SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

Visions and dreams were considered avenues of divine revelation. The scene (Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14) depicts the courts of heaven at the end of the ages. The major figures are the Ancient One and the one like a Son of Man. 'Ancient One' implies both eternity and great wisdom. The one who comes on the clouds is described as one like the Son of Man. This mysterious figure is installed by God as ruler over the entire universe. His will be an everlasting kingdom, granted by God, not attained by means of conquest or political alliance. This figure may have been in heaven when he received his commission, he may even rule from some exalted place in the heavens, but his kingdom belongs to the earth.

The psalm (96:1-2, 5-6, 9) opens with the traditional enthronement declaration. 'The Lord is king!' Behind this exclamation is the theme of divine kingship. It is appropriately followed by an exhortation: 'Let the earth rejoice!' God's rule is constructed in the permanence of justice and judgment. It is impregnable and immutable. The universal kingship of the Lord is beyond question. The response with a proclamation of praise is addressed directly to the Lord. It captures the essence of the preceding verses. God is exalted above both heaven and earth. There is no threat of future upheaval or rebellion. God has no rivals. The divine king has been enthroned and the rule of this God will last forever.

A defensive tone seems to surface in the second reading (2 Peter 1:16-19). The authenticity of the gospel message preached by the author appears to have come under attack. He witnessed the transfiguration of Jesus. If Jesus could have been so transformed during his lifetime, surely he could return in the same glory. Furthermore, there is the prophetic message that foretold the coming of the messiah. Two very powerful metaphors are used to describe the parousia of the Lord; both characterise it as the coming of light out of darkness: the dawning of the eschatological day of fulfilment; and the rising of the morning star. The Scriptures themselves bear witness to the truth of the gospel message.

"His face was shining like the sun."

The gospel narrative (Matthew 17:1-9) recounts a theophany, a self-revelation of God. The once popular interpretation of this as a post-resurrection story read back into the time of the public ministry of Jesus has been challenged by most commentators today. Rather, they believe that it describes an insight into the identity that was his during his public life. Thus the transformation was a change that took place when Jesus' inner reality shone forth and transfigured his outer appearance. Moses and Elijah, the representatives of the law and the prophets, confirm Jesus' authority and the legitimacy of his teaching. While these men converse with Jesus, the voice from the cloud speaks to the apostles. They are the ones who seem to need the identification of Jesus and the directive from God.

SUNDAY'S OF THE SACRAMENTAL PROGRAM

FOR 1ST RECONCILIATION & 1ST EUCHARIST

WELCOME TO THE SECOND SUNDAY IN THE PROGRAM

This Sunday, we welcome the Children preparing for 1st Reconciliation and 1st Eucharist to Mass. Over the next 4 weeks, these children will join us in the Mass to observe and learn the ritual of the Mass. We pray for the Holy Spirit to be present in them so they can understand the significance and true meaning of the Mass and this most blessed sacrament.

WE ARE STILL DESPERATE FOR YOUR HELP!

STEWARDSHIP IS A REWARDING THING!

KEEPING YOU UPDATED ON OUR BUS HELPER MOVEMENTS!

- Firstly, thank you to Frances Hickey who has decided to join the team on the 2nd Sunday of the month. You have our deepest appreciation Frances.
- Secondly though, our long time helper, Ellen McNally, has now decided it's time for her to retire and she takes with her our sincere thanks for her time and dedication.
- Lastly though, this now means we are a helper short as Ellen covered the 3rd & 5th Sundays.

Is there anyone who would like to join the team the brings our elderly to Mass – just a once-a-month commitment?? We'd love to hear from you at the office. 4325 1042.

- Sat morn coffee shop helper, specifically for the 1st and 4th Saturday of each month.
- We are also in desperate need of new AV operators for 5:00 pm Sat vigil Mass. It's much easier than you might think and full training is given.

If you can help in either of these roles we are will be forever grateful. Simply contact the Parish Office for more details and hopefully to put your name forward to the office.

MARY MACKILLOP FEAST DAY

TUESDAY, 8 AUGUST 2023

Mary MacKillop is a woman whose life encourages us to "take fresh courage". Her perseverance in the face of adversity came from her deep desire to live in and for God. Walking amidst life's difficulties, she had the capacity to lift people's spirit as she encouraged them to find meaning and purpose in their lives. Her heart was grounded in God's mission, loving tenderly the many people who shared their troubles with her.

May you be blessed with a double portion of the values that shaped her living of the Gospel. Encountering St Mary McKillop in Prayer. Simply follow the link.

WORLD YOUTH DAY UPDATE

SALVATORIAN PILGRIMS

THE DAYS OF CATECHESIS IN LISBON.

The week before World Youth Day the Pilgrims gather in the host city where they go to sessions to learn more about the way of Christianity.

What is Catechesis?

Catechesis is an education in the faith of children, young people and adults which includes especially the teaching of Christian doctrine imparted, generally speaking, in an organic and systematic way, with a view to initiating the hearers into the fullness of Christian life.

DIOCESAN PILGRIMS

Our Broken Bay WYD23 pilgrims were among the 400,000-plus pilgrims from 143 countries who attended the official opening Mass in Lisbon on Tuesday. The city's Eduardo VII park, not far from the waterfront, was packed - along the roads and walkways and on the green slopes. Pilgrims sang and flags everywhere. Such a joyous occasion. The week has begun.

ST PATRICK'S — YOUR PARISH

If you would like to support your parish long after you have gone, perhaps you may consider leaving a bequest?

There are two options available:

1. You may consider a living bequest, where you can see the benefit of your giving? If you prefer the idea of a living bequest, please just speak with Father, or contact the Parish Office On 43251042."

OR

2. If you would like to leave a bequest in your Will, please ask your solicitor to include the following in your will:

"I give, devise and bequeath [the sum of ... or my property known as ... or ...% of my estate] free of all duties and taxes to the parish priest of St. Patrick's Parish of the Roman Catholic Church East Gosford to be used for the purposes of that parish.

CF MATTHEW 17:5

In a resplendent cloud the Holy Spirit appeared.

The Father's voice was heard: This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased. Listen to him.

FIRST READING

DANIEL 7:9-10. 13-14

A reading from the book of Daniel

His raiment was as white as snow.

As I watched:

Thrones were set in place and one of great age took his seat.

His robe was white as snow, the hair of his head as pure as wool.

His throne was a blaze of flames, its wheels were a burning fire.

A stream of fire poured out, issuing from his presence.

A thousand thousand waited on him, ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him.

A court was held and the books were opened.

I gazed into the visions of the night.

And I saw, coming on the clouds of heaven, one like a son of man.

He came to the one of great age and was led into his presence.

On him was conferred sovereignty, glory and kingship, and men of all peoples, nations and languages became his servants.

His sovereignty is an eternal sovereignty which shall never pass away, nor will his empire ever be destroyed.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 96:1-2. 5-6. 9. R. VV.1. 9.

(R.) The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth.

1. The Lord is king, let earth rejoice, let all the coastlands be glad.

Cloud and darkness are his raiment; his throne, justice and right.

(R.) The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth.

2. The mountains melt like wax before the Lord of all the earth.

The skies proclaim his justice; all peoples see his glory.

(R.) The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth.

3. For you indeed are the Lord most high above all the earth exalted far above all spirits.

(R.) The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth.

SECOND READING

2 PETER 1:16-19

A reading from the second letter of St Peter

We heard this voice from out of heaven.

It was not any cleverly invented myths that we were repeating when we brought you the knowledge of the power and the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; we had seen his majesty for ourselves. He was honoured and glorified by God the Father, when the Sublime Glory itself spoke to him and said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; he enjoys my favour.' We heard this ourselves, spoken from heaven, when we were with him on the holy mountain.

So we have confirmation of what was said in prophecies; and you will be right to depend on prophecy and take it as a lamp for lighting a way through the dark until the dawn comes and the morning star rises in your minds.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

MATTHEW 17:5

Alleluia, alleluia!

This is my Son, my beloved, in whom is all my delight: listen to him.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MATTHEW 17:1-9

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

His face was shining like the sun.

Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain where they could be alone. There in their presence he was transfigured: his face shone like the sun and his clothes became as white as the light. Suddenly Moses and Elijah appeared to them; they were talking with him. Then Peter spoke to Jesus. 'Lord,' he said 'it is wonderful for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.' He was still speaking when suddenly a bright cloud covered them with shadow, and from the cloud there came a voice which said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; he enjoys my favour. Listen to him.' When they heard this, the disciples fell on their faces, overcome with fear. But Jesus came up and touched them. 'Stand up,' he said 'do not be afraid.' And when they raised their eyes they saw no one but only Jesus.

As they came down from the mountain Jesus gave them this order, 'Tell no one about the vision until the Son of Man has risen from the dead.'

When this Feast falls on a Sunday, the Creed is said.
