FROM THE OFFICE FOR THE BISHOP

VOX POPULI - VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

This Sunday, 27 November marks the start of Advent.

It is the beginning of the Church's liturgical year and encompasses the four Sundays (and weekdays) leading up to the celebration of Christmas.

It is a time of reflection, anticipation and preparation when we can direct our minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time, and to the anniversary of Our Lord's birth on Christmas.

The exact origin of the celebration is not known, although it was being practiced as early as the 5th century.

Saint Gregory of Tours wrote about his predecessor Saint Perpetuus decreeing a fast three times a week from the feast of Saint Martin (November 11) until Christmas.

It's unclear whether this was a new custom or the reinforcement of an existing custom.

Either way, the custom began to spread beyond the Diocese of Tours, and soon all of France was observing three days of fasting each week between the feast of Saint Martin and Christmas. However the practice of fasting went beyond France, and many chose to fast every day of the Advent season, not just the three days prescribed.

By the 13th century, the fast of Advent was not being as commonly practiced, and so it was reformed, shortening it to a four-week cycle.

The liturgical season of Advent (which comes from the Latin adventus, meaning "coming") is now spread over four Sundays, with the readings and teachings focused on the preparation for the Second Coming and the Last Judgement.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for November

For children who suffer.

We pray for children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans, and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection.

"Lord remember me when you come into your kingdom."

People are often fascinated by Jesus' promise to "come again". But the scripture readings during Advent tell us not to waste our time with predictions. Advent is not about speculation. The Advent readings call us to be alert and ready, not weighted down and distracted by the cares of this world (Lk 21:34-36).

During the season of Advent, the liturgical colour is violet which represents penance, preparation and sacrifice.

It serves as a beautiful visual reminder to the faithful, that they should carry this spirit of repentance and penance throughout the season, remembering that Christ's birth was the beginning of his earthly mission, preaching the faith and eventually dying for our salvation.

However on the 3rd Sunday of Advent, or Gaudete Sunday, priests wear rose-coloured vestments, just as it is during Lent, which represents the joyful reward that comes from offering sacrifice with patience.

During Advent there are four candles, one each week, followed by the white candle at Christmas.

The first one, violet or light purple, represents God's People. It is the candle of Hope.

The second, also violet, represents the Old Testament Prophets, and is the Candle of Peace.

The third represents John the Baptist, and is the Candle of Hope. This is rose-coloured. The fourth, again violet, represents Mary the Mother of Jesus, and is the Candle of Joy.

Lord Jesus, Master of both the light and the darkness, send your Holy Spirit upon our preparations for Christmas. We who have so much to do and seek quiet spaces to hear your voice each day, We who are anxious over many things look forward to your coming among us.

FR FRANCIS JORDAN SDS

God uses time to bring about His providential decrees. "Pray, be silent, be patient and all will turn out right when the moment appointed by His decrees comes."

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 24:1-3

To you, I lift up my soul, O my God.
In you, I have trusted; let me not be put to shame.

Nor let my enemies exult over me; and let none who hope in you be put to shame.

FIRST READING

IS 2:1-5

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The Lord will gather all nations in eternal peace in the kingdom of God.

The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

In the days to come the mountain of the Temple of the Lord shall tower above the mountains and be lifted higher than the hills.

All the nations will stream to it, peoples without number will come to it; and they will say:

'Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the Temple of the God of Jacob that he may teach us his ways so that we may walk in his paths; since the Law will go out from Zion, and the oracle of the Lord from Jerusalem.'

He will wield authority over the nations and adjudicate between many peoples; these will hammer their swords into ploughshares, their spears into sickles. Nation will not lift sword against nation, there will be no more training for war.

O House of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 121:1-2. 4-5. 6-9. R. SEE V.1.

(R.) Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

1. I rejoiced when I heard them say: 'Let us go to God's house.'

And now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem.

(R.) Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

2. It is there that the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord.

For Israel's law it is, there to praise the Lord's name.

There were set the thrones of judgement of the house of David.

3. For the peace of Jerusalem pray: 'Peace be to your homes!

May peace reign in your walls, in your palaces, peace!'

4. For love of my brethren and friends I say: 'Peace upon you!'

For love of the house of the Lord I will ask for your good.

SECOND READING

ROM 13:11-14

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

The time has come, our salvation is near.

You know 'the time' has come: you must wake up now: our salvation is even nearer than it was when we were converted. The night is almost over, it will be daylight soon – let us give up all the things we prefer to do under the cover of the dark; let us arm ourselves and appear in the light. Let us live decently as people do in the daytime: no drunken orgies, no promiscuity or licentiousness, and no wrangling or jealousy. Let your armour be the Lord Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

PS 84:8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MT 24:37-44

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Stay awake, you must be ready.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'As it was in Noah's day, so will it be when the Son of Man comes. For in those days before the Flood people were eating, drinking, taking wives, taking husbands, right up to the day Noah went into the ark, and they suspected nothing till the Flood came and swept all away. It will be like this when the Son of Man comes. Then of two men in the fields one is taken, one left; of two women at the millstone grinding, one is taken, one left.

'So stay awake, because you do not know the day when your master is coming. You may be quite sure of this that if the householder had known at what time of the night the burglar would come, he would have stayed awake and would not have allowed anyone to break through the wall of his house. Therefore, you too must stand ready because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

PS 84:13

The Lord will bestow his bounty, and our earth shall yield its increase.
