Gospel Reflection

Excerpt from; God's Word 2018: Daily Reflections

Today's Gospel shows contrasting attitudes to 'impossible' situations. First there is the woman who has suffered a haemorrhage for many years. Many doctors had tried to heal her condition but none were successful. It seemed there was no hope of a cure. But the woman thought otherwise. 'If only I can touch the hem of Jesus' cloak, I will be healed,' she believed. And indeed she was. Meanwhile the mourners in the house of Jairus, the synagogue official, knowing his daughter had died, urged Jairus not to put the Master to any further trouble. They even ridiculed Jesus when he said the daughter was not dead, only asleep. This Gospel challenges us to consider our own attitude to impossible situations? Do we sometimes give up and stop praying for a particular intention deciding that there is no hope, or in faith do we persevere in our prayer? Of Course, true faith is essentially faith in the infinite wisdom and love of God, not faith that God will always do what we want? But let us take heart from the wise teacher in today's first reading who assures us that God takes no pleasure in the extinction of the living. God created all things, including humans, to have health in them, not poison in any of its forms.

Because of Her, We can!

National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday 1 July 2018

The theme of this year's National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday is "Because of her, we can", and recognises Mothers, Sisters, Aunties, Grandmothers and Daughters that have been, and continue to be the thread which holds families together. They have fought for justice, reconciliation and social change, and women form the backbone of communities across Australia. It is time for us to celebrate and embrace the role that women play in our Ministries, our Church and our families.

Peter's Pence Collection

Peter's Pence Collection: This week we join with other Parishes across the world in taking up the Peter's Pence Collection. The Peter's Pence Collection provides for the charitable works and structures of mercy identified by His Holiness, Pope Francis. By supporting this collection, you join with other Parishes across the world in supporting projects identified by the Pope including emergency assistance to those in need due to natural disaster, war, oppression and disease. Our generosity allows the Holy Father to respond to those suffering with love and compassion.

The charitable projects that will directly benefit from the 2018 collection are as follows:

- Support for the Parish school of the Immaculate Conception of Al Huson in Jordan that welcomes young refugees from Syria.
