Gladys Collingridge Memorial Music Scholarship Concert

This concert held last Saturday at the Light of Christ Centre was well attended by over 100 people.

The programme was varied with high standard performances from solo singers, instrumentalists and choirs - including professional artists - some of whom had travelled long distances to participate - as well as local artists. Professional artists included Sarah Clark (soprano), William Moxey (baritone), Gioconda Augimeri and Rosemary Pryor (flautists) - local artists, Christian Catsanos, Emily Byrnes, Cassandra Crasto and the Filipino Choir completed a full programme.

We are appreciative of all the artists and their generosity in giving of their talents and time. From the proceeds of ticket sales and programmes and some generous donations an amount of $2900 has been raised to this point. All contributions go directly to the Scholarship funds as no expenses are claimed by the organisers.

We sincerely thank all those who so generously assisted with the preparations for the concert and those who helped on the night as well as our generous donors and concert-goers. May God bless you all Winsome & Edith Collingridge (Organisers)
