Reflection

Our Lord, JESUS CHRIST, KING of the UNIVERSE

Reproduced from God's Word 2022: Daily Reflections, published by St Pauls Publications, Strathfield

Today's readings speak about God restoring all things, all people, in Jesus, the King of the universe. And so we come rejoicing to the house of the Lord, whether physically or in spirit, aware of the mystery of God our Creator who goes on creating his kingdom, right where we are. What does Jesus say to the thief beside him, who asks to be remembered when Jesus comes into his 'kingdom'?...today you will be with me in paradise'. This is Jesus, our King –his throne a wooden cross, present today wherever there are criminals and outcasts. The attitude he teaches us to have towards our sisters and brothers, whatever their situation, is to include them and be with them in their struggles, as he is with us in our King for ever, has bestowed on us. With the repentant thief, may we take heart in Jesus' assurance that we will be with him for ever.

Bunnings BBQ

St Cecilia's Feast Day Tuesday 22nd November

Please come and join us at St Cecilia's Church on 22nd Nov @ the 8am Mass to celebrate St Cecilia's Feast Day.

Cecilia was martyred in the year 117. She is honoured as the Patron of religious music and is the patroness saint of our Church here in Wyong.

Like any good Christian she sang in her heart, and sometimes with her voice. She has become a symbol of the church's teaching that good music is an important part of the liturgy.

St Cecilia pray for us.

Sharing God's light – A gift in your will or a gift in memory of a loved one.

As you know, November is the month in which we pray for the deceased. It is timely to remind everyone that by leaving a gift to the Parish of Saint Cecilia in your Will, you will leave a legacy of faith – a legacy to help ensure that the mission and pastoral outreach that has been important to you and your family, will continue both for today's needs and into the future.

The work of our Church is far-reaching, touching the souls of many ... every day.

You may also choose to donate a gift in memory of some you have loved that is no longer with us.

A gift to our Church is the gift that keeps on giving.

Kind regards

Joe Cesca

Chairman of the Parish Finance Committee

The Diocese of Broken Bay will offer an Advent Resource this year titled 'The Gifts of Christmas', written by Fr David Ranson VG. The resource focuses on the gifts of Hope, Faith, Joy, and Peace, representing the four Advent candles that are lit during the season.

The booklet will be made available online in PDF format at www.bbcatholic.org.au in the leadup to Advent, which commences Sunday, 27 November. The program includes scripture, prayers, and guided reflective questions, and is able to be used individually or as part of a small group.

Sunday Mass 20 November 2022 Our Lord, Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading 2 Samuel 5:1-3

All the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron. 'Look' they said 'we are your own flesh and blood. In days past when Saul was our king, it was you who led Israel in all their exploits; and the Lord said to you, "You are the man who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you shall be the leader of Israel." So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a pact with them at Hebron in the presence of the Lord, and they anointed David king of Israel.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 121:1-5

R. Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

Second Reading Colossians 1:12-20

We give thanks to the Father who has made it possible for you to join the saints and with them to inherit the light.

Because that is what he has done: he has taken us out of the power of darkness and created a place for us in the kingdom of the Son that he loves, and in him, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins.

He is the image of the unseen God and the first-born of all creation; for in him were created all things in heaven and on earth: everything visible and everything invisible, Thrones, Dominions, Sovereignities, Powers - all things were created through him and for him.

Before anything was created, he existed, and he holds all things in unity.

Now the Church is his body, he is its head.

As he is the Beginning, he was first to be born from the dead, so that he should be first in every way; because God wanted all perfection to be found in him and all things to be reconciled through him and for him, everything in heaven and everything on earth, when he made peace by his death on the cross.

Gospel Acclamation Mark 11:9, 10

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our Father; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Alleluia!

Gospel Luke 23:35-43

The people stayed before the cross watching Jesus. As for the leaders, they jeered at him. 'He saved others,' they said 'let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One.' The soldiers mocked him too, and when they approached to offer him vinegar they said, 'If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself.' Above him there was an inscription: 'This is the King of the Jews.'

One of the criminals hanging there abused him. 'Are you not the Christ?' he said. 'Save yourself and us as well.' But the other spoke up and rebuked him. 'Have you no fear of God at all?' he said, 'You got the same sentence as he did, but in our case we deserved it: we are paying for what we did. But this man has done nothing wrong. Jesus,' he said 'remember me when you come into your kingdom.' 'Indeed, I promise you,' he replied 'today you will be with me in paradise.'

Vox Populi - Voice of the People 16 November 2022

Next Wednesday, 23 November 2022, we will be reminded of the 200 million Christians around the world who cannot freely exercise their faith. They suffer persecution and oppression for their love of Christ.

You will see images of cathedrals, churches and public buildings from many countries illuminate their facades in red, the colour of blood and martyrdom. This is an initiative of Aid to the Church in Need (ACN) which the Diocese of Broken Bay is also supporting in solidarity of the persecuted.

Founded as a Catholic aid organisation in 1947 for war refugees, ACN is the only international Catholic charity dedicated to the pastoral and spiritual support of suffering and persecuted Christians.

ACN launched their first RED Wednesday in 2016. It has now become a global tradition but sadly the number of people persecuted for their beliefs has increased.

Speaking in Sydney this week to raise awareness of the work of ACN, the Director of International Projects, Regina Lynch, who has been working with the organisation for more than 40 years, said she has seen the persecutioun of Christians shift from state actors to radicalised religious groups.

“I see a big difference from when I first joined, when the persecution was done in the name of countries,” she said.

“You still have traces of that in places like China and Cuba, but now, it’s really a radicalism of Islam and nationalistic governments who are pushing towards totalitarianism. There are definitely greater attacks on religious freedom than there were 20 years ago, partly because of globalisation and the internet.

“We’re doing more emergency projects with internally displaced people, rebuilding churches, helping construct a centre for training widows of men killed in violence, and helping with trauma healing, including with young woman who were kidnapped by Boko Haram,” she said.

The war in Ukraine has become a key concern for the organisation, which is providing key aid following Russian’s invasion earlier this year.

“We’re very close to the two Churches in the Ukraine, being the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church and the Latin Church,” said Ms Lynch.

“ACN has been working in the country for decades since the fall of communism, assisting in the formation of thousands of priests in Ukraine.

“We’ve really tried to help them to emerge from the ashes of communism and accompany them. We’d got to the stage, after rebuilding seminaries and renovating Churches, it was looking good.

“Today, we have the sad story of the war, and we have a lot of initiatives helping people, particularly in the east of Ukraine.”

ACN also maintains a strong presence in the Middle East, where countless Christians have been persecuted, particularly in areas such as Iraq and Syria. Economic crisis in Lebanon also threatens to expel a large proportion of the Maronite population there too.

The Diocese of Broken Bay will show our support, remember and pray for the persecuted tnext Wednesday when the façade of Our Lady of Dolours at Chatswood will be floodlit in red, and Bishop Anthony Randazzo will celebrate Mass at 7.30pm to which everyone is welcome.

The Church will also acknowledge the suffering of those in Ukraine with the country’s national colours of blue and yellow floodlighting the Church on the other days of the week.

PASTORAL WORKS Broken Bay

Pastoral Works Broken Bay is the pastoral charity of the Catholic community in Broken Bay.

In supporting our pastoral works you are helping our dedicated catechists provide thousands of state school students with a Catholic education; and helping us provide comfort, care, a listening ear and the sacraments to those who are vulnerable or experiencing loneliness, illness and isolation through our hospital chaplaincy program.

Our pastoral works also assist students with disability achieve their dreams, and provides practical support for the deaf community.

Your gift does make a difference. It maybe young people in schools, someone in hospital, a parish or the wider community.

My prayer is that Pastoral Works Broken Bay enables us to reach further and wider in helping our community, and more deeply connects us to our vision and the mission of Jesus. I am deeply grateful for your support.
