Year of JOY

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

Today's story is filled with human intrigue and divine mystery. It contrasts David's respect for the king with the murderous intent of Saul. Although David was the one hunted, Saul was the one caught. The king had an army of three thousand men, while David had one companion. It is clear that God delivered Saul into David's hand. Still, David did not raise it against the king. Though clearly favoured by God, David does not take advantage of this favour. Judgment is in God's hands, and God alone will reward or punish each one according to her or his righteousness and faithfulness.

The psalm opens with a summons to bless the Lord because of God's willingness to pardon, to heal, and to redeem or save. All these acts flow from God's loving kindness and compassion (vv.3-4). These two attributes are closely associated with covenantal commitment and are integral aspects of God's own name and identity (v.8; cf. Exod 34:6).

It is out of mercy that God acts, not requiring the harsh punishment that sin warrants. Although the reference is to a father's compassion, the word itself comes from the word for womb. Here compassion is much more intimate than simple empathy felt for those who suffer; it is womb-love.

Paul contrasts the physical with the resurrected body. He distinguishes between the first man, Adam, and the last Adam, Christ. When the breath of life was breathed into the first man, he became a living being (cf. Gen 2:7). In contrast, those possessing the spirit of the risen Christ have life through him, because he is a life-giving spirit. Adam received life; Christ gives it. Paul further argues that the first man (Adam) was made from dust of the earth, while the second man, the Lord, by his resurrection was from heaven. Those who come from the dust will have natural bodies like that first man; those who are joined to the risen Lord will have resurrected bodies, as does the Lord.

The disciples are told to act toward their enemies in a way exactly opposite of which they themselves are treated; they are not to retaliate in kind. Their love should not be mere passive acceptance, but an active love. Four examples of such love are given. Whether attacked or insulted by a blow to the cheek, one must resist retaliation. This same extravagance is shown in one's willingness to surrender an undergarment when an outer cloak is taken. The disciples are told to give unquestioningly when asked and not to demand the return of items taken. Such behaviour may appear excessive, but it illustrates the extremes to which one must be willing to love enemies.

Finally, the way the disciples treat others will be the standard for the way they are treated by God..

SUPPORTING SALVATORIAN SEMINARIANS

Next weekend our Parish will hold a special collection to support Salvatorian seminarians and their formation. Australian Salvatorian's currently have 15 seminarians in the seminary in the Philippines, undertaking their studies and formation.

All seminaries will do their ministry in the future in Australia as priests. By supporting the seminarians formation now we are ensuring that we will have future priests for our own Parish. The cost of one seminarian's formation per year is $14,000.

Next weekend there will be envelopes available on the pews.

Our First Parish Synodal Assembly!

With great excitement and anticipation, our parish held its first Parish Synodal Assembly in November 2024.

This gathering brought together over 70 parishioners, including our school leaders, for the opportunity to listen and dialogue together, guided by the Holy Spirit. Participants were invited to prayerfully reflect, listen, and engage in meaningful dialogue around the central question:

“In our Year of Joy, how is God calling us to serve His mission in our parishes?”

Guided by the Conversation in the Spirit methodology, participants embraced a prayerful approach, focusing on deep listening and spiritual discernment. From these conversations, five key themes emerged.

Moving Forward

The insights shared during the Assembly reaffirm our collective desire to build a joyful, welcoming, and mission-focused parish. Our Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) will use the synthesis of the voices gathered at the Parish Synodal Assembly to guide planning for 2025. Further updates will be shared as the process unfolds.

As we continue to journey together, let us continue to listen to one another, embrace opportunities for growth, and live as beacons of hope and joy in our community.

Thank you to all who participated. May the Holy Spirit continue to guide us in serving God's mission!

BE MERCIFUL AS YOUR FATHER IS MERCIFUL.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

PSALM 12:6

O Lord, I trust in your merciful love.

My heart will rejoice in your salvation.

I will sing to the Lord who has been bountiful with me.

FIRST READING

1 SAMUEL 26:2. 7-9. 12-13. 22-23

A reading from the first book of Samuel

Saul set off and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, accompanied by three thousand men chosen from Israel to search for David in the wilderness of Ziph.

So in the dark David and Abishai made their way towards the force, where they found Saul asleep inside the camp, his spear stuck in the ground beside his head, with Abner and the troops lying round him.

Then Abishai said to David, 'Today God has put your enemy in your power; so now let me pin him to the ground with his own spear. Just one stroke! I will not need to strike him twice. David answered Abishai, Do not kill him, for who can lift his hand against the Lord's anointed and be without guilt?' David took the spear and the pitcher of water from beside Saul's head, and they made off. No one saw, no one knew, no one woke up; they were all asleep, for a deep sleep from the Lord had fallen on them. David crossed to the other side and halted on the top of the mountain a long way off; there was a wide space between them. David then called out, 'Here is the king's spear. Let one of the soldiers come across and take it. The Lord repays everyone for his uprightness and loyalty. Today the Lord put you in my power, but I would not raise my hand against the Lord's anointed.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 102:1-4. 8. 10. 12-13. R. v.8

(R.) The Lord is kind and merciful.

1. My soul, give thanks to the Lord, all my being, bless his holy name.

My soul, give thanks to the Lord and never forget all his blessings. (R.)

(R.) The Lord is kind and merciful.

2. It is he who forgives all your guilt, who heals every one of your ills, who redeems your life from the grave, who crowns you with love and compassion. (R.)

(R.) The Lord is kind and merciful.

3. The Lord is compassion and love,

slow to anger and rich in mercy.

He does not treat us according to our sins nor repay us according to our faults. (R.)

(R.) The Lord is kind and merciful.

4. As far as the east is from the west so far does he remove our sins. As a father has compassion on his sons, the Lord has pity on those who fear him. (R.)

(R.) The Lord is kind and merciful.

SECOND READING

1 CORINTHIANS 15:45-49

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

The first man, Adam, as scripture says, became a living soul; but the last Adam has become a life-giving spirit. That is, first the one with the soul, not the spirit, and after that, the one with the spirit. The first man, being from the earth, is earthly by nature; the second man is from heaven. As this earthly man was, so are we on earth; and as the heavenly man is, so are we in heaven. And we, who have been modelled on the earthly man, will be modelled on the heavenly man.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JOHN 13:34

Alleluia, alleluia!

I give you a new commandment;

love one another as I have loved you.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

LUKE 6:27-38

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I say this to you who are listening: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who treat you badly. To the man who slaps you on one cheek, present the other cheek too; to the man who takes your cloak from you, do not refuse your tunic. Give to everyone who asks you, and do not ask for your property back from the man who robs you. Treat others as you would like them to treat you. If you love those who love you, what thanks can you expect? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what thanks can you expect? For even sinners do that much. And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what thanks can you expect? Even sinners lend to sinners to get back the same amount. Instead, love your enemies and do good, and lend without any hope of return. You will have a great reward, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. 'Be compassionate as your Father is compassionate. Do not judge, and you will not be judged yourselves; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned yourselves; grant pardon, and you will be pardoned. Give, and there will be gifts for you: a full measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be poured into your lap; because the amount you measure out is the amount you will be given back.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

PSALM 9:2-3

I will recount all your wonders, I will rejoice in you and be glad, and sing psalms to your name, O Most High.
