Gospel Reflection for Pentecost Sunday

The Trinity is not a mathematical conundrum but God's self-revelation as Love.

St Paul concludes his Second Letter to the Corinthians with the lovely words frequently used as a greeting to us at the beginning of Mass: 'The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all' (13:3). This Trinitarian formula celebrates the glowing heart of our lives as creatures, as disciples and Church. When we consider the mystery of our existence, well might we ask: 'What is man that you should keep him in mind, mortal man that you care for him?' God has answered us in human experience: The Father so loved the world he had created in Christ that he sent his only Son that we might have eternal life in the Holy Spirit.

God, Father, Son and Spirit, has crowned us with glory and honour. It is only right that we respond: Glory to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was and who is to come.

WHY WE DO THE THINGS WE DO

Why do we sign ourselves before the Gospel?

The Church distinguishes between the 'large' sign of the cross (made with right hand outstretched on forehead, chest and shoulders) and the 'small' sign of the cross (made with the thumb on forehead, mouth and chest). With this latter action just prior to the reading of the Gospel, we are asking God's blessing upon our thoughts, words and desires. Next time you make this sign, be aware that you are praying to open yourself to God's Word.
