Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 9th June 2024

INSTALLATION MASS

Rev Fr Chima Ofor

Dear Brethren in Christ,

It is with great joy and gratitude that I write to you on the occasion of my installation as your new parish priest. Today is a momentous day for our parish, a day filled with the promise of new beginnings and renewed commitment to our shared mission.

First and foremost, I extend a heartfelt welcome to Bishop Anthony, who has graciously come to install me in this sacred role. Your presence, Bishop Anthony, is a profound blessing to us all, and we are deeply honoured by your guidance and support. Your leadership inspires us to deepen our faith and live out our call to discipleship with renewed vigour.

To all the parishioners who have eagerly looked forward to this occasion and who gather here today to witness this important event, thank you. Your presence is a testament to the strength and unity of our parish community. I am deeply moved by your warmth and welcome, and I am excited to embark on this journey of faith with you.

I also want to extend my sincerest gratitude to everyone who worked tirelessly to make this ceremony a success. Your efforts reflect the spirit of service and love that defines our parish.

As I step into this role, I carry with me hopes and dreams for our parish. Together, I believe we can create a vibrant community where our mission and discipleship glorify God in all we do. It is my fervent prayer that our parish becomes a place where people come to encounter Christ in profound and transformative ways.

Let us strive to be a beacon of light and hope, reaching out to those in need and welcoming all who seek solace and strength in our midst. Together, we can build a community grounded in faith, love, and service, a community that reflects the heart of Christ and the mission of His Church.

I look forward to journeying with you, growing in faith and love, and witnessing the incredible work God will do in our lives and in our parish. May the Sacred Heart of Jesus guide us, and may we always seek to honour and glorify God in all that we do.

Fr Chima

You are invited to join us for this celebration this Sunday 9 June at 10:30am Mass followed by lunch.

Manly Freshwater Parish's participation in the Northern Beaches Pastoral Discernment Project

These forums will be held on Sunday 16th June at 11:30am in Manly Church Hall and Sunday 23rd June 2024 at 10am in Freshwater Church Hall

THINGS YOU DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT THE MASS.

The truth worth dying for.

When Hollywood actor Jack Nicholson, in the 1992 blockbuster 'A Few Good Men', boomed that famous line across the military courtroom, I believe he issued a prophecy:

"You can't handle the TRUTH!"

Seems, nowadays, people don't like the word truth.

Nowadays, whenever we declare something to be true, or when we say I firmly believe in something, I notice many people get – uncomfortable. Indeed, people often feel the need to make excuses for such statements – "Well that's your truth, I have my truth."

... as if the truth is no longer objective, no longer something that binds us together.

And sure, we can talk about all the debates on the truth of gender and sexuality, marriage and family, life and healthcare – these are important issues. But the fact is, these issues are downstream from a greater one; one that Catholics declare every Sunday.

Every Sunday, Catholics stand up and together recite the Creed. The Profession of Faith. You know the one - "I believe in one God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth..." Catholics here declare a whole list of things to be true. One God. Creator Father. Redeemer Son. Holy Spirit. One Church. Forgiveness of sins. Life everlasting.

Every line, indeed every word, that we recite in the Creed - is the result of vigorous debate over the centuries, as well as fervent prayer, intelligent study, all guided by the Holy Spirit, culminating in the Nicene-Constantinople Creed of the Council of Chalcedon in 451 AD.

Lives have been lost defending these truths.

Whether it be against the Gnostics in the first century who denied Jesus was man, the Arians in the fourth who denied Jesus was God, or the Pelagians in the fifth who taught humans could earn their way to Heaven themselves – only the heroic virtue of those Christian faithful who stood up for these truths – can we still stand up and declare them today.

Still, you might say, is the Creed really worth dying for, though?

Friends, take a look at our world right now. Never before has there been so much confusion, so much wandering, listlessness, starving for meaning and purpose. I see it in young people all the time. They seek the truth.

This world is missing the truth. This world is missing God.

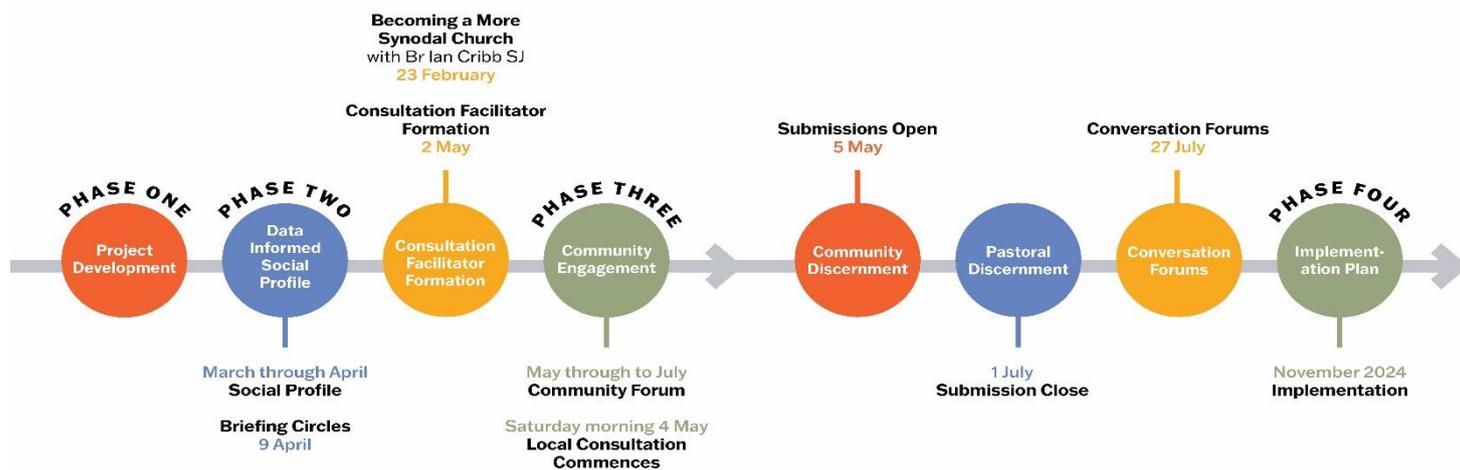

So today, dear friends, in the midst of a world intent on destroying the very idea of truth, including the most fundamental truth of God – here we stand boldly together as Catholics, and declare the truth. Guided by the Holy Spirit, the Creed we recite is the truth!

So proclaim it boldly. Because you stand alongside a whole congregation of believers, living and dead, and with them, you speak the truth.

Not your truth. Not my truth. The truth.

May God bless you. Seminarian Matthew

Gospel Reflection

A central theme of Mark's Gospel is how Jesus' hearers (especially the Twelve) fail to comprehend the deeper meaning of his words and actions. The wild charges made by the scribes and the apologies offered by his family in today's Gospel indicate just how misunderstood Jesus was by those closest to him:

The Jesus who calls his disciples to be a united "house" and community is dismissed by his own "house" as "out of his mind." Apologizing for his exorbitant claims about himself and his challenging their most cherished traditions and revered institutions, his family attempts to bring Jesus home.

The Jesus who cast out demons and cured the sick is charged with being possessed himself. The scribes cannot grasp the single-minded dedication of Jesus to the will of God without the "filters" of their interpretations and direction; hence, he must be an agent of Satan, the prince of demons. (Remember that whatever the people of Gospel Palestine could not understand or explain was considered the work of "demons.")

The Jesus who comes to be a vehicle of unity among God's people calls on his hearers to be united in faith and spirit in him in seeking God's will in all things. The Gospel Jesus destroys the barriers created by race, culture, wealth and social status. He speaks of a new, united human family: the family of God. To fail or refuse to build God's kingdom of grace is to "blaspheme" against the Spirit of God: to be so mired in cynicism and skepticism that we refuse to embrace the possibilities for realizing the hope of God's grace. For Jesus, the crushing pessimism that God's grace is inaccessible to us condemns us to lives of sadness and isolation, not the lives of meaning and joy God envisions for us.

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time– Year B

First Reading

Genesis 3:9-15 (JB)

A reading from the book of Genesis

I will make you enemies of each other: your offspring and her offspring.

The Lord God called to the man after he had eaten of the tree. 'Where are you?' he asked. 'I heard the sound of you in the garden;' he replied 'I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid.' 'Who told you that you were naked?' he asked. 'Have you been eating of the tree I forbade you to eat?' The man replied, 'It was the woman you put with me; she gave me the fruit, and I ate it.' Then the Lord God asked the woman, 'What is this you have done?' The woman replied, 'The serpent tempted me and I ate.'

Then the Lord God said to the serpent, 'Because you have done this, 'Be accursed beyond all cattle, all wild beasts. You shall crawl on your belly and eat dust every day of your life. I will make you enemies of each other: you and the woman, your offspring and her offspring. It will crush your head and you will strike its heel.'

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 129 (JB)

R. With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord, Lord, hear my voice! O let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleading. R.

If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who would survive? But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you. R.

My soul is waiting for the Lord, I count on his word. My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak. R.

Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity. R.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 4:13 - 5:1 (JB)

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

We believe, and therefore we speak.

As we have the same spirit of faith that is mentioned in scripture - I believed, therefore I spoke - we too believe and therefore we too speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus to life will raise us with Jesus in our turn, and put us by his side and you with us. You see, all this is for your benefit, so that the more grace is multiplied among people, the more thanksgiving there will be, to the glory of God.

That is why there is no weakening on our part, and instead, though this outer man of ours may be falling into decay, the inner man is renewed day by day. Yes, the troubles which are soon over, though they weigh little, train us for the carrying of a weight of eternal glory which is out of all proportion to them. And so we have no eyes for things that are visible, but only for things that are invisible; for visible things last only for a time, and the invisible things are eternal.

For we know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us, an everlasting home not made by human hands, in the heavens.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 12:31, 32 (JB)

Alleluia, alleluia!

The prince of this world will now be cast out, and when I am lifted up from the earth I will draw all to myself, says the Lord.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 3:20-35 (JB)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

It is the end of Satan.

Jesus went home, and such a crowd collected that they could not even have a meal. When his relatives heard of this, they set out to take charge of him, convinced he was out of his mind.

The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying: 'Beelzebul is in him' and, 'It is through the prince of devils that he casts devils out.' So Jesus called them to him and spoke to them in parables, 'How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom can not last. And if a household is divided against itself, that household can never stand. Now if Satan has rebelled against himself and is divided, he can not stand either - it is the end of him. But no one can make his way into a strong man's house and burgle his property unless he has tied up the strong man first. Only then can he burgle his house.

'I tell you solemnly, all men's sins will be forgiven, and all their blasphemies: but let anyone blaspheme against the Holy Spirit and he will never have forgiveness: he is guilty of an eternal sin.' This was because they were saying, 'An unclean spirit is in him.'

The mother and brothers of Jesus arrived and, standing outside, sent in a message asking for him. A crowd was sitting round him at the time the message was passed to him, 'Your mother and brothers and sisters are outside asking for you.' He replied, 'Who are my mother and brothers?' And looking round at those sitting in a circle about him, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers. Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother.'

The Gospel of the Lord

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
