SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

Isaiah depicts two ways in which the renewal promised by God is manifested: the barren wilderness will be filled with new life; and those who suffer physical maladies will be healed. The proclamation 'Fear not' is a common expression found in many accounts of divine revelation (cf. Gen 15:1; Josh 8:1; Isa 41:10). It is spoken by God or a messenger of God in an attempt to assuage the very natural trepidation that one experiences in the presence of a supernatural phenomenon. Here, as part of a promise of salvation, it is meant to encourage the faint-hearted. Like the transformation and rejuvenation, the release of captives is a gift from God.

The responsorial psalm is a hymn of praise. Although covenant is never explicitly mentioned, themes such as divine faithfulness and graciousness to the vulnerable point to it. Widows were women who could return to their home of origin because they had married, but now had neither husbands nor adult son to care for them. They were marginal in society and needed some patron to care for them. Orphans had no extended family within whose jurisdiction they might take refuge. These were the vulnerable ones for whom God cared. The final verse praises God as sovereign and eternal ruler in Jerusalem. This God is close at hand.

Patience is the controlling theme in the second reading. The author both exhorts believers to be patient in waiting for the coming of the Lord and offers examples of patient waiting. They are told not to complain about each other or judge each other, lest they themselves be judged. Christ will be the judge. Living a life in accord with Christian principles is not easy. Believers are instructed to take the prophets as their models. Calling on such witnesses as models of virtuous living served as a reminder of the unavoidable hardships of life that every person must endure and the patience required of those who in the midst of such hardships wait with excitement for the parousia of the Lord.

Jesus' words to John's disciples are really intended for John himself. John had heard of the works of 'the Christ' (the Greek equivalent for messiah). That he sent disciples to find out whether or not Jesus was indeed this person, suggests that Jesus did not exhibit all the eschatological signs that John had expected. In response, Jesus links some of his own wondrous deeds with prophetic allusions to eschatological visions of fulfilment (cf. Isa 29:18; 35:6; 26:19; 61:19). Jesus then points out the excellence of John the man. Still, from an eschatological point of view, John stood on the threshold of the new age; he did not cross over into it. On the other hand, anyone who accepted Jesus' invitation into the reign of heaven belonged to the new age. © Dianne Bergant CSA

NEW LITURGICAL YEAR AND PARISH COUNCIL

The start of this new liturgical year and the year of Discipleship, also marks the start of a new three year term for the Parish Pastoral Council. We thank the members of the outgoing PPC for their dedication over the last three years, especially for the development of our Vision, Mission and Values statement. This statement provides the basis for how the next PPC will be structured, and their function into the next three years.

In the new year, nominations and election of the new PPC will occur. There are five key roles that the new members will fulfil as leaders in these areas. All ministries in the parish will then be allocated into these areas based on the main focus of each ministry.

More information on the new PPC will be revealed in the new year. We ask you to keep the outgoing and new PPC members in your prayers.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL CHRISTMAS APPEAL

This weekend. As usual gifting envelopes will be available on the seats. Already, we have received many toys for small children, so thankfully, they won't be a challenge for us this year.

HOME VISITS TO THE SICK & ELDERLY BEFORE CHRISTMAS

If you know of someone who is sick or unable to make Mass who would like to be visited by Fr Greg or Fr Wilson between December 19 & 22 to be anointed and receive Communion before Christmas, please contact the Parish Office by Thursday December 15 to advise the details.

Remember it is very important that you gain permission from the person being visited before you submit a name. Thank you.

BUS DRIVER [LR LICENCE] REQUIRED

Sadly we have lost the services of our 1st Sunday of the month driver, David Dessman, to bring the elderly to Mass, as he has to step down but takes with him our deepest gratitude for the time spent in this valuable service. We are now looking for someone with a Light Rigid licence to fill his once a month position and ask you to please contact the Parish Office if you are interested.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

PHIL 4:4-5

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice.

Indeed, the Lord is near.

FIRST READING

IS 35:1-6, 10

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

God himself will come and save us.

Let the wilderness and the dry-lands exult, let the wasteland rejoice and bloom, let it bring forth flowers like the jonquil, let it rejoice and sing for joy.

The glory of Lebanon is bestowed on it, the splendour of Carmel and Sharon; they shall see the glory of the Lord, the splendour of our God.

Strengthen all weary hands, steady all trembling knees and say to all faint hearts, 'Courage! Do not be afraid.

'Look, your God is coming, vengeance is coming, the retribution of God; he is coming to save you.'

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, the ears of the deaf unsealed, then the lame shall leap like a deer and the tongues of the dumb sing for joy, for those the Lord has ransomed shall return.

They will come to Zion shouting for joy, everlasting joy on their faces; joy and gladness will go with them and sorrow and lament be ended.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 145:6-10. R. SEE IS 35:4

(R.) Lord, come and save us.

1. It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever, who is just to those who are oppressed.

It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free.

2. It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down, the Lord, who protects the stranger and upholds the widow and orphan.

(R.) Lord, come and save us.

3. It is the Lord who loves the just but thwarts the path of the wicked.

The Lord will reign for ever, Zion's God, from age to age.

(R.) Lord, come and save us.

SECOND READING

JAS 5:7-10

A reading from the letter of St James

You also must be patient; do not lose heart, the Lord's coming will be soon.

Be patient, brothers, until the Lord's coming. Think of a farmer: how patiently he waits for the precious fruit of the ground until it has had the autumn rains and the spring rains! You too have to be patient; do not lose heart, because the Lord's coming will be soon. Do not make complaints against one another, brothers, so as not to be brought to judgement yourselves; the Judge is already to be seen waiting at the gates. For your example, brothers, in submitting with patience, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

IS 61:1 (LK 4:18)

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me; he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MT 11:2-11

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Are you the one who is to come, or must we wait for someone else?

John in his prison had heard what Christ was doing and he sent his disciples to ask him, 'Are you the one who is to come, or have we got to wait for someone else?' Jesus answered, 'Go back and tell John what you hear and see; the blind see again, and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised to life and the Good News is proclaimed to the poor; and happy is the man who does not lose faith in me.'

As the messengers were leaving, Jesus began to talk to the people about John: 'What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swaying in the breeze? No? Then what did you go out to see? A man wearing fine clothes? Oh no, those who wear fine clothes are to be found in palaces. Then what did you go out for? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet: he is the one of whom scripture says: Look, I am going to send my messenger before you; he will prepare your way before you. I tell you solemnly, of all the children born of women, a greater than John the Baptist has never been seen; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he is.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON
