REFLECTION 19TH SEPTEMBER Mk 8:27-35

Reproduced from God's Word 2021: Daily Reflections, published by St Pauls Publications, Strathfield

Passing through Galilee, en route to Jerusalem with the Twelve, Jesus told them that an ignominious death at the hands of his enemies awaited him, after which he would rise again. Not surprisingly, this provoked an animated discussion among these often uncomprehending disciples who seemed to be more concerned about their future prospects and their personal status within the group than about Jesus' imminent demise. When they reached Capernaum, where Peter's mother-in-law lived, Jesus put them on the spot by asking what they had been arguing about. With good reason they were embarrassed and chose not to respond. At this point in their commitment to Jesus, lacking the simplicity and candour of a child, they had yet to understand, much less accept, the true nature of Jesus' mission as God's 'Suffering Servant'. Unmindful of his predilection for the poor and the outcast, they also failed to comprehend that the glory of God could shine forth most brilliantly in the face of the crucified Christ. In our own day Pope Francis has frequently drawn attention to Jesus' words, 'If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself last of all and servant of all'—words we must take to heart, clergy and laity alike.

PRAYER: Jesus, by word and deed you taught the importance of serving others. Help us to realise that service is the authentic response of a genuine disciple. May we also learn to be as little children, looking to you with complete trust in your love for us. Amen

Welcome to the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this week's Gospel reading, we continue to see the disciples' lack of understanding of the teachings of Jesus as they squabble over which one of them is the greatest. How do we respond to Jesus' instruction that if we want to be first, we must be servant of all? Following Jesus means a self-emptying, a life lived for others, not just for ourselves.

Sunday Mass 19th September 2021 THE LITURGY OF THE WORD *Reproduced from Liturgia

FIRST READING WISDOM 2:12, 17-20

The godless say to themselves, 'Let us lie in wait for the virtuous man, since he annoys us and opposes our way of life, reproaches us for our breaches of the law and accuses us of playing false to our upbringing. Let us see if what he says is true, let us observe what kind of end he himself will have. If the virtuous man is God's son, God will take his part and rescue him from the clutches of his enemies. Let us test him with cruelty and with torture, and thus explore this gentleness of his and put his endurance to the proof. Let us condemn him to a shameful death since he will be looked after - we have his word for it.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 53:3-6, 8

R. The Lord upholds my life.

O God, save me by your name; by your power, uphold my cause. O God, hear my prayer; listen to the words of my mouth. R.

For proud men have risen against me, ruthless men seek my life. They have no regard for God. R.

But I have God for my help. The Lord upholds my life. I will sacrifice to you with willing heart and praise your name for it is good. R.

SECOND READING JAMES 3:16 - 4:3

Wherever you find jealousy and ambition, you find disharmony, and wicked things of every kind being done; whereas the wisdom that comes down from above is essentially something pure; it also makes for peace, and is kindly and considerate; it is full of compassion and shows itself by doing good; nor is there any trace of partiality or hypocrisy in it. Peacemakers, when they work for peace, sow the seeds which will bear fruit in holiness. Where do these wars and battles between yourselves first start? Isn't it precisely in the desires fighting inside your own selves? You want something and you haven't got it; so you are prepared to kill. You have an ambition that you cannot satisfy; so you fight to get your way by force. Why you don't have what you want is because you don't pray for it; when you do pray and don't get it, it is because you have not prayed properly, you have prayed for something to indulge your own desires.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION CF 2 THESSALONIANS 2:14

Alleluia, alleluia! God has called us with the gospel to share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL MARK 9:30-37

After leaving the mountain Jesus and his disciples made their way through Galilee; and he did not want anyone to know, because he was instructing his disciples; he was telling them, 'The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of men; they will put him to death; and three days after he has been put to death he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he said and were afraid to ask him.

They came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the road?' They said nothing because they had been arguing which of them was the greatest. So he sat down, called the Twelve to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself last of all and servant of all.' He then took a little child, set him in front of them, put his arms round him, and said to them, 'Anyone who welcomes one of these little children in my name, welcomes me; and anyone who welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

SAFEGUARDING MONTH

This week we remember in our prayers the safety and wellbeing of Children and Young People especially those who are particularly vulnerable due to COVID-19.

Thank you to Bishop Anthony for celebrating Safeguarding Sunday Mass on 12 September. The Mass was live streamed from the Cathedral. I found Bishop's homily thought provoking as it encouraged me to reflect on my own faith journey and the manner in which I personally and we as a community respond to those who are vulnerable. Most Rev Anthony Randazzo
Bishop of Broken Bay

Message for BBNeighbourhoods
14 September 2021

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Like many of you, I watched the news last week with great interest about the disappearance, search and rescue of "AJ", the three-year-old boy who was lost for several days in rugged NSW bushland. This amazing little boy survived three nights in the bush in freezing temperatures without food or water, sustaining minor injuries before being reunited with his family. It was a heart-wrenching story of initial despair and anguish, progressing to the mobilisation of the community and finally, to hope and elation once AJ was found safe and sound.

My interest was also captured because of the way that the community responded and took action. From many reports, people from across the whole community participated in the desperate search which lasted over 72 hours. They provided support for family and friends in their time of need. All this in the midst of a global pandemic. I am confident that had this incident occurred in our own community, many of us would not have hesitated instinctively to participate in the search for a lost person as well as offer support to the family.

This led me to reflect on the importance of communal safety. It is incumbent on us, as individuals and as a community, to be aware and to take action in situations where the safety of the vulnerable is in jeopardy. We are never merely individuals, isolated or alone. We find ourselves belonging to multiple groups and communities within the one human family. As such, one eye is constantly on the higher goal of the common good. As sisters and brothers of Jesus Christ, our vocation is to care for and cultivate the communion we share in Christ and with each other. Central to our vocation is the need to foster communities of safety and care for all people.

As Safeguarding is a Diocesan focus this month, we seek to ensure children and vulnerable people are provided with the fundamental right to be kept safe and respected. This right is held sacred because Jesus himself showed us how to do so in the Gospels. It is the Gospel that sets the standard for us as a community of the Church. The Good News of Jesus has the power to convert, renew, and reform us as individuals and as a community. In Broken Bay, our awareness is heightened by the commitment and energy required to ensure that everyone is educated and focused on their obligations and responsibilities for the safeguarding of children, young people, and vulnerable adults.

My thoughts are also very much with you at this time that our Church buildings are closed. I have previously indicated that our compliance with the government health orders is to minimise the risk of infection during our gatherings. I understand the pain and anguish that this is causing all of us, myself included, however, I ask you once again to pray fervently for an end to this pandemic. The knowledge that vulnerable people are being protected and cared for must outweigh the inconvenience and distress that many are feeling

It is my hope and desire that as we prepare for the re-opening of our churches, that our community of the Church will respond with the spirit of cheerfulness required to gather to celebrate the Mass and the Sacraments. In the meantime, let us encourage one another, especially those who are troubled or restless. Let us never lose sight of our life in Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit.

My continued prayers for our communal well-being and safety during these challenging times.

+Anthony

Here to help at home

Local aged care provider, Catholic Healthcare, continues to deliver in-home services to older people in the community.

“Home Care is considered an essential service,” says Nicola Rosenthal, Regional Manager, Home & Community Services. “All Home Care services are continuing as normal except for our Wellness Centre at Hamlyn Terrace.

“We are monitoring Government advice and keeping up-to-date with changing restrictions. We have comprehensive COVID-19 protocols in place to minimise risk for clients and staff. Protocols include updated mandatory staff training on infection control and handwashing; mask wearing; pre-visit screening; and reminding staff to stay home if they are unwell. We are also actively encouraging staff and clients to be vaccinated for COVID-19.”

The Catholic Healthcare team can provide extra shopping and social support.

“Our Community Workers can accompany and transport clients to their local grocery store or help make purchases online. If clients would prefer to remain in their homes, we can do their shopping and drop it off at their home.

“Our teams have also adjusted our social support groups and can move these to one-on-one connection. We can organise check in phone calls from one of our caring team members or volunteers to help support social, emotional, and spiritual wellbeing.”

Catholic Healthcare’s local team can provide COVID-safe support for older people struggling with possessions and assist with decluttering. They are also offering a program, Buried in Treasures, which commences on 30th of August. Please go to [Buried In Treasures \(catholichealthcare.com.au\)](http://Buried In Treasures (catholichealthcare.com.au)) to register - please note you do have to be over a certain age to attend.

Staff are also available to walk through the My Aged Care website, to discuss aged care options.

“Our Care Advisors are available to assist you,” says Nicola. “They can speak to you via video conferencing, by phone or if preferred, in person at your home. Please call 1800 225 474.”

Or visit the Catholic Healthcare website www.catholichealthcare.com.au.

FOSTER CARE WEEK: WE NEED FOSTER CARERS

A struggle that rarely makes news headlines is that of children and young people in our community who are suffering. Many have been through experiences few of us could begin to fathom and who, without our help, will go through childhood without the love and support of a family. CatholicCare provides essential support, care and stability for these children and young people often affected by abuse and neglect, to enable them to recover and thrive. The reality is though, we just don't have enough carers. If you have a spare bedroom and the time to help, you'll be showing them they haven't been forgotten. We need carers for babies, right through to kids aged 18 years.

Please visit www.fostering.org.au for more information.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL - HELP AVAILABLE Lockdown assistance

Although our stores are closed the St Vincent de Paul support centres are open to provide emergency assistance of food parcels and Coles cards. If you or anyone you know is in need of assistance, please ring Wyong Support Centre on 4353 5614 (option 1) to make an appointment. Interviews are conducted by phone with contactless food pickup at the door.
