

St Patrick's Gosford

The Communities of St Patrick's East Gosford,
St Francis of Assisi Somersby & Holy Trinity Spencer Neighbourhoods of Grace, entrusted to the care of the Salvatorians.

"So they dropped the net and there were so many fish they could not haul it in."

The court scene in the first reading describes apostles who are courageous witnesses to the resurrection of Jesus and heralds to the world of this wondrous event. Peter, acting as their spokesperson, launches into a short sermon consisting of the fundamental apostolic proclamation. He situates Jesus squarely within the tradition of Israel by identifying the God who exalts Jesus as the God of the ancestors. Furthermore, he claims that the exalted Jesus is leader and saviour, two roles traditionally ascribed to Moses. Finally, he maintains that the opportunities for repentance and forgiveness of sin, for which Israel awaited, will be granted through Jesus, who was crucified but now exalted.

This is a psalm of thanksgiving for deliverance from the place of death. The allusion to death can also be an allusion to illness, to depression, or to any serious misfortune that can threaten life. Whatever the actual danger might have been, it is now past; God intervened and saved the petitioner. In addition to the actual calamity, the psalmist is also concerned with enemies who would take delight in the misfortune. The prayer asks to be preserved from this insult as well. Following the initial plea is an acknowledgment of deliverance. God has heard the petition and has granted the request for rescue. The psalmist calls on others to give thanks for God's holiness.

In John's vision, angels, living creatures and elders surround the divine throne. The song sung is a hymn of praise. The seven prerogatives listed (v.12) are conferred upon the Lamb. Since this investiture takes place in heaven, and those around the throne represent all of creation, one can conclude that the rule conferred upon the Lamb is cosmic and universal. The theology behind the vision is more specifically theological than Christological. God is seated on the throne, the Lamb is not. Nor is the Lamb identified with God. Finally, any divine attribute that the Lamb possesses has been given by God. Worship of and devotion to Christ must be understood in terms of his relationship with God.

The gospel opens with an account of a miraculous catch of fish into which is woven a second report, that of a meal on the shore (vv.1-14). This is followed by an exchange between Jesus and Peter (vv. 15-19). It begins and ends with the announcement that the risen Jesus revealed himself to his disciples (vv. 1, 14). Here recognition comes through Jesus' actions, not through his words. Only after they pulled in the multitude of fish did anyone recognise him. A meal prepared by the risen Jesus certainly has eucharistic or at least eschatological connotations. Jesus' exchange with Peter has links with Peter's earlier denial of him. Three times he denied Jesus; three times he is called upon to declare his love. He is then commissioned to assume the role of shepherd in the place of Jesus.

LITURGY COMMITTEE MEETING

Last week we had a first Liturgy Committee meeting and we hope to introduce some subtle but beautiful changes to all of our liturgies.

These will include, but not limited to:

- Music in the services
- The Bulletin - we will begin to include explanations of parts of the Mass and other important services and rituals.
- AV presentations, more relevant information
- Live streaming, improvements to sound and other exciting additions.
- We also ask for your prayers and guidance through the year

MOTHERS DAY NEXT SUNDAY

AT ALL MASSES

BLESSINGS TO ALL MOTHERS

Our wonderful Priest will be giving blessings to all mothers at each Mass next weekend on Mothers day.

Mother's Day is a celebration honoring the mother of the family or individual, as well as motherhood, maternal bonds, and the influence of mothers in society.

The Church is considered to be a mother to her members because she is the Bride of Christ, and all because the Church is considered the mother of believers just as God is called the Father of believers. Another term used in the Catechism is the title "Mater et Magistra" (Mother and Teacher).

VALE RAY MAHER (1922-2020)

PLAQUE INSTALLED IN THE MEMORIAL WALL

Though it has taken some time to organise we recently had pleasure in installing a plaque of remembrance in honour of former parishioner and humanitarian, Ray Maher.

Ray had been part of Gosford Parish all of his life and was visible by his constant care for the parish and its clergy.

The plaque has been installed at the Memorial Wall garden and was blessed in the presence on his family on Saturday April 30. May God hold him in the palm of his hand.

MENALIVE ARE PUTTING ON A BBQ

AFTER 6:00 PM YOUTH MASS

THIS SUNDAY 1ST MAY

Our wonderful men are putting on a BBQ after the Youth Mass as part of this years Year of Community. This BBQ is not for fundraising but we do ask a gold coin donation to cover the cost of the food.

So, after Mass on Sunday night why not come and join us in another wonderful community event.

NEW POSITIONS IN THE DIOCESE

PARENT ENGAGEMENT COORDINATOR (PEC)

With students at the centre of everything we do, our purpose is to inspire hearts and minds to know Christ and grow in faith. We encourage students to use their talents to be the best they can be. In order to help support this vision, we are looking for an inspiring and faith-led Parent Engagement Coordinator.

The Parent Engagement Coordinator role has been developed in direct response to community feedback and aligned with the towards 2025 strategy to strengthen family, school and diocesan relationships. This process was undertaken in consultation with key stakeholders; CSBB leaders, principals, parents, clergy, Catholic care and the chancery. This part time position will play a crucial role in building and maintaining a welcoming, respectful community, while strengthening relationships between school, parents/families and the wider catholic community. The PEC must be adaptable, creative and able to customise their work to meet the diverse needs of the community and respond to parent feedback.

The following locations are seeking applications for a PEC (Phase one)

- Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic School, Terrigal. (Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic parish)
- St Gerard's Catholic School, Carlingford. (Catholic Parish of Epping and Carlingford)
- Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic School, Forestville / St Martin's Catholic School, Davidson. (Catholic Parish of Frenchs Forest)
- St Agatha's Catholic School, Pennant Hills. (St Agatha's Catholic Parish, Pennant Hills)
- St Patrick's Catholic School, East Gosford (St Patrick's Catholic Parish, East Gosford)
- St Joseph's Catholic Secondary School, East Gosford (St Patrick's Catholic Parish, East Gosford)
- Prouille Catholic School, Wahroonga. (Holy Name Parish, Wahroonga)

APPLICATION PROCESS

Applications for Parent Engagement Coordinator positions are to include:

1. A one-page cover letter
2. A resume including personal details, qualifications, work history and experience.

Send your complete application to careers@dbb.org.au

NEXT MOVIE NIGHT - May 7th.

Movie: I STILL BELIEVE (PG)

"I Still Believe" is an uplifting true-life story of Christian music mega-star Jeremy Camp. This inspiring story follows Jeremy's search for his artistic voice leading him to his wildest professional dreams. As well as the love of his life. But Jeremy's hope and faith are put to the test when tragedy strikes. "I Still Believe" is an incredible story of music stardom, the heights of love, the depths of loss, and the healing power of the human spirit.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 65:1-2

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth; O sing to the glory of his name.

O render him glorious praise, alleluia.

FIRST READING

ACTS 5:27-32. 40-41

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

We are witnesses of these words, and so is the Holy Spirit.

The high priest demanded an explanation of the apostles. 'We gave you a formal warning,' he said 'not to preach in this name, and what have you done? You have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and seem determined to fix the guilt of this man's death on us.' In reply Peter and the apostles said, 'Obedience to God comes before obedience to men; it was the God of our ancestors who raised up Jesus, but it was you who had him executed by hanging on a tree. By his own right hand God has now raised him up to be leader and saviour, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins through him to Israel. We are witnesses to all this, we and the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.' They warned the apostles not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them. And so they left the presence of the Sanhedrin glad to have had the honour of suffering humiliation for the sake of the name.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 29:2. 4-6. 11-13. R. V.2

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

1. I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.

O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave.

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

2. Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to his holy name.

His anger lasts but a moment; his favour through life.

At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn.

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

3. The Lord listened and had pity.

The Lord came to my help.

For me you have changed my mourning into dancing; O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever.

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

SECOND READING

RV 5:11-14

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

The Lamb that was sacrificed is worthy to be given power, wealth, glory, and blessing.

In my vision, I, John, heard the sound of an immense number of angels gathered round the throne and the animals and the elders; there were ten thousand times ten thousand of them and thousands upon thousands, shouting, 'The Lamb that was sacrificed is worthy to be given power, riches, wisdom, strength, honour, glory and blessing.' Then I heard all the living things in creation – everything that lives in the air, and on the ground, and under the ground, and in the sea, crying, 'To the One who is sitting on the throne and to the Lamb, be all praise, honour, glory and power, for ever and ever.' And the four animals said, 'Amen'; and the elders prostrated themselves to worship.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Christ is risen, the Lord of all creation; he has shown pity on all people.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL
JN 21:1-14

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples. It was by the Sea of Tiberias, and it happened like this: Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee and two more of his disciples were together. Simon Peter said, 'I'm going fishing.' They replied, 'We'll come with you.' They went out and got into the boat but caught nothing that night.

It was light by now and there stood Jesus on the shore, though the disciples did not realise that it was Jesus. Jesus called out,

'Have you caught anything, friends?' And when they answered, 'No', he said, 'Throw the net out to starboard and you'll find something.' So they dropped the net, and there were so many fish that they could not haul it in. The disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord.' At these words 'It is the Lord,' Simon Peter, who had practically nothing on, wrapped his cloak round him and jumped into the water. The other disciples came on in the boat, towing the net and the fish; they were only about a hundred yards from land.

As soon as they came ashore they saw that there was some bread there, and a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it. Jesus said, 'Bring some of the fish you have just caught.' Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to the shore, full of big fish, one hundred and fifty-three of them; and in spite of there being so many the net was not broken. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' None of the disciples was bold enough to ask, 'Who are you?'; they knew quite well it was the Lord. Jesus then stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish. This was the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples after rising from the dead.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

LK 24:35

The disciples recognized the Lord Jesus in the breaking of the bread, alleluia.
