light Rigid drivers licence is easy to get and is very handy to have in your portfolio, so don't let that stop you from volunteering for the role.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 138:18,5-6

I have risen, and I am with you still, alleluia.

You have laid your hand upon me, alleluia.

Too wonderful for me, this knowledge, alleluia, alleluia.

FIRST READING

ACTS 10:34. 37-43

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

We have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead.

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 117:1-2. 16-17. 22-23. R. V.24

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

1. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end.

Let the sons of Israel say: 'His love has no end.'

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

2. The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up.

I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds.

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

3. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes.

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

SECOND READING

COL 3:1-4

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians

Look for the things that are in heaven,

where Christ is.

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

SEQUENCE

The sequence is said or sung on this day. On the weekdays of the Octave of Easter, its use is optional.

Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer sacrifice and praise.

The sheep are ransomed by the Lamb; and Christ, the undefiled, hath sinners to his Father reconciled.

Death with life contended: combat strangely ended!

Life's own Champion, slain, yet lives to reign.

Tell us, Mary: say what thou didst see upon the way.

The tomb the Living did enclose; I saw Christ's glory as he rose!

The angels there attesting; shroud with grave-clothes resting.

Christ, my hope, has risen: he goes before you into Galilee.

That Christ is truly risen from the dead we know.

Victorious king, thy mercy show!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

1 COR 5:7-8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Christ has become our paschal sacrifice; let us feast with joy in the Lord.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JN 20:1-9

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

The teaching of scripture is that he must rise from the dead.

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

1 COR 5:7-8

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed, alleluia; therefore let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of purity and truth, alleluia, alleluia.
