ST CHARBEL'S CHURCH IN SYDNEY!

St Charbel was born into a poor Catholic Maronite family on 8 May 1828, in the mountain village of Bekaa Kafra in North Lebanon. Given the name Youssef, he was the youngest of five children.

His father Antoun died when Charbel was only three years old. His mother Brigitta was a very religious woman of strong character, known for her daily fasting and praying the rosary. She engaged in silk weaving to support the family.

Two years after Antoun's death she married Deacon Lahoud and had two more children by him. The children were used to prayer, fasting and attending Mass every day.

Youssef had two maternal uncles who were hermits in the Maronite Monastery of St Antonios in Kozhaya. He would walk for four hours to visit them and receive their guidance, very impressed by their holiness.

When he often commented that he wanted to become a monk, his mother and uncle Tannous, who was his guardian, were opposed and tried to change his mind. Tannous wanted him to continue working with him and his mother wanted him to marry a young woman who loved him

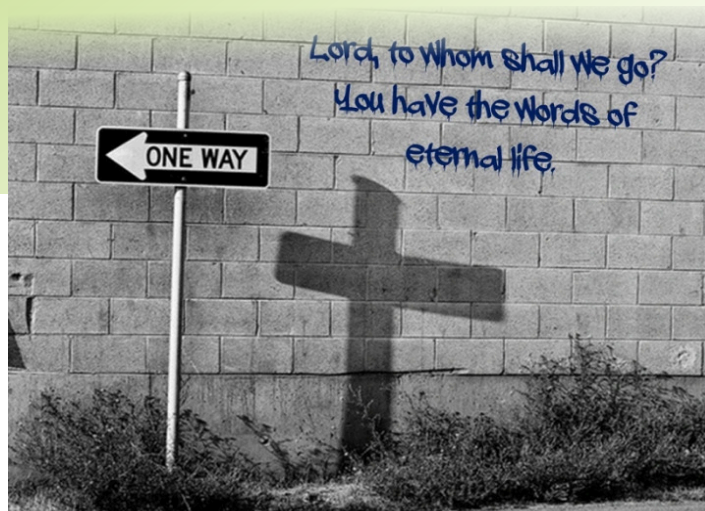

Nonetheless, in 1851, when he was 23, Youssef left home without telling anyone and walked to the Monastery of Our Lady of Mayfouk on Mount Lebanon to become a monk. There he took the religious name Charbel, a second-century martyr of the Antiochian Church. Br Charbel was transferred to the monastery of St Maroun in Annaya, on Mount Lebanon, to further his studies, and in 1853 he was accepted as a monk and took his vows.

For his studies of philosophy and theology, he was sent to the most important school of theology in Lebanon, the monastery of St Cyprian and St Justina in Kfifan.

He was there from 1853 to 1859, studying under two exceptional monks, Namatallah Al-Kafri and St Namatallah Al-Hardini, who was canonised by St John Paul II in 2004. Br Charbel was ordained a priest in 1859.

Back in the monastery of St Maroun, he performed his priestly and monastic duties in an edifying way. He once said to his superior, "If you judge me worthy, give me the heaviest and most humiliating work."

His work consisted mainly in tilling, planting and harvesting the crops of the monastery's land. Such was his desire for solitude that in 1875 he was given permission to live as a hermit in the hermitage of St Peter and St Paul near the monastery.

He remained there for the last 23 years of his life, practising severe mortification, including wearing a hair shirt, chaining himself, sleeping on the hard ground with a piece of wood covered by an old cloth for a pillow, and, for his one meal, eating the leftovers from the monks in the monastery.

He suffered a stroke on 16 December 1898 and died eight days later, on Christmas Eve, at the age of 68. On Christmas day his body was carried down through the snow to the church of the monastery.

Early the next day, following the custom of the Order, his body was buried in a large pit along with the remains of other monks, without a casket and dressed only in his habit, with a cross in his hands. Water was dripping into the pit and mud covered the floor.

Four months later the tomb was opened and St Charbel's body was found to be completely intact, with a blood-like substance oozing from it. This continued for 67 years.

As recently as 1975, medical experts were unable to give any medical explanation for the incorruptibility and flexibility of his body. Hundreds of thousands of cures and other favours all over the world have been attributed to his intercession.

St Charbel was canonised by Pope St Paul VI in 1977.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention

AUGUST

For Political Leaders

Let us pray that political leaders be at the service of their own people, working for integral human development and the common good, taking care of those who have lost their jobs and giving priority to the poor.

FR. Francis Jordan

In You, Lord, I have hoped, I will not be confounded forever. I am ready for everything, Lord help me. With a loud voice I cry our to You, Lord hear me!

BAPTISM PRESENTATIONS

Our parish welcomes the families of Kora & Louise Rodgers, Ruby Ava Anderson, Luke Stephen Anthony Boothman, Ayla Josephine Victoriana Galolo, Addison Maria Chetcuti, Luca Sant & Penelope Mary Pollard, who will be presented for Baptism at the 9:30am Mass this Sunday!

TODAY IS SOCIAL JUSTICE SUNDAY!

In the 2024 – 2025 Social Justice Statement, "Truth and Peace: A Gospel Word in a Violent World", Australia's Bishops scrutinise the signs of our own troubled times, observe the violence around us, and ask why it is so. They also ask what is needed if there is to be peace.

To download the link to the full Social Justice statement, please follow the qr code, or if you would like a hard copy, please contact the parish office.

TAIZE EVENING @ ST PATRICK'S SUNDAY, AUGUST 25 @ 7PM

Taizé is a simple, meditative form of worship, calling us to dwell deeply on Christ's presence around and within us. Mantra songs, prayerful silence, and short readings guide the focus of the prayer in a candle-lit environment.

St Patrick's youth will be leading this Taizé service, on August 25, following the 6pm Youth Mass, and all are invited.

WE THANK OUR VOLUNTEER HELPERS

We would like to thank Katrina Pratt who last week used her carpet cleaning equipment to give our carpets a freshen up. We thank Paul Hussein for his assistance with work undertaken in the sacristy, as well as Chris Galea for his plumbing skills, Paul Galea for his painting skills, and Monica Chechelska for her gardening skills at the JPII Centre; all volunteering their time in stewardship of their parish. We are very grateful!

PILGRIMAGE TO ST CHARBEL'S, PUNCHBOWL

THURSDAY, AUGUST 29

Interest in this pilgrimage is such that we had to organise another bus and therefore we have to ask those who have placed their name on the list to advise ASAP if their circumstances have changed and they are unable to make it. Could all passengers please pay the $25 fare to the Parish Office prior to August 29. Thank you.

COLLECTION FOR THE HOMELESS

Thank you to all who generously donated to the collection for CatholicCare's service for the homeless last fortnight. We raised a total of $3,812!

DIOCESE OF BROKEN BAY

“LORD, TO WHOM SHALL WE GO? YOU HAVE THE WORDS OF ETERNAL LIFE.”

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Cf PSALM 85:1-3

Turn your ear, O Lord, and answer me; save the servant who trusts in you, my God.

Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long.

FIRST READING

JOSHUA 24:1-2. 15-18

A reading from the book of Joshua

Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel together at Shechem; then he called the elders, leaders, judges and scribes of Israel, and they presented themselves before God. Then Joshua said to all the people: ‘If you will not serve the Lord, choose today whom you wish to serve, whether the gods that your ancestors served beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are now living. As for me and my House, we will serve the Lord.’

The people answered, ‘We have no intention of deserting the Lord and serving other gods! Was it not the Lord our God who brought us and our ancestors out of the land of Egypt, the house of slavery, who worked those great wonders before our eyes and preserved us all along the way we travelled and among all the peoples through whom we journeyed. We too will serve the Lord, for he is our God.’

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 33:2-3. 16-23. R. v.9

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.

The humble shall hear and be glad.

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

2. The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth.

The Lord turns his eyes to the just and his ears to their appeal.

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

3. They call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress.

The Lord is close to the broken-hearted; those whose spirit is crushed he will save.

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

4. Many are the trials of the just man but from them all the Lord will rescue him.

He will keep guard over all his bones, not one of his bones shall be broken.

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

5. Evil brings death to the wicked; those who hate the good are doomed.

The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants.

Those who hide in him shall not be condemned.

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

SECOND READING

EPHESIANS 5:21-32

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

Give way to one another in obedience to Christ. Wives should regard their husbands as they regard the Lord, since as Christ is head of the Church and saves the whole body, so is a husband the head of his wife; and as the Church submits to Christ, so should wives to their husbands, in everything. Husbands should love their wives just as Christ loved the Church and sacrificed himself for her to make her holy. He made her clean by washing her in water with a form of words, so that when he took her to himself she would be glorious, with no speck or wrinkle or anything like that, but holy and faultless. In the same way, husbands must love their wives as they love their own bodies; for a man to love his wife is for him to love himself. A man never hates his own body, but he feeds it and looks after it; and that is the way Christ treats the Church, because it is his body – and we are its living parts. For this reason, a man must leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one body. This mystery has many implications; but I am saying it applies to Christ and the Church.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

SEE JOHN 6:63. 68

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your words, Lord, are spirit and life: you have the words of everlasting life.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JOHN 6:60-69

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

After hearing his doctrine many of the followers of Jesus said, ‘This is intolerable language. How could anyone accept it?’ Jesus was aware that his followers were complaining about it and said, ‘Does this upset you? What if you should see the Son of Man ascend to where he was before?’

‘It is the spirit that gives life, the flesh has nothing to offer.

The words I have spoken to you are spirit and they are life.

‘But there are some of you who do not believe.’ For Jesus knew from the outset those who did not believe, and who it was that would betray him. He went on, ‘This is why I told you that no one could come to me unless the Father allows him.’ After this, many of his disciples left him and stopped going with him.

Then Jesus said to the Twelve, ‘What about you, do you want to go away too?’ Simon Peter answered, ‘Lord, who shall we go to? You have the message of eternal life, and we believe; we know that you are the Holy One of God.’

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Cf PSALM 103:13-15

The earth is replete with the fruits of your work, O Lord; you bring forth bread from the earth and wine to cheer the heart..

SAFEGUARDING

NATIONAL CHILD PROTECTION WEEK

This year National Child Protection Week commences on the first Sunday in September, being between 1-7 September 2024. This year’s powerful message is ‘Every child in every community needs a fair go’ which is complemented by the theme ‘Every conversation matters’. This event aims to engage, educate and empower all Australians with regards to both understanding child abuse and neglect and working together as a community to safeguard our children by implementing preventive measures.
