SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

The oracle of salvation read today includes calls to worship and conversion. After Isaiah exhorts his hearers to call upon the Lord, he calls them to forsake sin and to return to the Lord. 'Return' implies that the sinners were once in relationship with God. This call is an imperative. There is a pattern of sin here, not merely isolated offenses. The people chose a way of life that took them away from the God with whom they were in covenant. This is nothing short of total betrayal. Though the difference between the thoughts and plans of God and those of the wicked are as vast as the expanse between the heavens and the earth, the prophet insists that God will be compassionate.

The responsorial psalm is a hymn of praise of the greatness of God. The psalmist first celebrates this greatness, which is beyond human understanding. In the second section, the covenant characteristics of divine mercy and compassion are extolled. Mercy and compassion, along with truth, are the source of God's provident care and the firm foundation upon which one can trust. In order to experience the benefits of the covenant, one must call upon God who is always there to hear. In the third section, the psalmist describes God's universal and everlasting reign, which now has been expanded to include all people and nations, and also all of natural creation.

Paul weighs the religious and ministerial advantages of both living and dying. For him, living in, and with, and for Christ is uppermost in his mind. He believes that neither life nor death can separate him from Christ (see Rom 8:39). Still, there are advantages in both living and dying. Continued life will give him opportunities for strengthening this union, and death will allow him to become fully united with Christ even though it will probably be disadvantageous for others. Although today's reading does not indicate if or how his dilemma was resolved, the final verse suggests that Paul was willing to postpone the joyful union with Christ for which he yearned in favour of commitment to the service of others.

Today's gospel reading is particularly startling. It shows how the graciousness of God can be easily mistaken for injustice. On the one hand, it does not seem fair to pay all of the labourers the same wage regardless of the amount of time they worked. On the other hand, they all received exactly the amount for which they had contracted. Therefore, there was no injustice. In the owner's payment we find the shift in perspective that we have come to expect in Jesus' parables. He demonstrates the eschatological reversal: the last shall be first. The real paradox is seen in his generosity, which supersedes his justice. It is clear that justice and grace do not always fit well together. This parable shows that the reign of God is based on the latter, not the former. © Dianne Bergant CSA

"He went out to the vineyard moved by regret."

We Pray for the Catholic Church, Pope Francis, Cardinals, Bishops and especially Bishop Anthony Randazzo and Chancellor Kelly Paget from Broken Bay as they begin the Synodal Process, this weekend in Rome.

Prayer for the Synod

As we embrace this Synodal Process, this prayer invites the Holy Spirit to be at work in us so that we may be a community and a people of grace.

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity
so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son,
forever and ever.

Amen.

This prayer can be used throughout the duration of the Synodal Process from October 2021-2023.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for October

For The Synod. For the Synod We pray for the Church, that she may adopt listening and dialogue as a lifestyle at every level, and allow herself to be guided by the Holy Spirit towards the peripheries of the world.

OCTOBER, MONTH OF THE ROSARY

October is designated by the Catholic Church as the "Month of the Rosary" because in this month the Church celebrates the Marian advocacy of "Our Lady of the Rosary" on Oct. 7.

The feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, also celebrated as Our Lady of Victory or Victories, was established by Pope

St. Pius V in 1571 to celebrate the miraculous victory of the Christian forces in the Battle of Lepanto on Oct. 7 of that year. Previous to the decisive battle, St. Pius V had requested all Western Christians to pray the rosary; thus he attributed the victory to the power of the Marian prayer.

ROSARIES BEFORE WEEKEND MASSES

DURING OCTOBER

At St Patrick's church we will be saying the Rosary 20 minutes before every weekend Mass. [Saturday 4:40pm, Sunday 7:10 am, 9:10 am and 5:40 pm]

ON FRIDAY OCTOBER 13 FATIMA - MIRACLE OF THE SUN:

When ten-year-old Lúcia dos Santos prophesied in 1917 that the Virgin Mary would visit Earth, she could never have imagined the crowds who would flock to see.

Thousands gathered in Portugal in October 1917 to witness the Miracle of the Sun.

"The Sun's disc did not remain immobile. This was not the sparkling of a heavenly body, for it spun round on itself in a mad whirl, when suddenly a clamour was heard from all the people. The Sun, whirling, seemed to loosen itself from the firmament and advance threateningly upon the Earth as if to crush us with its huge fiery weight. The sensation during those moments was terrible."

This was just one of the many eyewitness accounts of apparent extreme solar activity near the town of Fátima in Portugal just after midday on 13 October 1917. Similar reports were abundant – of the Sun spinning off its axis while giving off light of extraordinary colours. Another witness described the Sun resembling "the most magnificent firewheel that could be imagined, taking on all the colours of the rainbow and sending forth multicolored flashes of light." The spectacle lasted for around ten minutes before the Sun returned to its natural state.

CatholicCare

Dear Fr Grzegorz and the parishioners of Gosford Parish,

Thank you for supporting CatholicCare's Homelessness Week Fundraiser

I would like to express my sincere thanks for supporting CatholicCare's Homelessness Week fundraiser in August.

Your parish raised a total of $2,335.60, which will allow us to continue supporting some of the most vulnerable people in our Diocese. We have now processed your donations and have issued receipts where requested.

We provide a women's refuge, transitional accommodation options, young parent's homelessness services and street sleeping outreach supports. We also operate Dom's Place in Hornsby and Mary Mac's in Woy Woy where people who are homeless or transient can connect with others over a meal and access pathways to homelessness support services and health assistance.

We are incredibly thankful for the support of your Parish. Without your generosity CatholicCare would need to turn many people away.

Yours in Christ,

Tim Curran
Executive Director

"Why are you jealous because I am generous?"

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

DANIEL 3:31,29,30,43,42

All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments.

But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

FIRST READING

EZEKIEL 18:25-28

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel
The sinner who decides to turn against sinfulness deserves to live.

The word of the Lord was addressed to me as follows: "You object, "What the Lord does is unjust." Listen, you House of Israel: is what I do unjust? Is it not what you do that is unjust? When the upright man renounces his integrity to commit sin and dies because of this, he dies because of the evil that he himself has committed. When the sinner renounces sin to become law-abiding and honest, he deserves to live. He has chosen to renounce all his previous sins; he shall certainly live; he shall not die."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 24:4-9. R. V.6

(R.) Remember your mercies, O Lord.

1. Lord, make me know your ways.
Lord, teach me your paths.
Make me walk in your truth, and teach me: for you are God my saviour.

(R.) Remember your mercies, O Lord.

2. Remember your mercy, Lord, and the love you have shown from of old.
Do not remember the sins of my youth.
In your love remember me, because of your goodness, O Lord.

(R.) Remember your mercies, O Lord.

3. The Lord is good and upright.
He shows the path to those who stray, he guides the humble in the right path; he teaches his way to the poor.

(R.) Remember your mercies, O Lord.

SECOND READING

PHILIPPIANS 2:1-5

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus.

If our life in Christ means anything to you, if love can persuade at all, or the Spirit that we have in common, or any tenderness and sympathy, then be united in your convictions and united in your love, with a common purpose and a common mind. That is the one thing which would make me completely happy. There must be no competition among you, no conceit; but everybody is to be self-effacing. Always consider the other person to be better than yourself so that nobody thinks of his own interests first but everybody thinks of other people's interests instead. In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JOHN 10:27

Alleluia, alleluia!

My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MATTHEW 21:28-32

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

He went out moved by regret. The tax collectors and prostitutes will precede you into the kingdom of God.

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, "What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He went and said to the first, "My boy, you go and work in the vineyard today." He answered, "I will not go," but afterwards thought better of it and went. The man then went and said the same thing to the second who answered, "Certainly, sir," but did not go. Which of the two did the father's will?" "The first" they said. Jesus said to them, "I tell you solemnly, tax collectors and prostitutes are making their way into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you, a pattern of true righteousness, but you did not believe him, and yet the tax collectors and prostitutes did. Even after seeing that, you refused to think better of it and believe in him."

COMMUNION ANTIPHON
