NEW TESTAMENT COMMENTARY

BY MARY COLOE PBVM

"Us and Them"

James 5:1-6; Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

In today's Gospel it is John, not Peter who is the spokesperson for the disciples and he raises an objection to others working in Jesus' name but who are not one of the 'in' crowd - 'he was not one of us'. John here voices the tragic judgement that people often make about those who are different from themselves. Instead of focusing on what they share in common - able to cast out demons, working in the name of Jesus - John measures this other person's activity solely in terms of his belonging within the discipleship group or not. Does he have the same Galilean accent; does he recognise the importance of the inner group of disciples; has he followed Jesus from the beginning, or is he a later arrival? Jesus' reply points out that the disciples have no monopoly on Jesus' name. The ability to work miracles is not something the disciples have a franchise on. God is able to work outside their select group.

As I write this, I am conscious of a recent decision taken by the Australian government to process people seeing asylum here, in another country, Nauru. Many Christian Church leaders have spoken out against this policy. This seems to me to be an example of failing to see in these people, the same human needs, and desires that we share - freedom from fear of oppression and death, the possibility of a better life for themselves and their children. With the exception of the aboriginal people, we are all late arrivals, and most of our ancestors were at one time, 'boat people'. Peter's words, 'he was not one of us' need to be reflected on, in the light of the many struggles taking place in our world today. We see many examples on the nightly news of the violence cause by such intolerance of others who are different - different ethnic group, different religion, and different culture - not one of us! Jesus' response to Peter is very strong - 'you must not stop him'! Perhaps today could be spent on reviewing our own attitudes to people who are different. Perhaps instead of focusing on the differences we might look to find what we have in common.

The other material in today's Gospel probably goes back to independent sayings of Jesus that Mark has collected into this context. Using extreme examples, typical of oral teaching, Jesus speaks of the deadliness of sin. Not so long ago we heard news reports told of a young hiker in America whose arm was trapped beneath a boulder. His desire for life was so strong that he amputated his own arm, rather than remain trapped and die. This graphic example depicts the point of Jesus' teaching. Choose life not death, even if the life choice costs.

The reading from James addresses the issue of justice and the sinfulness of greed and wealth acquired at the expense of others. In this letter, James is dealing with the practical realities of living a truly Christian life. Wealth, poverty, greed, cheating and unfair wages - these are real issues for his community as they are for us today. Sometimes you hear it said that religion should keep out of politics, but this is impossible, since religion deals with the realities of people's lives, and people live within political systems. We do well to remember that Jesus was killed as a political troublemaker in teaching an alternative kingdom to the empire of Rome. If we want to be Christian in more than name, then how we live in our community, how we participate in shaping political values need to be seen as ways of being disciples.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention

SEPTEMBER

For The Cry Of The Earth

Let us pray that each of us listens with our hearts to the cry of the Earth and of the victims of environmental disasters and the climate crisis, making a personal commitment to care for the world we inhabit.

FR. Francis Jordan

It is especially important for us to implore the Holy Spirit to help us so that we, like the holy apostles, always remain unanimous, united in the Holy Spirit, one in heart.

JOIN PLANNED GIVING IN OUR PARISH

Planned giving is a meaningful way to support your parish and its community, both now and for future generations. Here are a few reasons why you should consider joining our planned giving program:

1. Sustaining the Mission: Planned giving helps ensure that the parish can continue its vital ministries. Whether it's supporting the formation of young people, supporting and promoting families and the elderly or maintaining the parish's physical space, your gift contributes to the ongoing mission of the Church.

2. Empowering the Parish's Growth: Planned giving allows the parish to plan and budget for future projects and initiatives, from expanding outreach programs to enhancing our church complex. Your contributions make these goals attainable.

3. A Faithful Response: Stewardship is a core principle of the Catholic faith. Planned giving is an opportunity to express gratitude for God's blessings by giving back in a meaningful and lasting way. It's a way to participate in the work of God.

By joining planned giving, you help secure the future of your parish and ensure that its ministries continue to thrive for years to come.

To join planned giving please contact the parish office on 4325-1042 or email: patsgos@acs.net.au

Thank you, and we look forward to your support!

We offer our congratulations to this couple who have been great supporters of the parish and our priests, and we wish them every blessing and many more happy years together.

INSTALLATION OF RELICS OF BLESSED CARLO ACUTIS

Will take place at Our Lady of Dolours, Chatswood Parish on Blessed Carlo's feast day, 11th October at 7:00pm. Our parish will be organising a bus for young people who would like to attend the installation and pray before the relics. As of now, young people are first priority for this excursion, however, there may be a second bus arranged if there is enough expressed interest.

YOUTH IGNITE CONFERENCE

There were 1100 young people gathered in our diocese from around Australia to worship God over the last 4 days. Our parish was very well represented with St. Joseph's college.

SECULAR FRANCISCAN ORDER

The monthly meetings of the Fraternity will be held on Friday, 11th October at 1:00 pm - after the 11:45 am Mass at Our Lady of the Rosary Parish, The Entrance, and after we share a lunch.

A warm invitation is extended to everyone. Please come along and enjoy fellowship and prayer in the spirit of St Francis of Assisi.

We have planned a special Franciscan Day on Sunday 20th October at the Terrigal Parish Hall to celebrate 800 years since St Francis received the Stigmata. Activities begin after the 9.30 Mass when we will have a Morning Tea to which all parishioners are invited. Our guest speaker is Sister Pia Galea, a Sister of St Clare.

For additional information about the Franciscan charism, please see the website: <http://www.ofsaustralia.org.au>

FLOODS IN EUROPE

With all the tragic floods in Fr Greg's region in Poland over the last few days where people lost everything they had, this statute of Our Lord remained untouched! It speaks louder than any words... Let us pray for all people affected by floods in Europe in this difficult time.

DANIEL 3:31,29,30,43,42

All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments.

But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

FIRST READING

NUMBERS 11:25-29

A reading from the book of Numbers

The Lord came down in the Cloud. He spoke with Moses, but took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders. When the spirit came on them they prophesied, but not again.

Two men had stayed back in the camp; one was called Eldad and the other Medad. The spirit came down on them; though they had not gone to the Tent, their names were enrolled among the rest. These began to prophesy in the camp. The young man ran to tell this to Moses, 'Look', he said, 'Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.' Then said Joshua the son of Nun, who had served Moses from his youth, 'My Lord Moses, stop them!' Moses answered him, 'Are you jealous on my account? If only the whole people of the Lord were prophets, and the Lord gave his Spirit to them all!'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 18:8. 10. 12-14. R. v.9

(R.) The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

1. The law of the Lord is perfect, it revives the soul.

The rule of the Lord is to be trusted, it gives wisdom to the simple.

(R.) The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

2. The fear of the Lord is holy, abiding for ever.

The decrees of the Lord are truth and all of them just.

(R.) The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

3. So in them your servant finds instructions; great reward is in their keeping.

But who can detect all his errors?

From hidden faults acquit me.

(R.) The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

4. From presumption restrain your servant and let it not rule me.

Then shall I be blameless, clean from grave sin.

(R.) The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

SECOND READING

JAMES 5:1-6

A reading from the letter of St James

An answer for the rich. Start crying, weep for the miseries that are coming to you. Your wealth is all rotting, your clothes are all eaten up by moths. All your gold and your silver are corroding away, and the same corrosion will be your own sentence, and eat into your body. It was a burning fire that you stored up as your treasure for the last days. Labourers mowed your fields, and you cheated them – listen to the wages that you kept back, calling out; realise that the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. On earth you have had a life of comfort and luxury; in the time of slaughter you went on eating to your heart's content. It was you who condemned the innocent and killed them; they offered you no resistance.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

SEE JOHN 17:17

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your word, O Lord, is truth:

make us holy in the truth.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MARK 9:38-43. 45. 47-48

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

John said to Jesus, 'Master, we saw a man who is not one of us casting out devils in your name; and because he was not one of us we tried to stop him.' But Jesus said, 'You must not stop him: no one who works a miracle in my name is likely to speak evil of me. Anyone who is not against us is for us.'

'If anyone gives you a cup of water to drink just because you belong to Christ, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward.'

'But anyone who is an obstacle to bring down one of these little ones who have faith, would be better thrown into the sea with a great millstone round his neck. And if your hand should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life crippled, than to have two hands and go to hell, into the fire that cannot be put out. And if your foot should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life lame, than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. And if your eye should cause you to sin, tear it out; it is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell where their worm does not die nor their fire go out.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Cf PSALM 118:49-50

Remember your word to your servant, O Lord, by which you have given me hope.

This is my comfort when I am brought low.
