FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION REFLECTION

BY FR GREG

The Assumption of Our Lady, celebrated on August 15th, is a significant feast in the Catholic Church, honouring the belief that Mary, the mother of Jesus, was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory at the end of her earthly life. This doctrine, proclaimed dogmatically by Pope Pius XII in 1950, reflects the deep veneration of Mary as the Mother of God and the first and most perfect disciple of Christ.

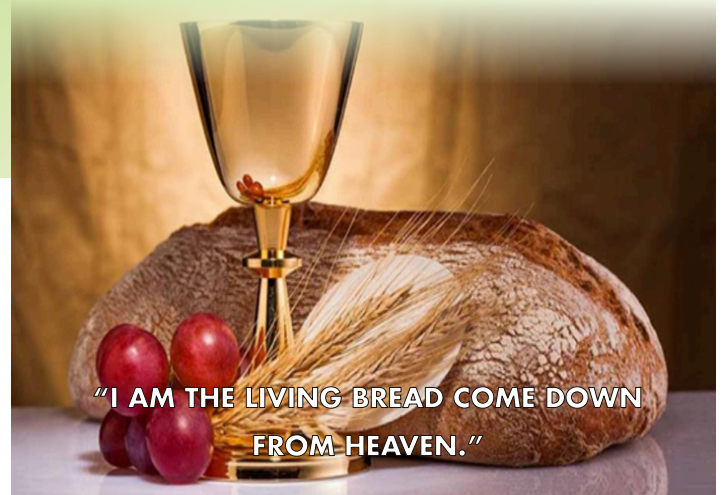

In the Assumption, we see the fulfilment of Mary's unique role in salvation history. Chosen by God to bear His Son, Mary responded with total faith and obedience, becoming the new Eve whose "yes" brought life and salvation into the world. Her Assumption is a testament to her sinless nature, preserved from original sin from the moment of her conception, and her life of perfect fidelity to God's will.

This feast also points to the destiny that awaits all faithful Christians. In Mary, we see a glimpse of our own future resurrection and glorification. The Assumption reminds us that our ultimate home is not in this world but in the eternal presence of God. It is a call to live our lives with an eternal perspective, focusing not on the temporary trials and tribulations of this life but on the everlasting joy and peace that God promises.

Furthermore, the Assumption underscores the dignity of the human body. In a world that often devalues the body, treating it merely as a tool for pleasure or productivity, Mary's Assumption affirms the sacredness of the body. Her being taken up into heaven body and soul signifies that our bodies, too, are destined for glory. This has profound implications for how we view and treat our bodies and the bodies of others, calling us to respect and honour them as temples of the Holy Spirit.

As we reflect on the Assumption, we are invited to deepen our devotion to Mary, seeking her intercession and following her example of faith, humility, and obedience. Mary, assumed into heaven, continues to be our mother and advocate, guiding us towards her Son and the fullness of life in Him.

Let us, therefore, celebrate this feast with joy and gratitude, honouring Our Lady's Assumption and renewing our commitment to live as faithful disciples of Christ, with our eyes fixed on the heavenly glory that awaits us. Mary, Queen assumed into heaven, pray for us!

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention

AUGUST

For Political Leaders

Let us pray that political leaders be at the service of their own people, working for integral human development and the common good, taking care of those who have lost their jobs and giving priority to the poor.

FR. Francis Jordan

Know you are completely consecrated to God! He alone has the right to claim your faculties. Thus you may only desire something if, or because God desires it. In all you do, never ask: do I want this? Ask instead: is this what God wants or not?

ASSUMPTION OF OUR LADY

HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION

Aside from every Sunday of the year, there are two "Holy Days of Obligation" in Australia. These are Christmas Day (25 December) and the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (15 August). These two holy days are to be observed each year, regardless of the day of the week on which they fall.

Mass Times are as follows:

Thursday, August 15 -

9:00am Parish Mass | 11:00am School Mass | 2:00pm High Schools' Mass @ St Edward's College | 7:00 pm Parish Mass.

JOSEPH HOUSE YOUNG ADULTS EVENT

WALK LIKE JOSEPH PILGRIMAGE

Join us on 17 August for "Walk Like Joseph," a young adults pilgrimage on the Central Coast to celebrate our shared Catholic faith. Starting with Mass at 9:00 AM at St John the Baptist Church in Woy Woy, followed by a BBQ breakfast, we will walk a scenic route along Brisbane Waters, with time for conversation and prayer.

Bring a backpack and packed lunch for our rest stop, and we will end at St Patrick's Church in East Gosford to visit the Shrine and relic of St John Paul II, for Divine Mercy prayers and afternoon tea.

All young adults (18-35) are welcome, and the Gosford Parish bus will return drivers to Woy Woy after tea (limited seats available).

CATHOLIC CARE APPEAL FOR THE HOMELESS

THIS WEEKEND, AUGUST 10/11

Marking Homelessness Week [5/8] and the Feast Day of St Mary of the Cross Mackillop [8/8], CatholicCare, Diocese of Broken Bay, has provided special envelopes for the appeal next week, in which to place your donation to assist in their work with the homeless. Donations are tax deductible. CatholicCare provides a number of services to support people who are homeless or transient, including a women's refuge, transitional accommodation options, young parents homelessness services and street sleeping outreach supports. We also operate Dom's Place in Hornsby and Mary Mac's Place in Woy Woy where we provide meals, a place to shower and wash clothes, and somewhere for people who are homeless or transient to come and connect with supports and community. Your donations on this weekend would be greatly appreciated.

- Raise awareness of the plight of people who are without a home and numbers involved
  - Life expectancy for people who are homeless is about 30 years less than general population
  - 140 people died in NSW whilst homeless last year
  - Clear link between homelessness and mental illness. People with chronic mental illness can not maintain or deal with their own home without a great deal of support.
- Mind Australia in Victoria is meeting these needs by providing, so far, about thirteen "Havens" of 16 self-contained units with 24/7 and NDIS support. More are to follow.
- Mind Australia and The Haven Foundation are bringing their expertise from Victoria to build housing-with-care on behalf of "HOME on the Central Coast" (an initiative started 13 years ago) for people with chronic mental illness, with NSW Government funding. This will house 16 people; so many more such caring developments will be needed.
  - Please visit the Mind Australia website www.mindaustralia.org.au to see what has been achieved in Victoria and what is planned for NSW.
  - If you are keen to offer your support, please phone or text Joscelyn (0401 064 474) or Neil (0431 211 430).

HOUSING FOR PEOPLE WITH ENDURING MENTAL ILLNESS

During National Homelessness Week, the committee of the registered charity HOME on the Central Coast, established 12 years ago, would like to give an update and also say thanks for your previous support for this incorporated association. Its aim is to provide social housing-with-care for vulnerable people with chronic mental illness. This is a community organisation in which some parishioners have become involved. It's a sad fact that in NSW at least 140 people die each year while homeless, and about 80% would have an untreated mental illness, and die without any care and in isolation.

We are pleased that Mind Australia, based in Victoria, and its subsidiary The Haven Foundation are coming to NSW on behalf of HOME on the Central Coast. The NSW Government has allocated $20 million to build three "Haven" social housing projects, the first to be on the Central Coast. Ten "Haven" projects for up to 16 residents, with communal facilities and 24-hour care, have already been built in Victoria, with 14 more to follow soon. Residents express their appreciation on the Mind Australia website. Kindly pray for the local project, especially that suitable land will soon be found. HOME on the Central Coast committee will take on the role of advocacy and fund raising for all needed extras, and be a support to families of residents.

Write to Jos or Neil Murphy at info@homecentralcoast.com.au For information see Mind Australia's website and key in NSW.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Cf PSALM 73:20,19,22,23

Look to your covenant, O Lord, and forget not the life of your poor ones for ever.

Arise, O God, and defend your cause, and forget not the cries of those who seek you.

FIRST READING

1 KINGS 19:4-8

A reading from the first book of Kings

Elijah went into the wilderness, a day's journey, and sitting under a furze bush wished he were dead. 'Lord', he said 'I have had enough. Take my life: I am no better than my ancestors.' Then he lay down and went to sleep. But an angel touched him and said, 'Get up and eat.' He looked round, and there at his head was a scone baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again. But the angel of the Lord came back a second time and touched him and said, 'Get up and eat, or the journey will be too long for you.' So he got up and ate and drank, and strengthened by that food he walked for forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 33:2-9. R. v.9

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.

The humble shall hear and be glad.

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

2. Glorify the Lord with me.

Together let us praise his name.

I sought the Lord and he answered me; from all my terrors he set me free.

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

3. Look towards him and be radiant; let your faces not be abashed.

This poor man called; the Lord heard him and rescued him from all his distress.

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

4. The angel of the Lord is encamped around those who revere him, to rescue them.

Taste and see that the Lord is good.

He is happy who seeks refuge in him.

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

SECOND READING

EPHESIANS 4:30 – 5:2

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God who has marked you with his seal for you to be set free when the day comes. Never have grudges against others, or lose your temper, or raise your voice to anybody, or call each other names, or allow any sort of spitefulness. Be friends with one another, and kind, forgiving each other as readily as God forgave you in Christ.

Try, then, to imitate God, as children of his that he loves, and follow Christ by loving as he loved you, giving himself up in our place as a fragrant offering and a sacrifice to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JOHN 6:51

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JOHN 6:41-51

A reading from the gospel according to John.

The Jews were complaining to each other about Jesus, because he had said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' 'Surely this is Jesus son of Joseph' they said. 'We know his father and mother. How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?' Jesus said in reply, 'Stop complaining to each other.

'No one can come to me unless he is drawn by the Father who sent me, and I will raise him up at the last day.

It is written in the prophets:

They will all be taught by God, and to hear the teaching of the Father, and learn from it, is to come to me.

Not that anybody has seen the Father, except the one who comes from God:

he has seen the Father.

I tell you most solemnly, everybody who believes has eternal life.

I am the bread of life.

Your fathers ate the manna in the desert and they are dead; but this is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that a man may eat it and not die.

I am the living bread which has come down from heaven.

Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

PSALM 147:12,14

O Jerusalem, glorify the Lord, who gives you your fill of finest wheat.
