Jesus Christ, the Alpha and the Omega – A Lenten Program for the Diocese of Broken Bay

This year, parishes of the Diocese of Broken Bay will take part in a Diocesan Lenten Program, Jesus Christ, the Alpha and the Omega. This resource invites you to prayerfully reflect on the Sunday Gospel readings in Lent together with the six priorities set before us by Bishop Anthony Randazzo in his Pastoral Letter to the community of the Church of Broken Bay, dated 29 November 2020.

For each of the 6 weeks of Lent, this resource includes a reading of the Gospel text; a reflection on the text which draws on one of Bishop Anthony's priority areas; and a personal testimony on an aspect of that particular priority area. All materials and reflections have been prepared by members from our Broken Bay Church community, making this resource relevant to us and the journey we are on as a community.

Our Diocese of Broken Bay Lenten Program Jesus Christ, the Alpha and the Omega is now available to be viewed online in PDF format at www.bbcatholic.org.au/lentenprogram

"BE MORE"

THE THEME FOR PROJECT COMPASSION 2021 IS:

We are inspired by the quote
from St Oscar Romero, "Aspire not to have more, but to be more."

Instead of aspiring to have more,
we can focus on how we can BE more kind, more green, more involved, more aware, more giving.

This Lent, let us consider how we can 'BE MORE' for our neighbours around the world.

PLEASE NOTE

February the Parish office will only be open on:

SUNDAY MASS 21 FEBRUARY 2021 THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING GENESIS 9:8-15

God spoke to Noah and his sons, 'See, I establish my Covenant with you, and with your descendants after you; also with every living creature to be found with you, birds, cattle and every wild beast with you: everything that came out of the ark, everything that lives on the earth. I establish my Covenant with you: nothing of flesh shall be swept away again by the waters of the flood. There shall be no flood to destroy the earth again.'

God said, 'Here is the sign of the Covenant I make between myself and you and every living creature with you for all generations: I set my bow in the clouds and it shall be a sign of the Covenant between me and the earth. When I gather the clouds over the earth and the bow appears in the clouds, I will recall the Covenant between myself and you and every living creature of every kind. And so the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all things of flesh.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 24:4-9

R. Your ways, O Lord, are love and truth to those who keep your covenant.

SECOND READING 1 PETER 3:18-22

Christ himself, innocent though he was, died once for sins, died for the guilty, to lead us to God. In the body he was put to death, in the spirit he was raised to life, and, in the spirit, he went to preach to the spirits in prison. Now it was long ago, when Noah was still building that ark which saved only a small group of eight people 'by water', and when God was still waiting patiently, that these spirits refused to believe. That water is a type of the baptism which saves you now, and which is not the washing off of physical dirt but a pledge made to God from a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has entered heaven and is at God's right hand, now that he has made the angels and Dominations and Powers his subjects.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION MATTHEW 4:4

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory! No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

GOSPEL MARK 1:12-15

The Spirit drove Jesus out into the wilderness and he remained there for forty days, and was tempted by Satan. He was with the wild beasts, and the angels looked after him.

After John had been arrested, Jesus went into Galilee. There he proclaimed the Good News from God. 'The time has come' he said 'and the kingdom of God is close at hand. Repent, and believe the Good News.'

REFLECTION 21st February 2021

Reproduced from God's Word 2021: Daily Reflections, published by St Pauls Publications, Strathfield

On this first Sunday of Lent we are invited to journey into the wilderness with Jesus, a place of encounter and solitude. It was the Spirit who 'drove Jesus out into the wilderness and he remained there for forty days....' in the wilderness Jesus prayed, fasted and was tempted.

The forty days of Lent are also a time when we can be strengthened for the work that God has prepared for us. Are we aware of the ways that God desires to use our lives to reach out to others? Pope Francis invites us 'take advantage of Lent as the privileged time to purify ourselves in order to experience the consoling presence of God in our lives'.

Lord, help us to seek moments of being alone with you. Teach us, Lord, the value of silence and solitude in our life. Help us to seek you in this time.

Message for BBNeighbourhoods
16 February 2021

My dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

The Season of Lent is upon us once again as tomorrow is Ash Wednesday. Strangely, it is one of my favourite times in our liturgical year because of the potential that is hidden within the Season. There is a simplicity to our prayer and worship during Lent that seems to unclutter life and liberate us from the grind of a fast and furious world.

While I love the dimensions of prayer and fasting, I particularly appreciate the call of Jesus who gave his disciples a new commandment of Christ, “even as I have loved you, that you also love one another” (John 13:34). Charity means loving as Jesus loved. In the community of the Church, we seek to be witnesses to caritas Christi – the charity of Christ. It is more than simply doing good or registering as benefactors for worthwhile projects. The foundation to our charity, especially during Lent, is the example of Christ, who laid down his life for our salvation and for the salvation of the world. No greater love has any man or woman than this (cf John 15:13).

While the mission of the Church is understood to be spiritual in nature, we also embrace all the temporal aspects of human life. This Lent, I ask how might we do this with hearts and minds filled with the charity of Christ? How might we live and proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ so that all people, without exception, might know and feel the loving embrace of God? As the community of the Church of Broken Bay, how can we acknowledge, respect, and love the poor, the oppressed, the marginalised, and those who find themselves burdened by adversity, vulnerability, or powerlessness?

Inspired by the Word of God and nourished by the sacraments, I invite you to join with me as together we strive to bring to bear the charity of Christ which gives authentic witness to the faith we profess. The practice of charity reveals the “new commandment” which makes known to the world the new life of the children of God.

May the power of the Holy Spirit, who reveals the charity of Christ, strengthen us in our resolve to be disciples of Jesus in the world. The charity of Christ urges us!

+Anthony
