Year of JOY

HOMILY BY FR MICHAEL TATE

SOUTH LAND OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Beatitudes we just heard are at the beginning of the 'Sermon on the Mount'. This sermon provides a picture of a society where the usual expectations of how people relate to each other are overturned.

Our Lord wants to create a new society where the old rules of engagement are superseded, especially in relation to enmity and violence. In fact, in the Sermon on the Mount all forms of resolving disputes, starting with families (spouses, brothers) are turned upside down. And we are a 'Land Down Under'.

Australia is a place to which people have been attracted over the millennia to forge a new future. First, the original inhabitants coming down through Asia, and then the settlers, migrants and refugees of the last 236 years. (Of course, the convicts were a less voluntary part of the movement of peoples!)

Most were attracted by a vision of a different future, a future where human beings could relate to each other differently to the old order in Europe, and more recently in the Middle East or Africa or Asia or Central or South America.

People were and are prepared to take the risk of being dislocated, of re-locating because of that vision of a different future, particularly a future not determined by the violence of feudal warfare which had characterised their homelands for generations, centuries, and even millennia.

They come because they aspire to be someone different, to do something different, in ways not predetermined by centuries of custom and tradition in their home society.

Is this movement of people to Australia a 'chance event'? Is it just another phase of world history? No.

I recall walking down a corridor in the Vatican, the wall of which was painted with a map of the world. Where Australia is, there was just ocean blue. It was painted before European explorers began to map our coastline!

Those mapping expeditions gave us our name 'Australia'. De Quiros, the great Portuguese explorer of the 16th Century, set out on a quest for 'Terra Australia del Espiritu Santo', South Land of the Holy Spirit. Right from the start, the full title of our land was bound up with the Holy Spirit.

I am confident that 'Australia' is a work of the Holy Spirit, no chance event in world history but a gathering of peoples for a Divine purpose.

One of the most distinctive works of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost was the breaking down of ethnic, tribal and language barriers between people. That is why Christianity spread like wild fire across the Roman Empire.

Australia is a place where that Pentecostal impulse is felt very strongly. People from every nation, tribe, ethnic and religious group on the face of the earth have relocated here and are creating a new sort of society.

Human beings can relate to each other free from past structures of oppression and division in their old homeland societies.

They have come, in their millions, to escape the histories of societies where everyone 'knew their place', to a land where we relate to each other for our inherent worth. Hence the great Australian characteristic: 'egalitarianism'. This is simply the social recognition of the truth of the Genesis creation story: we all share a common humanness and a common humanity.

Have we responded to the Holy Spirit perfectly? No. Our treatment of the earliest inhabitants of this land was shameful, to say the least. Here in Tasmania, the use of armed force against the aboriginal people was authorised at the highest levels. Tasmanian historian, Nick Brodie, has written on this under the title The Vandemonian War. This nicely plays on the original name of Tasmania, i.e. Van Diemen's Land, and the sense of a demonic force utterly contrary to the Spirit of the Sermon on the Mount.

Our treatment of those genuinely fleeing persecution in their homelands on occasion falls short of what the Lord of the Sermon on the Mount desires.

But on the whole, we are creating a version of the Kingdom of God under the Southern Cross of which we can be proud.

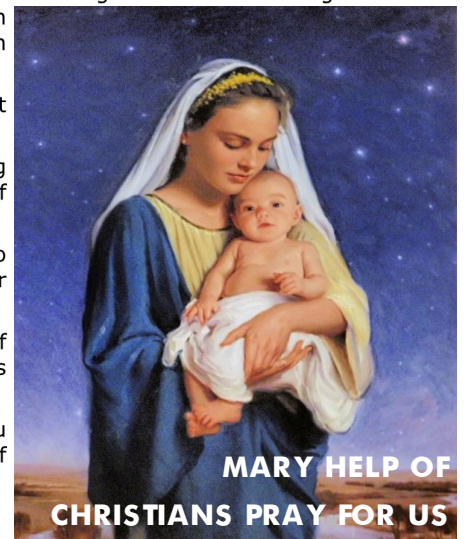

So, Australians All, let us rejoice -

For our land abounding in nature's gifts of beauty rich and rare,

For our freedom to share life in our 'Common-Wealth',

For the divine Spirit of Pentecost attracting us to follow Jesus in this Australia del Espiritu Santo, South Land of the Holy Spirit.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention

JANUARY For the right to an education.

Let us pray for migrants, refugees and those affected by war, that their right to an education, which is necessary to build a better world, might always be respected.

DO YOU KNOW THE SYMBOLS OF THE JUBILEE YEAR?

Pilgrimage

The Jubilee calls us to set out on a journey and overcome certain limits. When we move, in fact, we do not merely change location, but we transform ourselves. This is why it is important to prepare, plan the route, and understand the destination. In this sense, the pilgrimage that defines this year begins even before the journey itself: its starting point is the decision to embark on it.

Holy Door

From a symbolic point of view, the Holy Door acquires a particular significance. It is the most characteristic sign because the goal is to be able to cross it. Upon crossing this threshold, the pilgrim recalls the text from chapter 10 of the Gospel according to Saint John: "I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved; they will come in and go out and find pasture". The gesture expresses the decision to follow and be guided by Jesus, who is the Good Shepherd.

Reconciliation

The Jubilee is a sign of reconciliation because it opens a favorable time for personal conversion.

One places God at the center of their existence, turning towards Him and acknowledging His primacy. Specifically, it involves living the sacrament of reconciliation, taking advantage of this time to rediscover the value of confession, and personally receiving the word of God's forgiveness.

Prayer

There are many ways and many reasons to pray. The foundation is always the desire to open oneself to the presence of God and His offer of love. The Christian community feels called and knows that it can address the Father only because it has received the Spirit of the Son. The moments of prayer experienced during the journey show that the pilgrim carries the ways of God in his heart.

Liturgy

The liturgy is the public prayer of the Church. According to the Second Vatican Council, it is the summit toward which all her action is directed and, at the same time, the source from which all her energy flows. At the center is the Eucharistic celebration, where the body and blood of Christ are received. As a pilgrim, He Himself walks alongside the disciples and reveals to them the mysteries of the Father, so that they may say, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over." (Luke 24:29)

Profession of Faith

The profession of faith, also called the creed, is a sign of identity specific to the baptized. It expresses the central content of the faith and summarizes the main truths that a believer accepts and bears witness to on the day of their baptism, sharing them with the entire Christian community for the rest of their life.

Indulgence

An indulgence is a concrete manifestation of God's mercy that surpasses and transforms the limits of human justice. This treasure of grace became history in Jesus and the saints. By witnessing these examples and living in communion with them, the hope of forgiveness and one's own path to holiness is strengthened and becomes a certainty. The indulgence allows one to free their heart from the burden of sin and make the necessary preparation with full freedom.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

PSALM 56:9-10

I will praise you, Lord, among the peoples, among the nations sing psalms to you, for your mercy reaches to the heavens, and your truth to the skies. The Gloria in excelsis (Glory to God in the highest) is said.

FIRST READING

ISAIAH 32:15-18

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

Once more there will be poured on us the spirit from above; then shall the wilderness be fertile land and fertile land become forest. In the wilderness justice will come to live and integrity in the fertile land; integrity will bring peace, justice give lasting security.

My people will live in a peaceful home, in safe houses, in quiet dwellings.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 84:9-14. R. v.9

(R.) The Lord speaks of peace to his people.

1. I will hear what the Lord God has to say, a voice that speaks of peace.

His help is near for those who fear him and his glory will dwell in our land. (R.)

(R.) The Lord speaks of peace to his people.

2. Mercy and faithfulness have met; justice and peace have embraced.

Faithfulness shall spring from the earth and justice look down from heaven. (R.)

(R.) The Lord speaks of peace to his people.

3. The Lord will make us prosper and our earth shall yield its fruit.

Justice shall march before him and peace shall follow his steps. (R.)

(R.) The Lord speaks of peace to his people.

SECOND READING

ROMANS 12:9-13

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

Do not let your love be a pretence, but sincerely prefer good to evil. Love each other as much as brothers should, and have a profound respect for each other. Work for the Lord with untiring effort and with great earnestness of spirit. If you have hope, this will make you cheerful. Do not give up if trials come; and keep on praying. If any of the saints are in need you must share with them; and you should make hospitality your special care.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

MATTHEW 11:25

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

LUKE 12:22-32

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

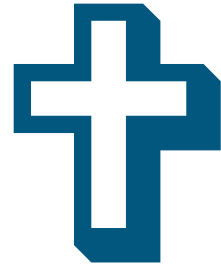

Jesus said to his disciples, 'That is why I am telling you not to worry about your life and what you are to eat, nor about your body and how you are to clothe it. For life means more than food, and the body more than clothing. Think of the ravens. They do not sow or reap; they have no storehouses and no barns; yet God feeds them. And how much more are you worth than the birds! Can any of you, for all his worrying, add a single cubit to his span of life? If the smallest things, therefore, are outside your control, why worry about the rest? Think of the flowers; they never have to spin or weave; yet, I assure you, not even Solomon in all his regalia was robed like one of these. Now if that is how God clothes the grass in the field which is there today and thrown into the furnace tomorrow, how much more will he look after you, you men of little faith! But you, you must not set your hearts on things to eat and things to drink; nor must you worry. It is the pagans of this world who set their hearts on these things. Your Father well knows you need them. No; set your hearts on his kingdom, and these other things will be given you as well.

'There is no need to be afraid, little flock, for it has pleased your Father to give you the kingdom.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

PSALM 102:2

Bless the Lord, my soul, and never forget his benefits.
