'Seek God, Find God, Embrace God in Jesus'

12th August 2018 ~ The 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time—Year B

Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

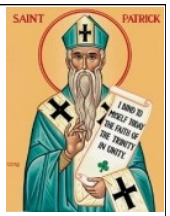

1 Kg 19:4-8; Eph 4:30—5:2; Jn 6:41-51

Our Mission Statement

'Help others to recognise, through their experiences, that Jesus who died and is risen is the truth that lights up their lives'

Our Vision Statement

'That the parishioners of Ku-ring-gai Chase Catholic Parish grow as missionary disciples and live as community in Christ inviting all people into our Parish, welcoming them to our Parish life and embracing the rich diversity of our community'

Today's Gospel begins with a report that the Jews complained about Jesus' claims regarding his identity. They knew his family, and they knew he was the son of Joseph. They could not comprehend what Jesus is the one sent from God. Those who believe will have eternal life. Jesus concludes with the central element of our eucharistic theology. He promises that the bread of life will bring eternal life to those who partake of it, and he tells us that the bread of life will be his own flesh, given for the life of the world.

Jesus meant when he said that he came down from heaven. Jesus responds to the complaints by saying that only those who are chosen by God will recognize him as the one that God sent. This is a recurring theme in John's Gospel, that God has chosen those who will have faith in Jesus.

In today's reading, we hear Jesus say again, as he did in last week's Gospel, that he is the bread of life. We also hear Jesus add that he is the living bread. Both of these statements help us understand better the gift that Jesus gives us in the Eucharist. We celebrate this gift of Jesus each time we gather for Mass. We believe that receiving Jesus in the Eucharist will lead us to eternal life. (Loyola Press)

In the verses that follow, Jesus talks more about his unity with the Father. He is the one who has seen the Father and, therefore, knows the Father. Those who listen to God will recognize that

A Reflection on Mary's Assumption (See page 2 for Mass Times - a Holy Day of Obligation)

Mary's assumption into heaven can only be understood in the light of the death, resurrection and ascension of Jesus. Indeed, her assumption is only possible because she shares in the triumph of her Son over sin and death. This is a gift of grace. For Mary we might think of it as the final act in the drama of her life of faith and discipleship. When the angel Gabriel announced to her that she was to be the mother of the Messiah, she found within herself, again through God's grace, the courage and faith to say "yes" to all that God was asking of her. In the power of God's Spirit, which covered her with its shadow (see Luke 1:35), Mary lived a life of fidelity and obedience to God in union with her Son who was also her Lord. It was her union with him in life which meant that she would find herself in union with him also in the mystery of his death, his resurrection and his ascension into heaven. This is what it means to be "in Christ". This is what it means to be a member of Christ's body. (See 1 Corinthians 12:27) (cont. page 2)

Congratulations to Rev Dr David Ranson

Rev Dr David Ranson is the new Diocesan Administrator of the Diocese of Broken Bay, following Pope Francis' appointment of Most Rev Peter A Comensoli as Archbishop of Melbourne. The College of Consultors of the Diocese of Broken Bay met on Friday 3 August to fulfil its duty of electing a priest to serve as Diocesan Administrator. "I thank the Consultors for the confidence that they have placed in me by their election; and I assume this service to our local Church of Broken Bay with every sense of the responsibility that it entails," Fr David said. "We are blessed in the Diocese with strong leadership, including the College of Consultors, who I know will give great support and guidance during this time of transition."

Fr David has served most recently as Apostolic Administrator-Delegate and Vicar General (2015-2018) for the Diocese, and is a member of the Diocesan College of Consultors. He is currently Parish Priest of Holy Name Wahroonga.

Ordained to the Priesthood at Tarrawarra Abbey in 1992, Fr David was later incardinated into the Diocese of Broken Bay in 2006 whilst on appointment to the Catholic Institute of Sydney where he served from 2001-2015.

As Diocesan Administrator, Fr David will lead the Diocese of Broken Bay until the Holy Father, Pope Francis, appoints a new bishop. During this period between bishops, Canon Law states that there can be no innovation, but the many initiatives of the previous ordinary, Bishop Comensoli, can be progressed through to their conclusion, with many functions and ministries of the Church continuing as normal.

"We go forward progressing the many initiatives of Bishop Comensoli's exemplary leadership of the last three and half years, and, together, we await with prayerful and expectant hearts the appointment of a new Shepherd to lead us into the future,"

Fr David said.

With thanks to the Catholic Diocese of Broken Bay. CatholicOutlook .. By Jordan Grantham, 6 August 2018

A Reflection on Mary's Assumption ...

Mary's assumption is therefore a great sign and source of hope for us, for we too are called to be "in Christ"; we too are members of his body. As Saint Paul reminds us in the Letter to the Romans, "if we have died with Christ then we believe that we will also live with him" (Romans 6:8). This belief echoes the words of Jesus himself, found in John's Gospel: "If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also" (John 14:3).

In our belief in the assumption of Mary we give expression to our conviction, inspired by the Holy Spirit, that Jesus is faithful to his promise. Where Jesus now is, so too is Mary in the fullness of the risen life, "body and soul in heavenly glory".

In the liturgy on the Solemnity of the Assumption the Church addresses God the Father in these words: (Preface of the Assumption)

Today the virgin Mother of God was taken up into heaven to be the beginning and the pattern of the Church in its perfection, and a sure sign of hope and comfort for your people on their pilgrim way.

While Mary's assumption into heaven was and is a gift of grace for her, it is also a gift of grace for us. After Jesus himself, she is the first fruits of the gift of redemption (see 1 Corinthians 15:20). What God has done for Mary, God will also do for us. We too will one day be with the Lord, body and soul in heavenly glory. The Church's prayer to the Father goes on: (Preface of the Assumption)

You would not allow decay to touch her body for she had given birth to your Son, the Lord of all life, in the glory of the incarnation. Our response to God has not been as whole-hearted as Mary's, but we too, like her, have borne the Son of God in our hearts. We have received him in the gift of the Eucharist and we are the bearers of his promise that "those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day" (John 6:54).

In celebrating Mary's assumption into heaven we do not celebrate something which places Mary apart from us. Rather we celebrate something which places Mary among us as the first to receive the gift of salvation in all its fullness, a gift which the Lord also holds out to us. May this woman, given to us by Christ as our mother, be our companion on our journey of faith. May she, through her prayers and her presence in our lives, accompany us until we share with her the joy of salvation, body and soul, in the glory of heaven. (Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne –an extract from Kairos: Volume 20, Issue 14)

August Safeguarding Message "A child-focused complaints process is an important strategy for helping children and others in institutions to make complaints." (Royal Commission, Final Report 2017) This means:

- The process is not slow in addressing the concern/complaint,
- children know who to speak to if they have a concern/complaint,
- children are listened to, they are believed, they are supported and
- children feel comfortable and empowered by the complaints process.

The Year of Youth Cross for KCCP Itinerary of Events beginning on Saturday 18th August.

'Young people today live in a world sometimes difficult for us to understand. Ask them for little and they will give nothing; ask for much and they will give everything. Young people look for, and expect, a closeness between the ideal and the reality of life in the Church. They hope for, and demand, witnesses of holiness in whom they can place their trust, in a culture where little is trustworthy. Young people need a creed to believe in and a compass by which they can be guided, in order to channel their abundant energies for Christ. They need us to light the path ahead.'
(Most Rev Peter A Comensoli, Archbishop of Melbourne)

A Catholic Year of Youth (YOY) Broken Bay Pilgrim Cross was commissioned by the Diocese of Broken Bay and is being hosted by each Parish in its own special way.

SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMENT Paul Cramsie

NATIONAL APPEAL: ACRATH LOSE FEDERAL FUNDING
ACRATH (Australian Catholic Religious Against Trafficking in Humans) has launched a national fund-raising appeal after today's announcement from the Federal Government revealed that it would not be funding ACRATH this year. ACRATH's Executive Officer Christine Carolan said the organisation was now completely reliant on the generosity of the community to continue working to combat modern day slavery and forced marriage. 'We are very disappointed that the Government has not funded us for the coming year. But we are hopeful that the community, particularly the Catholic community, will support our work. We have come so far, but in some ways we are only just beginning to tackle emerging issues such as forced labour and forced marriage.' Ms Carolan said.
