PLENARY COUNCIL WALKING IN THE SPIRIT

Plenary Council
Listen to what the Spirit is saying...

After almost four-and-a-half years, thousands of meetings, and untold prayers, we find ourselves just two days away from the opening Mass of the second general assembly of the Fifth Plenary Council of Australia.

The journey has traversed much ground, has navigated a pandemic that lingers, suffered a postponement and the transfer of the first assembly online, but we've almost made it -- thanks to the People of God across Australia.

As the second assembly approaches, much of this PlenaryPost focuses on the assembly and the interplay between the 277 members who will participate in the assembly, beginning on Sunday, July 3 and the many more who will follow online and in prayer. And if you live in the greater Sydney area, you are welcome to join us for the closing Mass of the Plenary Council at 10.30am on Saturday, July 9 at St Mary's Cathedral.

Now would be a good time to save the Plenary Council website in your favourites, because it will provide a wealth of information over the next eight days.

IS THIS THE END? OR IS IT THE BEGINNING?

by Marion Gambin rsj

Dear Friends,

Before you know it, Assembly 2 will have begun! Thank you for all your prayers, contributions and good spirit, your local engagement with the listening and dialogue and the listening and discernment process along the journey of our Plenary Council. It is a unique and special moment in our lifetime as we have all travelled together discerning what God is asking of us in Australia at this time.

Over the next few days, Members and Personnel will be traveling to Sydney and gathering at Mary Mackillop Place in North Sydney for the Opening Mass for the second Assembly. There are several ways you can stay connected and join in. Please go to the website at www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au and you will see how. You might even like to send a message of prayer and support to all the Members!

Some might say we have now come to the end of a four-year journey, extended 12 months because of COVID-19! However, I like to think that as we move into the Implementation Phase of this Plenary Council process, we shall witness the small seed planted four years ago as it flourishes and bears the fruit of a renewed spirit of hope amongst the People of God across Australia. A beginning!

The process of discernment has been central to the Plenary Council Journey – listening to what the Spirit is saying in me and then listening to what the Spirit is saying to the group. Hopefully this process of discernment has been transformative for you, and transformed the way you in your communities, parishes, dioceses take time to listen to what the Spirit is saying in the group to enable you to move to decision and action, for the common good of our Church, our country, our world.

This won't be the last Plenary Post! We will be back again after the second assembly to keep you informed of all that takes place after the closure of the Plenary Council on 9 July with the celebration of the Eucharist at 10.30am AEST, in St Mary's Cathedral Sydney.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for July - For the elderly.

We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

POPE FRANCIS SAYS

CATHOLICS NEED BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF THE MASS.

A priest holds the Eucharist in this illustration taken May 27, 2021.

The "sense of mystery" and awe Catholics should experience at Mass is prompted by an awareness of sacrifice of Christ and his real presence in the Eucharist, Pope Francis said in a document released June 29, 2022. (CNS photo/Bob Roller)

Date: June 29, 2022

VATICAN CITY (CNS) — The "sense of mystery" and awe Catholics should experience at Mass is not one prompted by Latin or by "creative" elements added to the celebration, but by an awareness of sacrifice of Christ and his real presence in the Eucharist, Pope Francis said.

"Beauty, just like truth, always engenders wonder, and when these are referred to the mystery of God, they lead to adoration," he wrote in an apostolic letter "on the liturgical formation of the people of God."

Titled "Desiderio Desideravi" ("I have earnestly desired"), the letter was released June 29, the feast of Sts. Peter and Paul. The title comes from Luke 22:15 when, before the Last Supper, Jesus tells his disciples, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer."

In the letter, Pope Francis insisted that Catholics need to better understand the liturgical reform of the Second Vatican Council and its goal of promoting the "full, conscious, active and fruitful celebration" of the Mass.

"With this letter I simply want to invite the whole church to rediscover, to safeguard and to live the truth and power of the Christian celebration," the pope wrote. "I want the beauty of the Christian celebration and its necessary consequences for the life of the church not to be spoiled by a superficial and foreshortened understanding of its value or, worse yet, by its being exploited in service of some ideological vision, no matter what the hue."

"The priestly prayer of Jesus at the Last Supper that all may be one judges every one of our divisions around the bread broken, around the sacrament of mercy, the sign of unity, the bond of charity," he said.

While his letter offered what he called a "meditation" on the power and beauty of the Mass, Pope Francis also reiterated his conviction of the need to limit celebrations of the liturgy according to the rite in use before the Second Vatican Council.

"We cannot go back to that ritual form which the council fathers, 'cum Petro et sub Petro,' (with and under Peter) felt the need to reform, approving, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit and following their conscience as pastors, the principles from which was born the reform."

The liturgical books approved by "the holy pontiffs St. Paul VI and St. John Paul II," he said, "have guaranteed the fidelity of the reform of the council."

Although the post-Vatican II Mass is celebrated in Latin and dozens of vernacular languages, he said, it is "one and the same prayer capable of expressing her (the church's) unity."

"As I have already written, I intend that this unity be reestablished in the whole church of the Roman rite," he said, which is why in 2021 he promulgated "Traditionis Custodes" (Guardians of the Tradition), limiting celebrations of the Mass according to the rite used before the Second Vatican Council.

The bulk of the pope's new letter focused on helping Catholics learn to recognize and be astounded by the great gift of the Mass and the Eucharist and how it is not simply a weekly "staging" or "representation" of the Last Supper but truly allows people of all times and all places to encounter the crucified and risen Lord and to eat his body and drink his blood.

And, the pope wrote, it is essential to recognize that the Mass does not belong to the priest or to any individual worshipper, but to Christ and his church.

"The liturgy does not say 'I' but 'we,' and any limitation on the breadth of this 'we' is always demonic," he said. "The liturgy does not leave us alone to search out an individual supposed knowledge of the mystery of God. Rather, it takes us by the hand, together, as an assembly, to lead us deep within the mystery that the word and the sacramental signs reveal to us."

"Consistent with all action of God," he said, the liturgy leads people into the mystery using symbolic actions and signs.

Pope Francis acknowledged that some people claim that in reforming the liturgy and allowing celebrations of the Mass in the language of the local congregation it has somehow lost what is "meant by the vague expression 'sense of mystery.'"

But the mystery celebrated and communicated, he said, is not about "a mysterious rite. It is, on the contrary, marveling at the fact that the salvific plan of God has been revealed in the paschal deed of Jesus."

The liturgy is uses "things that are the exact opposite of spiritual abstractions: bread, wine, oil, water, fragrances, fire, ashes, rock, fabrics, colors, body, words, sounds, silences, gestures, space, movement, action, order, time, light," he said. Those concrete things proclaim that "the whole of creation is a manifestation of the love of God, and from when that same love was manifested in its fullness in the cross of Jesus, all of creation was drawn toward it."

However, Pope Francis wrote, the words and gestures and symbols to be used are only those approved by the church.

"Let us be clear here: every aspect of the celebration must be carefully tended to — space, time, gestures, words, objects, vestments, song, music — and every rubric must be observed," he wrote. Otherwise, the celebrant or ministers risk "robbing from the assembly what is owed to it; namely, the paschal mystery celebrated according to the ritual that the church sets down."

Pope Francis said "the non-acceptance of the liturgical reform" of Vatican II, as well as "a superficial understanding of it, distracts us from the obligation of finding responses to the question that I come back to repeating: How can we grow in our capacity to live in full the liturgical action? How do we continue to let ourselves be amazed at what happens in the celebration under our very eyes?"

"We are in need of a serious and dynamic liturgical formation," he said. <https://catholicnews.com/catholics-need-better-understanding-of-the-mass-pope-says/>

CF. PS 47:10-11

Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple.

Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice.

FIRST READING

IS 66:10-14

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

I will send toward Jerusalem peace like a river.

Rejoice, Jerusalem, be glad for her, all you who love her!

Rejoice, rejoice for her, all you who mourned her!

That you may be suckled, filled, from her consoling breast, that you may savour with delight her glorious breasts.

For thus says the Lord:

Now towards her I send flowing peace, like a river, and like a stream in spate the glory of the nations.

At her breast will her nurslings be carried and fondled in her lap.

Like a son comforted by his mother will I comfort you.

And by Jerusalem you will be comforted.

At the sight your heart will rejoice, and your bones flourish like the grass.

To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 65:1-7. 16. 20. R. V.1

(R.) Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

1. Cry out with joy to God all the earth, O sing to the glory of his name.

O render him glorious praise.

Say to God: 'How tremendous your deeds!

(R.) Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

2. 'Before you all the earth shall bow; shall sing to you, sing to your name!'

Come and see the works of God, tremendous his deeds among men.

(R.) Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

3. He turned the sea into dry land, they passed through the river dry-shod.

Let our joy then be in him; he rules for ever by his might.

(R.) Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

4. Come and hear, all who fear God.

I will tell what he did for my soul.

Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer nor withhold his love from me.

(R.) Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

SECOND READING

GAL 6:14-18

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Galatians

The marks I carry on my body are those of Jesus Christ.

The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him to become an altogether new creature. Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, who form the Israel of God.

I want no more trouble from anybody after this; the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

COL 3:15. 16

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, and the fullness of his message live within you.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

LK 10:1-9

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Your peace will rest upon him.

The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road. Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, "Peace to this house!" And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house. Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, "The kingdom of God is very near to you."

WELL EARNED THANK YOUs to those on Rosters

There are many people in our Parish who selflessly help in many ways and we often take them for granted.

This week we would like to thank the people on the Liturgical Rosters and especially Peter McLean who has for years kept the rosters up to date as well as performing in many of the roles himself.

Thank you Peter and all who help with the various liturgical duties.

Everyone will know the Lord is with you
