COURAGE

WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY ON JULY 28

Pope Francis has chosen a line from Psalm 71 -- "Do not cast me off in my old age" -- as the theme for the 2024 celebration of the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly.

In a note announcing the theme for the day, which will be celebrated July 28, the Vatican said the choice was "meant to call attention to the fact that, sadly, loneliness is the bitter lot in life of many elderly persons, so often the victims of the throwaway culture."

Pope Francis celebrated the first World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly in 2021 and decreed that it be observed each year on the Sunday closest to the feast of Sts. Joachim and Anne, Jesus' grandparents.

As the Catholic Church prepares for the Holy Year 2025, Pope Francis has asked Catholics to focus on prayer, which is why he chose the prayer of an elderly person from the Psalms for the theme, the Vatican said in a statement released Feb. 15.

"By cherishing the charisms of grandparents and the elderly, and the contribution they make to the life of the Church, the World Day seeks to support the efforts of every ecclesial community to forge bonds between the generations and to combat loneliness," the statement said.

Cardinal Kevin J. Farrell, prefect of the Dicastery for Laity, the Family and Life, said the theme is a reminder "that, unfortunately, loneliness is a widespread reality, which afflicts many elderly people, often victims of the throwaway culture and considered a burden to society."

Families and parishes, he said, "are called to be at the forefront in promoting a culture of encounter, to create spaces for sharing, listening, to offer support and affection: thus, the love of Gospel becomes concrete."

"Our communities, with their tenderness and affectionate attention that does not forget its most fragile members, are called to manifest the love of God, who never abandons anyone," the cardinal said.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention

JULY

For The Pastoral Care of The Sick

Let us pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, bestows the Lord's strength to those who receive it and to their loved ones, and that it may become for everyone an ever more visible sign of compassion and hope.

"HE DISTRIBUTED TO THOSE WHO WERE SEATED AS MUCH AS THEY WANTED."

OUR FRIDAY HOSPITAL MINISTRY TEAM

Firstly we would like to sincerely thank Coleen Martin, upon her retirement, for 27 years dedicated to visiting Catholic patients at Gosford Hospital. This is an outstanding commitment and we truly thank Coleen for her stewardship. We would also like to thank Eileen Arndt and Cheryl Walsh who have taken up the challenge of being shared Friday Hospital coordinators, thereby releasing long standing coord, Theresa Giddings, who is looking forward to her retirement in the near future.

Of course, if there is anyone who'd like to fill the visitor gap following Coleen's retirement, please contact the Parish office.

HOMELESSNESS WEEK COLLECTION

On the weekend of 10th-11 August, our parish will have a special collection in support of the diocesan CatholicCare homeless services. CatholicCare provides a number of services to support people who are homeless or transient, including a women's refuge, transitional accommodation options, young parents homelessness services and street sleeping outreach supports. We also operate Dom's Place in Hornsby and Mary Mac's Place in Woy Woy where we provide meals, a place to shower and wash clothes, and somewhere for people who are homeless or transient to come and connect with supports and community. Your donations on this weekend would be greatly appreciated.

YOUR PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES ARE AVAILABLE AT THE FOYER

Subscribing to our planned giving program - which is another way of saying that you commit to supporting our 2nd Collection that covers the payment of all operating expenses for the church, which are numerous, and the support of our priests, via popping your donation into an allocated envelope when at Mass that is connected to your name. It is our preferred method of giving simply because it assists us in setting our budgets. Or, the same thing can be achieved by a monthly credit or debit card deduction we could arrange together. Donations are not tax deductible but we would be happy to include a monthly PWBB envelope into your packet as donations to that fund are 100% tax deductible. Please contact the office, or complete and submit the tear off available in this Bulletin, and we'll be in touch. For those already enrolled in the program, your envelopes are available today, and we sincerely thank you for your support.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Cf PSALM 67:6-7,36

God is in his holy place, God who unites those who dwell in his house; he himself gives might and strength to his people.

FIRST READING

2 KINGS 4:42-44

A reading from the second book of the Kings

A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing Elisha, the man of God, bread from the first-fruits, twenty barley loaves and fresh grain in the ear. ‘Give it to the people to eat,’ Elisha said. But his servant replied, ‘How can I serve this to a hundred men?’ ‘Give it to the people to eat,’ he insisted ‘for the Lord says this, “They will eat and have some left over.”’ He served them; they ate and had some over, as the Lord had said.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 144:10-11, 15-18. R. v.16

(R.) The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

1. All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing.

They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God.

(R.) The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

2. The eyes of all creatures look to you and you give them their food in due time.

You open wide your hand, grant the desires of all who live.

(R.) The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

3. The Lord is just in all his ways and loving in all his deeds.

He is close to all who call him, who call on him from their hearts.

(R.) The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

SECOND READING

EPHESIANS 4:1-6

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

I, the prisoner in the Lord, implore you to lead a life worthy of your vocation. Bear with one another charitably, in complete selflessness, gentleness and patience. Do all you can to preserve the unity of the Spirit by the peace that binds you together. There is one Body, one Spirit, just as you were all called into one and the same hope when you were called. There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism, and one God who is Father of all, through all and within all.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

LUKE 7:16

Alleluia, alleluia!

A great prophet has appeared among us; God has visited his people.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JOHN 6:1-15

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

He distributed to those who were seated as much as they wanted.

Jesus went off to the other side of the Sea of Galilee – or of Tiberias – and a large crowd followed him, impressed by the signs he gave by curing the sick. Jesus climbed the hillside, and sat down there with his disciples. It was shortly before the Jewish feast of Passover.

Looking up, Jesus saw the crowds approaching and said to Philip, ‘Where can we buy some bread for these people to eat?’ He only said this to test Philip; he himself knew exactly what he was going to do. Philip answered, ‘Two hundred denarii would only buy enough to give them a small piece each.’ One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, said, ‘There is a small boy here with five barley loaves and two fish; but what is that between so many?’ Jesus said to them, ‘Make the people sit down.’ There was plenty of grass there, and as many as five thousand men sat down. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks and gave them out to all who were sitting ready; he then did the same with the fish, giving out as much as was wanted. When they had eaten enough he said to the disciples, ‘Pick up the pieces left over, so that nothing gets wasted.’ So they picked them up, and filled twelve hampers with scraps left over from the meal of five barley loaves. The people, seeing this sign that he had given, said, ‘This really is the prophet who is to come into the world.’ Jesus, who could see they were about to come and take him by force and make him king, escaped back to the hills by himself.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

PSALM 102:2

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and never forget all his benefits.

ELDER ABUSE AWARENESS

World Elder Abuse Day was on 15 June 2024, and was a day for communities to come together to raise awareness about the abuse, neglect, and exploitation that older person’s face. Although the date has passed this does not mean that we cannot continue to be active in advocating for awareness and promoting this in parishes. In addition to the resources developed by CatholicCare Broken Bay, there has also been the below resource developed by Legal Aid that can be displayed at parishes to build awareness and provide contact information for supports.

The above and addition information and resources can be accessed on the Safeguarding Microsite through the following link Adults at Risk & General Resources – Catholic Diocese of Broken Bay \(dbbsafeguarding.com.au\)
