DISCIPLESHIP

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

Fathers play a crucial role in the lives of children, and this significance extends to the Catholic faith, where fathers are seen as spiritual leaders and nurturers of their offspring. Father's Day serves as an opportunity to reflect upon the profound impact fathers have on their children's spiritual and moral development within the context of Catholicism.

First and foremost, fathers are instrumental in instilling a strong foundation of faith in their children. They often serve as role models of devotion, attending Mass regularly, praying, and actively participating in religious activities. By witnessing their father's commitment to Catholicism, children are more likely to develop a deep and lasting connection to their faith.

Furthermore, fathers play a pivotal role in teaching moral values and virtues in the Catholic tradition. They guide their children in understanding the importance of compassion, forgiveness, humility, and love. These values are not only essential for personal growth but also for building a strong Catholic community based on Christ's teachings.

Fathers also contribute to the formation of a child's conscience. Through their guidance, children learn to discern right from wrong, make ethical choices, and seek forgiveness when they wrong. This moral compass becomes an integral part of their Catholic identity, guiding them in their interactions with others and their relationship with God.

In the sacramental life of the Catholic Church, fathers often take on a significant role. They participate in the sacraments with their children, from baptism and reconciliation to confirmation and marriage. This involvement helps children understand the importance of these sacraments and fosters a sense of belonging to the Catholic community.

Moreover, fathers serve as protectors and providers for their families, reflecting the role of God as a loving Father in the Catholic faith. This image of God as a father figure helps children develop a sense of trust, security, and unconditional love within their faith journey.

In conclusion, fathers play a crucial and multifaceted role in the lives of their children, especially within the Catholic faith. They serve as spiritual leaders, moral guides, and providers of love and security. As we celebrate Father's Day, let us recognize and appreciate the vital role that fathers play in nurturing the faith and character of their children, ultimately strengthening the foundation of the Catholic community.

God bless all fathers

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for September

For people living on the margins.

We pray for those persons living on the margins of society, in inhumane life conditions; may they not be overlooked by institutions and never considered of lesser importance.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE DEATH OF BLD FRANCIS JORDAN

Fr Jordan's path to beatification began in 1943 when documentation of his life and works was sent to the Vatican.

John Baptist Jordan was born on 16 June 1848, in Gurtweil, Germany, a small town in the Black Forest area. He traveled throughout his homeland for work as a laborer and painter-decorator. In his travels, Jordan saw how government constraints on the Church – known as the Kulturkampf – discouraged people from practicing their faith. It only strengthened Jordan's faith, however, and on 21 July 1878, he was ordained to the priesthood in Freiburg, Germany. As Fr Jordan pondered how to combat the growing void in spirituality and religion, he sensed something more for his future. In September 1880, he met with Pope Leo XIII and outlined his vision to establish a society devoted to teaching of the faith. The Pope gave Jordan his blessing to proceed.

On 8 December 1881, Fr Jordan and two others professed private vows as members of the Apostolic Teaching Society. Soon, Therese Von Wüllenweber joined them. The new foundation grew in members and sent missionaries around the globe. Together with Fr Jordan, Therese would co-found the Sisters of the Divine Savior and lead the congregation as Mother Mary of the Apostles for 19 years.

For the times, Fr Jordan's vision was bold: men and women, religious and lay, working together as equals to bring the Gospel of the Savior to all people everywhere. Today, more than 2,000 priests, sisters, brothers and lay women and men carry out that mission in a variety of ministries on six continents. They are known as the three branches of the Salvatorian Family: the Society of the Divine Savior; the Sisters of the Divine Savior; and the International Community of the Divine Savior, or Lay Salvatorians.

Fr Francis Jordan died in Tafers, Switzerland on 8 September 1918, and was buried in the local church. In 1956, his body was moved to Rome and entombed in a special chapel in the Society Motherhouse. On 19 March 1999, Pope John Paul II visited there and prayed at Fr Jordan's tomb.

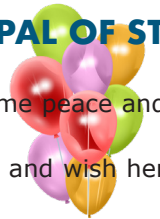

On 19 June 2020, Pope Francis declared the authenticity of a miracle through the intercession of Fr Jordan. It was the final step on his path to beatification, and on 15 May 2021, we will call him Blessed.

PILGRIM TESTIMONIALS ABOUT WYD

JOSH GOWER

World Youth Day was an absolutely blessing.

It was fantastic to travel across the world to Italy and Portugal with such an amazing, fun and unique group, such as those from our parish and the others from WA and SA. Being able to see such beautiful locations and connecting with my faith in such a way, was eye opening and has made me more excited to share the faith with those around me.

My favourite part was seeing people from all across the world come together to celebrate the one true faith, to be proud and happy for it, in both the people (such as the thousands of Aussies and the 1.5 million other Catholics around the world) and the locations it was great to walk around Fatima and Rome and seeing all the different shops with Rosary beads and even priest's liturgical vestments.

I just also want to say thank you to the amazing parish that not only helped me, but helped all of us to be able to go and experience the glorious trip we all went on. To those that helped out with the fundraisers, for the dinners and breakfast goers and for those who simply donated, it helped All of us immensely.

GEMMA FRENCH, YOUTH LEADER AND MUSIC MINISTRY

So many times, have I heard stories from both friends and family about the incredible encounters and life-changing events of those who have attended World Youth Day, but I truly believe nothing could have prepared me for the experience I was about to take on when agreeing to attend this year's WYD in Lisbon, Portugal.

Firstly, I have to say that I don't think I will ever be able to properly put into words the gratitude I have for the Salvatorian group of young Catholics from across Australia, who we were so abundantly blessed to travel alongside. My heart was so touched by each person's generous expression of kindness, encouragement and loving receptivity in our many deep and thought-provoking conversations along the journey, which in turn, truly opened my eyes to the way Our Lord can use His children as a channel from which His love flows.

As well as forming and growing in friendship with my fellow pilgrims, a few of my favourite personal encounters on this journey would have to be visiting the Basilica of Mary Major on our second day in Rome, where I knelt with Jaimi before the very cradle of Christ. I remember staring in awe at the beautifully adorned in gold and silver cradle and feeling the tears flow down my face, completely overwhelmed, as I never knew I would ever be so physically close to anything our Lord had touched before.

Another incredible encounter for me was at the night of the sleep-out in Lisbon, alongside 1.5 million other pilgrims, as we knelt before our Lord in adoration. I remember the peaceful yet profound silence, as I looked out across the field of millions of other Catholics, all fixated on the presence of Jesus before us. While I closed my eyes, I heard the words in my heart be repeated over and over, "Hold onto Me. Do not be afraid, just keep holding on."

I must include also our precious time in Fatima, where we joined thousands of other pilgrims in praying the rosary by candlelight and processing around the Sanctuary square. I will never forget the feeling of our Lady's tender, motherly love that immersed me, while we all walked together as her children, singing Ave Maria. At the end of the rosary, I remember staring for hours at the luminous glow, beaming from the Basilica of our Lady and thanking Mary for protecting us on our journey and leading us to her Son.

Finally, I want to express my utmost gratitude and love for St. Patrick's Parish, for so generously donating and supporting us in all our fundraising events in order to make this pilgrimage possible. Your abundant kindness and willingness to provide this experience for us, has blessed us more than you could ever imagine, and I could not be more thankful to be a part of such a beautiful community.

NATIONAL CHILD PROTECTION WEEK

3 – 9 SEPTEMBER 2023.

The National Child Protection Week will continue to champion the overarching message that 'Every child in every community needs a fair go.' This year, the message is complimented by a focus on "Where we start matters."

Where we start our lives in terms of where we live, the resources available to us, and the opportunities presented to us make a significant difference to our life outcomes. Of course, where we start isn't where we finish.

We are invited by the National Association for Prevention of Child Abuse and Neglect, to consider how we can support parents and communities and promote 'where we start matters' for children, young people, and their families, in ways that are relevant within our communities. To access further information and order the posters and promotional material, please visit

<https://www.napcan.org.au/child-protection-week-posters/>

TIPS FOR PARENTS

- Even when things appear to be going well, children's online behaviour still requires parental monitoring.
- Spend time online with your child - this can be a fun family activity.
- Try to locate the computer accessed by children in a visible place.
- Help your child to use the internet for research - teach them that online information is not always accurate
- Set rules - ensure your child knows what information they can access and share - set time limits.
- Teach your child not to respond to communication that makes them feel uncomfortable.
- Reassure your children that internet access will not be denied if they report something inappropriate.
- You have every right and responsibility to check electronic devices used by your children if you've been given cause to do so as
- You have an obligation to keep your home and your child safe.
- By taking away mobile phones at night, parents assist natural sleep processes to occur for their kids so they can get a decent night's rest.

TIPS FOR TEENS & KIDS

- Be careful when adding new "friends" online - they might not be who they say they are.
- THINK before posting online - once posted, it is impossible to totally remove.
- Never share passwords and always set your profile to 'private' so your personal information remains private.
- Check with your parents before you give anyone on the internet your personal details.
- Don't respond if someone sends you unkind or offensive messages or asks you to do something which makes you feel uncomfortable - instead, tell your parents or another adult that you trust.
- If you want to meet someone you only know online, take a parent with you and meet in a public place.
- Don't open messages from someone you don't know - they could contain viruses.
- Don't accept offers that seem too good to be true - they could be an attempt to trap you.
- If you need help, call KIDS HELPLINE 1800 551 800.
- If there is an immediate threat to your safety, call the police on 000.

ST PATRICK'S — YOUR PARISH

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF PSALM 85:3,5

Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long.

O Lord, you are good and forgiving, full of mercy to all who call to you.

FIRST READING

JEREMIAH 20:7-9

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah
The word of the Lord God has meant derision for me.

You have seduced me, Lord, and I have let myself be seduced; you have overpowered me: you were the stronger.

I am a daily laughing-stock, everybody's butt.

Each time I speak the word, I have to howl and proclaim: 'Violence and ruin!'

The word of the Lord has meant for me insult, derision, all day long.

I used to say, I will not think about him, I will not speak in his name any more.

Then there seemed to be a fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones.

The effort to restrain it wearied me, I could not bear it.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 62:2-6. 8-9. R. V.2

(R.) My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

1. O God, you are my God, for you I long; for you my soul is thirsting.

My body pines for you like a dry, weary land without water.

(R.) My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

2. So I gaze on you in the sanctuary to see your strength and your glory.

For your love is better than life, my lips will speak your praise.

(R.) My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

3. So I will bless you all my life, in your name I will lift up my hands.

My soul shall be filled as with a banquet, my mouth shall praise you with joy.

(R.) My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

4. For you have been my help; in the shadow of your wings I rejoice.

My soul clings to you; your right hand holds me fast.

(R.) My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

SECOND READING

ROMANS 12:1-2

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

May you present your bodies as a living sacrifice.

Think of God's mercy, my brothers, and worship him, I beg you, in a way that is worthy of thinking beings, by offering your living bodies as a holy sacrifice, truly pleasing to God. Do not model yourselves on the behaviour of the world around you, but let your behaviour change, modelled by your new mind. This is the only way to discover the will of God and know what is good, what it is that God wants, what is the perfect thing to do.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

SEE EPHESIANS 1:17-18

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart, that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MATTHEW 16:21-27

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself.

Jesus began to make it clear to his disciples that he was destined to go to Jerusalem and suffer grievously at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, to be put to death and to be raised up on the third day. Then, taking him aside, Peter started to remonstrate with him. 'Heaven preserve you, Lord,' he said. 'This must not happen to you.' But he turned and said to Peter, 'Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle in my path, because the way you think is not God's way but man's.'

Then Jesus said to his disciples, 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me. For anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it. What, then, will a man gain if he wins the whole world and ruins his life? Or what has a man to offer in exchange for his life?'

'For the Son of Man is going to come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and, when he does, he will reward each one according to his behaviour.'

CONDOLENCES:

Sincere condolences to those who have recently lost loved ones. May the Lord keep them in his loving arms.

Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights.

-James 1:17t
