

MANLY FRESHWATER CATHOLIC PARISH

Mary Immaculate and St John the Baptist Churches

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 11th August 2024

Gospel Reflection

From time immemorial bread has been the “staff of life,” the basic and most important food in everyone’s diet. To the “murmuring” Jews (“murmuring” as their ancestors did in the desert), Jesus tries to help them see the deeper meaning of his claim to be “bread come down from heaven.” Christ is the “bread of heaven” that transcends this experience of life to the life of God. Christ the bread is the love, justice and compassion of God incarnate; God, our “Father,” is revealed in him.

The operative verbs in today’s Gospel are “believe” and “trust”: God provides for and sustains our faith in his gift of Jesus the Bread of life in the same way that First Testament wisdom nourished all who paid heed.

THINGS YOU DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT THE MASS

The opponent St Benedict couldn't beat

Saint Benedict is a champ.

The saint overcame many adversaries in his life. Monks who poisoned his bread, thieves who robbed his monastery, brothers who betrayed his rule, disciples who attacked his reforms, and many many more...

And yet, there was one opponent St Benedict could not beat – his sister. The story goes that, one day, Benedict came to visit his sister Scholastica at her convent. They spent the day, joyfully singing psalms and reminiscing, but when evening came, despite his sister's pleas, Benedict insisted that he depart home - he was bound to obedience. Scholastica was distraught. She loved her brother dearly. So she folded her hands in prayer, looked heavenward, and immediately, down poured rain so violently, her brother was forced to stay.

What a story! I love it, both because of St Scholastica's love for her brother and the power of a faithful prayer. Speaking of such prayers, let's look today at a related part of the Mass – The Prayers of the Faithful.

Specifically, what are they, and why do we offer them?

Firstly, the Prayers of the Faithful go back to the very beginnings of The Catholic Church. The early Christian saint, Justin Martyr, writes in The First Apology (150 AD): "After the homily of the bishop, we all stand and raise our prayers... for our own selves, for those who have just been lighted up [baptised], and for all the rest, found elsewhere." The people then responded with Kyrie eleison ("Lord, have mercy") or some other invocation. Catholics retain this practice – of praying for the needs of the Church and of the world, to this very day. Its a beautiful way by which we 'love our neighbour'.

Secondly, and this is critical: our prayers of petition work. So often Our Lord simply waits for us to ask Him for some good thing before He bestows it (James 4:2). And yet so often, even when God answers our prayers, we forget and easily attribute it to some secondary 'natural' cause, forgetting that "every perfect gift is from above, coming from the Father of lights" (James 1:17). But prayer is powerful. Far greater good in the world is contributed by the cloistered religious and humble souls who pray for others at daily Mass – than politicians and influencers who everyday fill our television screens and social media feeds. Simply put, our prayers work.

So then, what shall we do?

Well, this Mass, let us listen attentively – to each of the Prayers of the Faithful. How easy it is for us to get lost and fall into the rhythm of saying: "Lord, hear our prayer", without even hearing the prayer ourselves.

To overcome this, here's a little tip I've found helpful...

For each intention, think of one person who relates to the intention, and offer your prayer for them. So if the prayer is for the sick, think of a friend or family member who is sick. If the prayer is for church leaders, think of a priest or bishop you wish to pray for. Or if it is for the homeless, think of someone you know in housing difficulty. Then offer that specific person to God.

God so often answers our prayers – if but only we ask.

God bless you. Seminarian Matthew

Year of Prayer

Our Vicar General, Very Rev Dr David Ranson, has prepared a Meditation Series of Christian Prayer. This is in preparation for the 2025 Jubilee.

The Introduction to the series and the first three videos in the series can be found at <https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/mission/year-of-prayer> or on the Diocese YouTube channel

An excellent series!

The Year of Prayer is meant to help Catholics individually and as a community to prepare to receive God's grace.

May prayer be the compass that guides, the light that illuminates the path and the strength that sustains us on the pilgrimage that will lead to entering the Holy Door in 2025, the traditional sign of having made a jubilee pilgrimage. Through prayer, may we arrive at the Holy Door with our hearts ready to welcome the gifts of grace and forgiveness that the Jubilee offers as a vivid expression of our relationship with God.

I am the bread of life

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B

Jesus gives us many things

Jesus had faith and trust in God, and he asks us to have faith and trust in him. Draw a picture of someone you love, who you have faith in and trust.

He gives us bread to eat.
Where do we eat his bread?

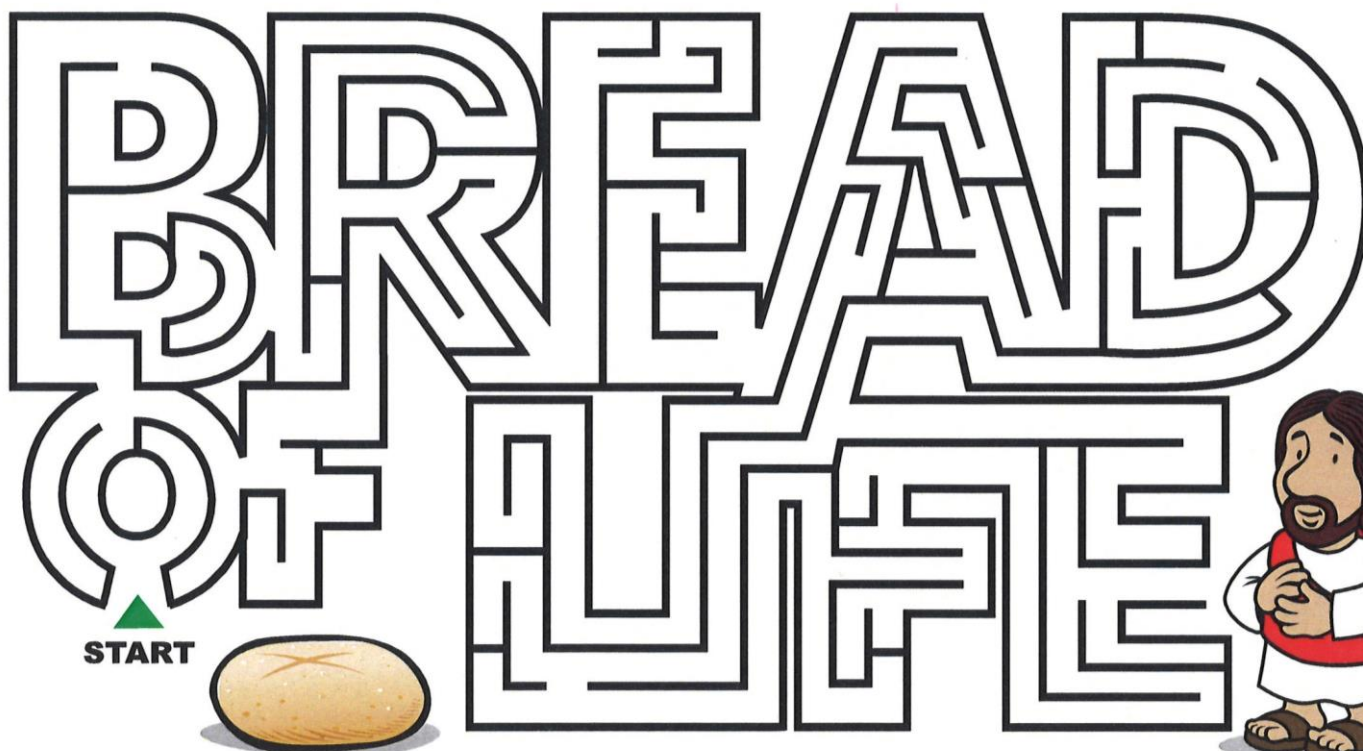

He gave us his life.
Where did he give us his life?

He gives us love. How do we feel Jesus' love in our lives?

Can you make your way through the BREAD OF LIFE maze?

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time– Year B

Note: The readings for the Freshwater Family Mass will be taken from the Children's Lectionary.

First Reading

1 Kings 19:4-8 (JB)

A reading from the first book of the Kings

Strengthened by the food, he walked to the mountain of the Lord.

Elijah went into the wilderness, a day's journey, and sitting under a furze bush wished he were dead. 'Lord,' he said 'I have had enough. Take my life; I am no better than my ancestors.' Then he lay down and went to sleep. But an angel touched him and said, 'Get up and eat.' He looked round, and there at his head was a scone baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again. But the angel of the Lord came back a second time and touched him and said, 'Get up and eat, or the journey will be too long for you.' So he got up and ate and drank, and strengthened by that food he walked for forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God.

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 33:2-9 (JB)

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast. The humble shall hear and be glad. R.

Glorify the Lord with me. Together let us praise his name. I sought the Lord and he answered me; from all my terrors he set me free. R.

Look towards him and be radiant; let your faces not be abashed. This poor man called; the Lord heard him and rescued him from all his distress. R.

The angel of the Lord is encamped around those who revere him, to rescue them. Taste and see that the Lord is good. He is happy who seeks refuge in him. R.

Second Reading

Ephesians 4:30 - 5:2 (JB)

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

Walk in love, just as Christ.

Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God who has marked you with his seal for you to be set free when the day comes. Never have grudges against others, or lose your temper, or raise your voice to anybody, or call each other names, or allow any sort of spitefulness. Be friends with one another, and kind, forgiving each other as readily as God forgave you in Christ.

Try, then, to imitate God, as children of his that he loves, and follow Christ by loving as he loved you, giving himself up in our place as a fragrant offering and a sacrifice to God.

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 6:51 (JB)

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 6:41-51 (JB)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

I am the living bread come down from heaven.

The Jews were complaining to each other about Jesus, because he had said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' 'Surely this is Jesus son of Joseph' they said. 'We know his father and mother. How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?' Jesus said in reply, 'Stop complaining to each other.

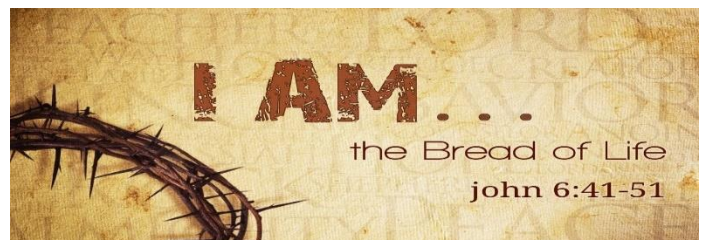

'No one can come to me unless he is drawn by the Father who sent me, and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the prophets:

They will all be taught by God, and to hear the teaching of the Father, and learn from it, is to come to me. Not that anybody has seen the Father, except the one who comes from God: he has seen the Father. I tell you most solemnly, everybody who believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the desert and they are dead; but this is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that a man may eat it and not die.

I am the living bread which has come down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'

The Gospel of the Lord
