Year of

JOY

LETTER

FROM GREG

Dear parishioners,

Advent is a season of waiting, hope, and preparation. It invites us to pause amid the hustle of daily life and reflect on the profound mystery of God becoming man. As we journey toward Christmas, Advent reminds us that this preparation is not just external—decorations, gifts, or festive meals—but internal, as we ready our hearts to welcome Christ.

St. John Paul II once said, "God made us for joy." This profound truth offers a guiding light for our Year of Joy but also Advent reflection. Joy is not mere happiness tied to circumstances but a deep, abiding sense of peace that flows from our union with God. As we anticipate the birth of Christ, we are called to rediscover this joy that is rooted in His presence and promises.

To prepare well for Christmas, we must embrace three key dimensions of Advent: prayer, repentance, and generosity.

First, prayer connects us to the heart of God. Amid the busyness of the season, setting aside time for silence and reflection allows us to focus on the true meaning of Christmas. Meditating on Scripture, especially the prophecies of the Messiah and the Nativity narratives, helps us enter into the spirit of Advent. St. John Paul II emphasized the importance of encountering Christ in prayer, noting that it is in this encounter that we discover our ultimate joy.

Second, repentance clears the way for Christ to enter our lives. John the Baptist's call to "prepare the way of the Lord" (Isaiah 40:3) echoes through the Advent season. This is a time to examine our hearts and remove anything that hinders our relationship with God. The sacrament of reconciliation is a powerful way to experience God's mercy and begin anew, freed from the burdens of sin.

Finally, generosity mirrors the love and self-giving of God, who gave us His Son. Advent invites us to look beyond ourselves and share with others, especially those in need. Whether through acts of kindness, charitable giving, or simply offering our time to someone who is lonely, such gestures embody the joy and hope of Christmas.

St. John Paul II's insight reminds us that joy is both a gift and a calling. God desires us to live in the fullness of joy, and Advent is a season to rediscover this gift. Joy flows naturally from gratitude. As we prepare for Christmas, and begin today Year of Joy in our parish let us take time to thank God for His blessings, especially the gift of Jesus Christ. Gratitude opens our hearts to joy, transforming even the most ordinary moments into occasions of grace.

"YOUR REDEMPTION IS NEAR AT HAND."

In the final days of Advent, as the celebration of Christ's birth draws near, let us resolve to prepare well—not just through external preparations but by cultivating hearts filled with faith, hope, and love. By anchoring ourselves in prayer, seeking reconciliation, and extending generosity to others, we can truly experience the joy for which God created us.

May this Advent season lead us to the manger, where we will find the source of everlasting joy: Jesus Christ, Emmanuel—God with us.

Yours in Christ

Fr Greg Skulski SDS

Parish Priest.

'YEAR OF JOY'

As we commence our Year of Joy this weekend, the 1st Sunday of Advent, we would like to thank Patti Beattie for her work designing the banners, slides and prayer cards. Also it should be noted that Fr Greg wrote the prayer!

PRAYER FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

God our Father, who created all people in your image:

give persons with physical, cognitive, or emotional disabilities opportunities to do all that they are able to, and strengthen them to overcome challenges. Jesus, who showed great compassion for those who suffer: comfort all who feel like their gifts are not used or that their value is not understood, so that they might take courage in your affection. Holy Spirit, who fills believers with all good gifts: help me to reach out to persons with disabilities through friendship, care, and working to be sure that our church includes them in everything that we do and to break down barriers to inclusion in society. We ask this in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR CHRISTMAS RAFFLE WINNERS!

Whilst we thank enormously everyone for their generous support of our Christmas Raffle, and those who generously donated prizes, we would also like to congratulate the following winners:

Barbara Mills: Hamper. P Scott: Hamper. Carla: Christmas Cake. Denise Begg: Prosecco & Glasses. Margaret Dibben: Rug. Karen Boubeta: Knee Rug. Gavin Donnelly: Christmas Lights. Donna Hobday: Crock Pot. Angela Chehade: Bag.

We offer our sincere appreciation to Eunice, the chief organiser of the raffle, and the Fund Raising Committee members for selling the tickets.

CHRISTMAS MARKETS

Last weekend we held a very successful Christmas Markets under the leadership of Eunice, Cecilia & Margaret, and we are so appreciative of the effort to coordinate and staff the event, thanks also to members of the Fund Raising Committee for this. To those who donated items to the Markets, we thank you also as they contributed greatly to its success.

1ST FRIDAY OF THE MONTH

Mass with anointing of the sick at 12pm followed by lunch in Jordan Room.

THE GOSFORD PARISH CALENDAR IS NOW AVAILABLE!

The parish calendar for the year 2025 is now available! We published the calendar to recognise the 60th anniversary of the church and the 65th anniversary of the school. The calendar includes all very important dates and events for our parish and school. You can get your copy at the Piety Shop now!

MASS INTENTION REQUESTS

As we are drawing near the conclusion of November, the month of Remembrance, it is perhaps the time to touch on a couple of factors. Firstly, if a specific date is required by the person submitting the intention it is strongly advisable to submit the request at least three weeks before that date.

ADVENT PROGRAM | A JOURNEY OF HOPE

Please note that Advent booklets prepared by the diocese of Broken Bay are now available in the foyer to be collected.

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL CHRISTMAS APPEAL

Our Appeal will be introduced by video towards the end of mass. Appeal envelopes will be on the seats for this and the following weekend and then be available in the foyer. If you would like to assist, just place them on the collection plate. The Poor Boxes will be available as usual. Food and Clothing may be placed neatly in boxes in the foyer. Help is available for those in need at 43 22 53 61. If you would like to volunteer for Conference work, please contact Margaret Gunnelson (Conference President) 0419 589 540. Thank you.

LETTER FROM FR GREG

REGARDING PARISH EMPLOYMENT

Dear Friends,

I would like to share with you all that as I have invited Mrs Suzy Caruso, our current bookkeeper and former parish secretary at Pittwater Parish, Mrs Nicole Murphy, a member of our Parish Finance Committee and Finance Manager at St Joseph's College, and Mrs Colleen Kirk our current parish secretary as she brings to the table a wealth of understanding and experience of our parish and its office to sit with me on the interview panel. All panelists have a good understanding of both parish and/or finance administration and know the needs of this parish.

Last Tuesday I have met with the members of interview panel to shortlist the candidates with a view to inviting only four applicants with the correct qualifications and who fulfil the criteria that we're seeking to be interviewed on December 2. Please keep me and the members of the interview panel in your prayers as we make these important decisions for the future of our parish administration.

Kind regards,

Fr Greg Skulski, Parish Priest

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEOPLE WITH DISABILITY

3 DECEMBER 2024

The day is held annually on the 3rd of December all over the world. It celebrates and raises awareness of people with disability. The goal is to achieve inclusion of people with disability in all aspects of community life. What Does Catholic Social Teaching say about Disability? - It is not so much the impairment but the ignorance, intolerance, injustice, and exclusion that undermines the dignity and humanity of disabled people.

People with a disability are not just the object of care but the agents of their own life. They need to be heard. - We must recognise the vast diversity of the disabled experience. Inclusion requires that people with disability have an equal opportunity to be recognised, accepted and make their own contribution to the common good.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Cf PSALM 24:1-3

To you, I lift up my soul, O my God.

In you, I have trusted; let me not be put to shame.

Nor let my enemies exult over me; and let none who hope in you be put to shame.

FIRST READING

JEREMIAH 33:14-16

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah

See, the days are coming – it is the Lord who speaks – when I am going to fulfil the promise I made to the House of Israel and the House of Judah:

‘In those days and at that time, I will make a virtuous Branch grow for David, who shall practise honesty and integrity in the land.

In those days Judah shall be saved and Israel shall dwell in confidence.

And this is the name the city will be called:

The Lord-our-integrity.’

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 24:4-5. 8-9. 10. 14. R. v.1

(R.) To you, O Lord, I lift my soul.

1. Lord, make me know your ways.

Lord, teach me your paths.

Make me walk in your truth, and teach me:

for you are God my saviour.

(R.) To you, O Lord, I lift my soul.

2. The Lord is good and upright.

He shows the path to those who stray, he guides the humble in the right path; he teaches his way to the poor.

(R.) To you, O Lord, I lift my soul.

3. His ways are faithfulness and love for those who keep his covenant and will.

The Lord’s friendship is for those who revere him; to them he reveals his covenant.

(R.) To you, O Lord, I lift my soul.

SECOND READING

1 THESSALONIANS 3:12 – 4:2

A reading from first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

May the Lord be generous in increasing your love and make you love one another and the whole human race as much as we love you. And may he so confirm your hearts in holiness that you may be blameless in the sight of our God and Father when our Lord Jesus Christ comes with all his saints.

Finally, brothers, we urge you and appeal to you in the Lord Jesus to make more and more progress in the kind of life that you are meant to live: the life that God wants, as you learnt from us, and as you are already living it. You have not forgotten the instructions we gave you on the authority of the Lord Jesus.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

PSALM 84:8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

LUKE 21:25-28. 34-36

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus said to his disciples: ‘There will be signs in the sun and moon and stars; on earth nations in agony, bewildered by the clamour of the ocean and its waves; men dying of fear as they await what menaces the world, for the powers of heaven will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. When these things begin to take place, stand erect, hold your heads high, because your liberation is near at hand.

‘Watch yourselves, or your hearts will be coarsened with debauchery and drunkenness and the cares of life, and that day will be sprung on you suddenly, like a trap. For it will come down on every living man on the face of the earth. Stay awake, praying at all times for the strength to survive all that is going to happen, and to stand with confidence before the Son of Man.’

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

PSALM 84:13

The Lord will bestow his bounty, and our earth shall yield its increase.

SAFEGUARDING

INTERNATIONAL DAY FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

This key safeguarding date is a United Nations international day that aims to promote community awareness, understanding and acceptance of people with a disability.

The event is held on December 3rd, with this year’s theme being Amplifying the leadership of persons with disabilities for an inclusive and sustainable future. The theme promotes people with disabilities in leadership roles and the importance of this to make the world a fairer place for everyone.

Within Australia this event is a joint effort between government, schools, organisations, community groups, businesses and individuals. It is an opportunity to be part of creating an inclusive and diverse community for the 5.5 million people with a disability in Australia.
