Reproductive Health Care Reform Bill 2019 (Bill) tabled in NSW Parliament NSW Parliament to vote on legislation to decriminalise Abortion

A bill to make abortion legal in NSW up until birth, for any reason, has been tabled in NSW Parliament and is due to be voted on this week, perhaps as soon as August 6.

Archbishop Anthony Fisher has asked all Catholics in NSW to urgently contact their state Member of Parliament and ask them to vote against this bill.

The Member of Parliament for Hornsby is Mr Matt Kean ~ (02) 9476 3411.

Be informed & take action: Public Statements made by Archbishop Fisher and Bishop Michael McKenna of Bathurst as well as a guide for parishioners to phoning their MPs (to ask them to vote against the bill), now available in our churches.

Stop Talking to Yourself!

Sometimes I catch myself talking to myself. Usually, it is quite interesting, seldom any contradictory remarks! It is in the form of a dialogue, but of course it is a monologue – a totally self-contained conversation. Did you notice in today's gospel that the rich landowner is constantly murmuring to himself. He poses questions which he answers – to his advantage, of course, or so he thinks. The point is obvious. He is so bound up with his property, his possessions, that there is no room in his life for real conversation with real people, other real people, or conversation with the Creator.

If he had talked to others about what to do with the surplus grain, he would have opened himself to the risk of discovering that there may be a claim on his wealth, a claim on his property, arising out of our common humanity – that it wasn't 'all about me'. He may have heard the plea: 'Give us this day our daily bread.' In responding, he may have decided on a different course of action, the distribution of the surplus grain to grind into flour for the poor. I was taught by the Christian Brothers that if a poor man is so destitute that he can't feed himself and his family, then if a rich man refuses to give him what he needs for the necessities of life, he can take from that rich man and it is not the sin of stealing – it may be a crime, but it is not a sin!

This comes from the core Catholic teaching that all the earth and its resources belong to every person as a gift. But, whilst that is true, Our Lord was not laying the foundation for some political ideology. Why was He really concerned for this sort of rich person? The answer is that the rich man was denying the need for conversation. But, conversation is what makes us human: we are word animals. Anyone who has been in hospital for some time knows that it is the lack of conversation which starts to tell, particularly if there is a long period of recovery. We need mouth to mouth resuscitation. In muttering to himself, the rich man was becoming dehumanised.

There are two dimensions of conversation we need:

With God we call it prayer. The Our Father is the conversation of the children of God with their heavenly Father; With other people, dialogue with them might reveal something about them such that we need to respond, and of course something about ourselves, that we are built for talking with others. Otherwise when we arrive at the moment of death, which, as in this gospel, may be at a time unknown to us, we will survive because our souls are immortal, but we could find ourselves monologuing for all eternity, and that is a Hellish existence. We need to learn the language of Heaven and we begin that on earth. What should we do in the light of today's gospel? If you knew you were going to die, say, before the end of the year, and you wanted to die 'rich in the eyes of God' as the Gospel puts it, what could you do? Look at your wealth, and if you are old enough, look at your Will. Enter imaginatively into dialogue with those in need, and, after providing for the security and dignity of those close to you, could things be re-arranged to satisfy the real needs of others?

And then, draw closer to Our Lady who was the greatest conversation partner with God: 'Be it done unto me according to Thy word.' She is constantly trying to draw us into her conversation with God.

Let us pray the 'Hail Mary', lingering on the last phrase, that we may be saved from monologuing for all eternity. Learn the language of Heaven here on earth and ask Our Lady to pray for us 'now, and at the hour of our death.' Amen. © Fr Michael Tate
