WE CELEBRATE THE FEAST OF OUR PATRON SAINT ST BERNARD OF CLAIRVAUX

O Clement, O Loving, O Sweet Virgin Mary

Pray for us

O Holy

Mother of

God

That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Prayer to the Most Holy Name of Jesus (by Saint Bernard of Clairvaux.)

Jesus, the very thought of Thee with sweetness fills the breast!
Yet sweeter far Thy face to see and in Thy presence rest.
No voice can sing, no heart can frame, Nor can the memory find,
A sweeter sound than Jesus' name, The Saviour of mankind.
O hope of every contrite heart! O joy of all the meek!
To those who fall, how kind Thou art! How good to those who seek!
But what to those who find? Ah! this Nor tongue nor pen can show
The love of Jesus, what it is, none but His loved ones know.
Jesus! our only hope be Thou, as Thou our prize shalt be;
In Thee be all our glory now, and through eternity.

Amen.

The Memorare of St. Bernard

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary,
that never was it known
that anyone who fled to thy protection,
implored thy help,
or sought thy intercession
was left unaided.
Inspired with this confidence,
I fly unto thee,
O Virgin of virgins, my Mother.
To thee I come,
before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful.
O Mother of the Word Incarnate,
despise not my petitions,
but in thy mercy,
hear and answer me.

Amen.

A parish celebration for the Feast of St Bernard will follow the 9am Mass at St Bernard's, Berowra Heights today.

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY by Dianne Bergant CSA

The first reading describes a drama of national crisis, prophetic involvement and political power plays.

The fate of the prophet Jeremiah seems to be in the hands of a vacillating king, who is influenced first by the power establishment of Judah (v.5) and then by a lone court official from the land of Cush.

The word of God spoken by the prophet and the policies of the nation are in deadly conflict and Jeremiah appears to be the centre of contention. In such a situation, the one who speaks in God's name is likely to pay the price. This is exactly what happened.

The psalm is a prayer of thanksgiving for past deliverance. In view of this deliverance, the psalmist pleads for further help from God. The danger into which God reaches in order to rescue the psalmist is the pit or the swamp, both metaphors for death. The imagery is reminiscent of the ancient seasonal myths in which one of the gods descends into the abode of the dead only to rise again to new life. The metaphor gradually came to be used to speak of the descent of human beings in general. This psalm includes the hope of rising from misfortune. Having been drawn up out of danger, the psalmist is placed on a secure rock, a place of sound footing.

In this exhortation to endurance, the author of the Letter to the Hebrews skillfully employs the metaphor of a race. Just as the games were often held in a large stadium or amphitheatre that could hold the crowds that came to watch, so Christians are surrounded by a great crowd of witnesses (martyrs). Just as athletes are spurred on by the cheers of the people in the stands, so too Christians are encouraged by those who have preceded them.

Like runners, Christians should be unimpeded by unnecessary weight, the heaviest burden being sin itself. Jesus ran the race, and now he enjoys the crown which is the reward for his success. Christians now have Jesus as their model.

The picture of Jesus in this gospel passage is troubling if we think of him merely as a gentle messiah who came to spread peace throughout the world. Here he insists that his coming is comparable to a dramatic prophetic visitation. He has come to cast fire on the earth, to be baptised, and to cause division at the very heart of human society. It is not that Jesus is eager for these disturbing events in themselves to unfold. Rather, he himself burns with zeal for the accomplishment of his earthly mission, which, in calling for radical change, will inevitably include such consequences. While Jesus himself may have been a man of peace, the message that he proclaimed was clearly divisive. He made demands on people that challenged them to the very heart of their being. © Dianne Bergant CSA

From Archbishop Anthony Fisher

As you would know, the bill to legalise abortion up until birth, with very few safeguards for mothers or children, passed the Legislative Assembly.

... It now moves to an inquiry before a vote in the Upper House. To that end, a petition is being organised to ask Upper House members to vote against the bill.

I have asked that the petition be available for parishioners to sign at Masses [sic], and return promptly to the Archdiocese and in any event, by no later than Tuesday, 20 August 2019 so that petitions can be collated, counted and presented to the Legislative Council. If you have any enquiries, please contact Monica Doumit, Director of Public Affairs and Engagement, on 0417 102 103 or monica.doumit@sydneycatholic.org. Yours fraternally in Christ, +Anthony

At the back of our churches this weekend will be a petition to sign. As this needs to be returned by Tuesday, 20 August 2019 it is requested you take the opportunity to add your signature without delay.

Children's Liturgy @ KCCP
