

KU-RING-GAI CHASE CATHOLIC PARISH

'Seek God, Find God, Embrace God in Jesus'

25th November 2018 ~ Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe ~ Year B

The Lord is king: he is robed in majesty.

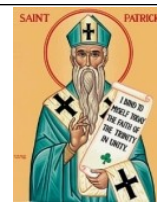

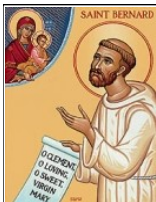

Dan 7: 13-14; Apoc 1:5-8; Jn 18:33-37

Our Mission Statement

'Help others to recognise, through their experiences, that Jesus who died and is risen is the truth that lights up their lives'

Our Vision Statement

'That the parishioners of Ku-ring-gai Chase Catholic Parish grow as missionary disciples and live as community in Christ inviting all people into our Parish, welcoming them to our Parish life and embracing the rich diversity of our community'

This Sunday is the last Sunday of the Church's liturgical year. On this Sunday we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King

In today's reading, we hear one of two dialogues between Jesus and Pilate that are reported in John's Gospel. Pilate questions Jesus about the charges brought against him. Caiaphas and the high priests have charged Jesus with a political crime, one that would require a punishment of death. Pilate distances himself from the Jewish leaders who accuse Jesus; he is not a Jew, and he seems to want little to do with this Jewish affair.

In his responses to Pilate's questions, Jesus distinguishes his kingdom from the political powers of this world. King and kingdom may be appropriate terms for Jesus' mission and promise, but only by analogy. Jesus is king, but not the kind of king we imagine or expect. He was certainly not the kind of king Pilate feared he might be.

Jesus refers to a kingdom that does not belong to this world.

This has been mentioned earlier in John's Gospel. Recall that in his prayer during the Last Supper discourse (see John 17:6-18),

Jesus prayed for his disciples who are in the world but do not belong to the world. Yet like Jesus, they are sent into the world for the world's salvation. In today's reading, we see Jesus identify the final proof that his kingdom is not of this world: If his kingdom were of this world, then there would be people fighting to save him. Again we hear echoes of John's theme—salvation is worked out through a cosmic battle. It is helpful to return to the first chapter of John's Gospel to understand the context for Jesus' words to Pilate. Jesus came into the world, but the world did not know him. In John's language, the world prefers the darkness, and yet the light will not be overcome by the darkness.

Truth has been another important theme in John's Gospel. We see it emphasized in the conclusion of the dialogue between Jesus and Pilate. Those who know the truth will recognize Jesus as king and will know how to interpret this insight. Yet Jesus' kingship was hidden from many of his contemporaries. Only those chosen, those who have the eyes of faith, are able to see. As modern disciples of Jesus, we also struggle at times to recognize Jesus as king. Today's Gospel invites us to see with eyes of faith that we might recognize that Jesus, through his crucifixion and death, is indeed king and Saviour of all. (Loyola Press)

Remembering all those who have been born to Eternal Life

During November we have remembered and prayed for our departed loved ones who have been called to Eternal Life.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

CHERISH THE MEMORY...Our Catholic Faith teaches us to cherish the memory of our dead. It urges us to commune in prayer, especially at Mass, with the souls of those we loved while they walked this Earth. We are continually reminded that "life is changed, not ended."

THE GOD OF LOVE...It is our belief that at the moment of death, we will experience our ultimate encounter with the God of Love. In this encounter, we will experience God more vividly than ever before because our spirit will be free of all human constraints. For some, this will be a very painful encounter because they will see their faults magnified in contrast with the goodness of God. Many believe that the pain of this encounter constitutes the essence of the doctrine of Purgatory. To own up to one's selfishness and meanness can be terribly painful, as we all know. To do so in the presence of Holiness Itself must constitute the ultimate purification.

"LOVE NEVER FAILS"...It is useless to speculate on the duration of this final, cleansing encounter with our God because "time," as we understand it on Earth, has no meaning in the realm of eternity. Hence, our Faith very sensibly teaches us to forget "time" and commune in prayer with our dead. Just as "the living" are helped over the rough spots of this early life by experiencing the love, sympathy and solidarity of their friends, so also we believe that the dead are consoled and helped as they pass through the often painful "cleansing" of their ultimate encounter with God. How sad it is when we get so hung up on the earthly concept of "time" that we allow our active love and concern to stop at the moment of earthly death.

FULL OF HOPE AND LOVE...During the month of November, we [offered] Mass each day for the Holy Souls. As Christ commanded that the Mass be offered for all time so that the meaning of His death would never be forgotten, so we offer Mass for our dead in the sure and certain knowledge that, because of Christ's death, they have eternal life. Our Catholic devotion to the Holy Souls, far from being morbid, is actually full of hope and love. It speaks to something very deep within us, where spirit communes with spirit, whether we realise it or not.

Something fun for our young (and young at heart) parishioners - The 12 Days of Christmas

In England, between 1558 and 1829, it was not legal for Catholics to practice their kind of Christianity in public or private. Being a Catholic was treated as a bad crime. If you even owned a Catholic Bible, you could be put in prison!

'The Twelve Days of Christmas' was written in England at the beginning of this time. Some people think that it was written to help children learn about their Catholic religion. In the carol, the days are supposed to represent special symbols but there's NO evidence that this is true and it seems most likely just to be a folk song and that the special 'Catholic' meanings were added at a MUCH later date!

The 12 Days of Christmas refer to the twelve day period that starts with Christmas day and ends on Epiphany (6th January).

Next week we will have the meanings of the next 3 days—we hope you have fun colouring in your pictures for each day

The 'partridge in a pear tree' means God. (In 'The Twelve Days of Christmas', it can also mean Jesus who died on the cross. In ancient times a partridge was often used as a mythological symbol of a divine, sacred king. Partridges weren't introduced into England, from France, until the 1770s.

The 'two turtle doves' are the Old and New Testaments of the Bible.

The 'three French hens' are the Christian Trinity: God the Father, His Son Jesus and the Holy Spirit. (The hens could also mean faith, hope and love - the three gifts of the Holy Spirit. [See 1 Corinthians 13]; or the Wise men who visited Jesus; or the three gifts they brought him!)

We are still in need of 3 volunteers for maintenance at St Patrick's Asquith.

The commitment is not too onerous, eg: some mowing, weeding, blower vacuuming and done by a small group which is rostered across one month every 7 months.

Those on the roster already would love to help you achieve that resolution.

'Rejoice and Be Glad' Discussion Guide.

Pope Francis' Apostolic Exhortation Gaudete et Exsultate (Rejoice and Be Glad) invites every person to a path of holiness.

Now available on the diocesan website PDF format can be printed as an A4 booklet, or as individual sessions.

A 5-week Discussion Guide has been prepared to encourage engagement with this document, and it would be a suitable Advent resource for small groups.

The weekly sessions correspond to the chapters within the document:

Week 1 - The call to holiness is meant for everyone, each in our own way, so that we become what God had in mind when we were created.

Week 2 - We can block our holiness when we think it is only about what we know, or when we try to do it on our own without God's grace.

Week 3 - The Beatitudes is the way we grow in holiness. It is the Christian's identity card.

Week 4 - The signs of holiness in our life are perseverance, joy, boldness, community, prayer.

Week 5 - Christian life is a battle, and we need to discern the promptings of the Holy Spirit.
