

St Patrick's Gosford

The Communities of St Patrick's East Gosford,
St Francis of Assisi Somersby & Holy Trinity Spencer
Neighbourhoods of Grace, entrusted to the care of the Salvatorians.

RENOVATION TO BEGIN SOON

We were recently awarded a $25,000 Community Building government grant to assist in making our church more welcoming. We will do this, and as you would remember from our foyer renovation proposal launched in 2021, by replacing all exterior doors to the church with timber look aluminium and glass doors and replacing the current wall between the church body and the foyer with a framed sound reducing glass wall with automatic opening doors, greatly assisting anybody with physical limitations.

In addition we wish to remove the heavy, prison like roller shutters to the choir loft and piety stall. In the interests of retaining our heritage, we will use one of the current iron grill entry doors to the church body at the top of the stairs to the choir loft to provide the necessary security to that space, and even more excitingly we will incorporate the etched glass in the current entry doors and header in the new entry to the piety stall.

These plans will make our church, and particularly our foyer, lighter, friendlier and more welcoming.

Whilst the grant covers the exterior doors and glass wall, we are looking for your assistance to meet the cost of the piety stall and choir stairs reno at approximately $9,000 and to this end we have placed Parish Project envelopes at each of the pews today in the hope that we will have your financial support.

Be assured that while we are ever mindful of the importance of maintenance and improvements to our church we also recognise that retaining the essence of St Patrick's is a priority, and that is our aim.

Work should commence in about one month and we'll keep you posted. In the meantime if you would like to know more, or how to donate directly, please speak with Father or call the Parish Office.

Thank you.

Pregnancy Help Sydney - Supporting Vulnerable Pregnant Women

Dear Father

'I'm pregnant, scared and don't know what to do. Can I talk to you?' Pregnancy Help Sydney, a life-affirming organisation, has been receiving these types of calls Australia-wide for over 40 years. Our free, confidential and non-judgemental 24/7 telephone support service has helped thousands of women who have reached out to us.

Embarking on motherhood should be a joyous occasion when a baby is planned for and welcomed into the life of its mother. Yet, for a significant number of women, this is not their reality. Our organisation provides an empathetic listening ear to support the woman who is challenged by her pregnancy, and together, explore the best options for her and her baby.

So this Mother's Day, we are thrilled to be launching, as another tool to help women facing a difficult situation, our refreshed website:
<http://www.pregnancyhelpsydney.com>

Thank you for taking the time to read our message. Please feel free to contact me if you would like to know more about Pregnancy Help Sydney or to discuss ways in which our work supporting vulnerable pregnant women could be further promoted.

In the meantime, we kindly ask that if at all possible, the following statement be included in your parish bulletins or newsletters when space allows, but especially in the month of May.

Pregnant? Worried, confused, feeling alone? Want to chat? Call our 24/7 support line 1300 792 798 or visit our website <http://www.pregnancyhelpsydney.com>.

Yours sincerely

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 32:5-6

The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth; by the word of the Lord the heavens were made, alleluia.

FIRST READING

ACTS 13:14, 43-52

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

We are now turning to the gentiles.

Paul and Barnabas carried on from Perga till they reached Antioch in Pisidia. Here they went to synagogue on the sabbath and took their seats.

When the meeting broke up, many Jews and devout converts joined Paul and Barnabas, and in their talks with them Paul and Barnabas urged them to remain faithful to the grace God had given them.

The next sabbath almost the whole town assembled to hear the word of God. When they saw the crowds, the Jews, prompted by jealousy, used blasphemies and contradicted everything Paul said. Then Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, 'We had to proclaim the word of God to you first, but since you have rejected it, since you do not think yourselves worthy of eternal life, we must turn to the pagans. For this is what the Lord commanded us to do when he said:

I have made you a light for the nations, so that my salvation may reach the ends of the earth.'

It made the pagans very happy to hear this and they thanked the Lord for his message; all who were destined for eternal life became believers. Thus the word of the Lord spread through the whole countryside.

But the Jews worked upon some of the devout women of the upper classes and the leading men of the city and persuaded them to turn against Paul and Barnabas and expel them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in defiance and went off to Iconium; but the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 99:1-3. 5. R. V.3

(R.) We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

1. Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth. Serve the Lord with gladness.

Come before him, singing for joy.

(R.) We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

2. Know that he, the Lord, is God.

He made us, we belong to him, we are his people, the sheep of his flock.

(R.) We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

3. Indeed, how good is the Lord, eternal his merciful love.

He is faithful from age to age.

(R.) We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

SECOND READING

RV 7:9, 14-17

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

The Lamb who is at the throne will be their shepherd and will lead them to springs of living water.

I, John, saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. One of the elders said to me, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and because they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb, they now stand in front of God's throne and serve him day and night in his sanctuary; and the One who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them. They will never hunger or thirst again; neither the sun nor scorching wind will ever plague them, because the Lamb who is at the throne will be their shepherd and will lead them to springs of living water; and God will wipe away all tears from their eyes.'

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JN 10:14

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JN 10:27-30

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

I give my sheep eternal life.

Jesus said:

'The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice; I know them and they follow me.

I give them eternal life; they will never be lost and no one will ever steal them from me.

The Father who gave them to me is greater than anyone, and no one can steal from the Father.

The Father and I are one.'

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

TODAY THE CHURCH THROUGHOUT THE WORLD PRAYS FOR VOCATIONS.

Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for more vocations to the priesthood and religious life?

Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead. Keep our parish priests in your prayers throughout the week.

Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.

Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS TO THE PRIESTHOOD

Send your Holy Spirit upon us, O Lord, that we may be holy.

In your mercy, guard and strengthen us to be disciples who witness to the Good News of Jesus.

Call forth from our community of the Church generous and loving shepherds after your own heart.

May they be zealous preachers of the Word; faithful teachers of the Truth; and devoted servants at the Altar.

Fill their hearts with love for you and your creation; open their minds to a lifetime of learning; and make them humble servants of your holy people. For you, O God, are kind and merciful, and to you we offer glory in your holy Church, now and forever.

AMEN.
