Year of JOY

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
Alleluia! Christ is risen! As we rejoice in the glory of the Resurrection this Easter season, we are reminded that we are a people of hope, called to live in the light of the Risen Lord. Easter is not merely a day—it is a season of renewal, and more deeply, a way of life rooted in the transforming power of Christ's victory over sin and death.

This year, our Easter joy is made even more meaningful as we celebrate Jubilee Year 2025, a special time of grace and spiritual renewal for the entire Church. Pope Francis has invited us to live this Jubilee with the theme "Pilgrims of Hope," reminding us that our journey of faith is not one of isolation, but of communion—with God and with one another. The Jubilee invites us to rediscover the heart of our Christian life and to walk more closely with Christ.

At the center of this journey stands the Sunday Eucharist, which must become the main focus and high point of each week. The Eucharist is not just an obligation or a ritual—it is our encounter with the Risen Christ, who gives Himself to us completely in love. It is in the Mass that we are nourished by the Word of God and the Bread of Life. In receiving the Body and Blood of Christ, we are strengthened to live as His disciples in the world.

Let us ask ourselves: Do we truly make the Sunday Eucharist the foundation of our week? Do we come to Mass with hearts ready to listen, to be transformed, to give thanks? In this Easter season, let us renew our commitment to Sunday worship—not out of duty, but out of love. As the early Christians did, let us gather each Lord's Day in joy, to break the bread and proclaim the Resurrection.

May this Easter be a time of deep spiritual awakening in our parish. Let us celebrate the Jubilee Year with open hearts, ready to receive God's mercy and to share His hope with others. Together, let us walk as pilgrims of hope, anchored in the Eucharist, and bearing witness to the life that Christ offers to all.

Wishing you and your families a joyful, blessed Easter and a grace-filled journey during this Jubilee 2025.

In the peace of the Risen Christ,

Fr Greg Skulski SDS
Parish Priest

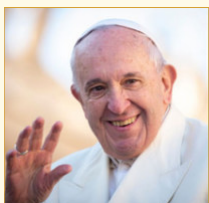

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention

APRIL

For the use of the new technologies

Let us pray that the use of the new technologies will not replace human relationships, will respect the dignity of the person, and will help us face the crises of our times.

FR. Francis Jordan

May the dear God be with you. May he inflame your inmost being always more and more with the fire of Apostolic zeal.

Dear Friends,

I want to extend my heartfelt thanks to each and every one of you for the beautiful birthday wishes and the wonderful celebration last weekend. I was truly touched by the love, joy, and warmth that filled the day. Your kind words, thoughtful gestures, and presence made me feel incredibly special and deeply blessed.

The effort and care that went into organizing such a meaningful celebration did not go unnoticed. It was more than just a gathering—it was a true reflection of the spirit of our parish: one of unity, love, and faith. Thank you to everyone involved in organising and setting up the venue.

Thank you all for making my 40th birthday such a memorable and joyful occasion. I am so grateful to be the leader of this amazing community and I carry your kindness with me with great appreciation.

May God continue to bless you all abundantly.

With gratitude and love,

Fr Greg Skulski SDS
Parish Priest

SACRAMENTS OF INITIATION! RCIA & RCIC

We joyfully celebrate with 13 members of our community as they receive their Sacraments of Initiation on Holy Saturday during the Easter Vigil! These newest Catholic Christians receive a combination of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Communion on this truly blessed night.

Congratulations and please keep Jude, Felicity, Danielle, Ainsley, Amelia, Tara, Danni, Katherine, Jackie, Simon, Prue, Josiah & Micah in your prayers.

"This is the night

that even now, throughout the world,

sets Christian believers apart from worldly vices

and from the gloom of sin,

leading them to grace

and joining them to his holy ones."

(From the Exsultet - Easter proclamation)

THANK YOU TO OUR PARISH RCIA LEADERS

Thank you to Chris Paget, Amanda Dillon and Maria Nardi for their dedicated guidance and unwavering commitment in preparing our candidates and catechumens to receive the sacraments this Easter. Their faith-filled leadership, compassion, and patience have deeply touched the hearts of those on their journey toward full communion with the Church. Through their example and support, they have helped plant seeds of faith that will continue to grow and flourish. We are truly grateful for the time, prayer, and love they have poured into this ministry. May God continue to bless them as they inspire others to walk in the light of Christ.

THANK YOU TO.....

- Bob and his family for bringing along Oliver the donkey to our Palm Sunday celebrations, this has become a Parish tradition that all our Parishioners young and old look forward to.

- All those that helped Father Greg and Father Bronek clean the Church in preparation for our Holy Week celebrations.

- Pam & John McCrae, Ron & Denise Begg and all who assisted with preparing the delicious morning tea for our cleaners.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION COMMISSIONING

Will be held on the 26th & 27th April. Please keep all our Sacrament families in your prayers during this special time for their children.

ANZAC DAY MASS

This year ANZAC Day falls within the Octave of Easter, therefore the Mass of Easter Friday will be celebrated on Friday 25 April. However, our Parish will solemnly commemorate the remembrance of ANZAC Day by joining together for light refreshments in the Jordan room after Mass.

FIRST FRUITS OFFERING
How much can I give?

God calls us to be generous with all our gifts. Stewardship means giving back to God in gratitude for all He has given us, including giving from our treasure.

We may often find ourselves throwing last minute donations into the collection basket, however, by creating a plan we can better share the gifts that God has given us.

Giving from our treasure, our money, is a pillar of our faith – just like attending Sunday Mass or participating in parish ministries. Here are some questions to keep in mind when considering your first fruits offering.

1. PRAY

Keep an open heart and pray for God's guidance to help make your decision.

2. PLAN

Plan your giving whether, weekly, monthly or yearly.

3. GIVE

Offer your 'first fruits', a meaningful portion of your income, in thanksgiving to God.

"Whoever sows sparingly will reap sparingly and whoever sows bountifully will reap bountifully. Each must do as already determined, without sadness or compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver." 2 Corinthians 9:6-7

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Cf PSALM 138:18,5-6

I have risen, and I am with you still, alleluia.

You have laid your hand upon me, alleluia.

Too wonderful for me, this knowledge, alleluia, alleluia.

The Gloria in excelsis is said.

FIRST READING

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES 10:34. 37-43

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 117:1-2. 16-17. 22-23. R. v.24

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

1. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end. Let the sons of Israel say: 'His love has no end.' (R.)

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

2. The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up. I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds. (R.)

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

3. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone. This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes. (R.)

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

SECOND READING

COLOSSIANS 3:1-4

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

SEQUENCE

The sequence is said or sung on this day. On the weekdays of the Octave of Easter, its use is optional.

Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer sacrifice and praise.

The sheep are ransomed by the Lamb;

and Christ, the undefiled, hath sinners to his Father reconciled.

Death with life contended: combat strangely ended!

Life's own Champion, slain, yet lives to reign.

Tell us, Mary: say what thou didst see upon the way.

The tomb the Living did enclose;

I saw Christ's glory as he rose!

The angels there attesting; shroud with grave-clothes resting.

Christ, my hope, has risen: he goes before you into Galilee.

That Christ is truly risen from the dead we know.

Victorious king, thy mercy show!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

1 CORINTHIANS 5:7-8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Christ has become our paschal sacrifice;

let us feast with joy in the Lord.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JOHN 20:1-9

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

1 CORINTHIANS 5:7-8

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed, alleluia; therefore let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of purity and truth, alleluia, alleluia.
