SOLEMNITY OF CHRIST THE KING

Our first reading today is taken from the Book of Daniel. We can describe Daniel as one of the great visionaries in the Bible. As Daniel tells us in the first reading today, 'I gazed into the visions of the night, and I saw ...' What a powerful statement that is! And what did he see? He saw Christ the King. As he said, 'I saw, coming on the clouds of heaven, one like a son of man.... On him was conferred sovereignty, glory, kingship, and men and women from all peoples, nations and languages served him. His sovereignty is an eternal sovereignty, which shall never pass away, nor will his empire ever be destroyed.'

If Daniel is the great visionary in the Bible, then Pontius Pilate, whom we meet in today's Gospel, is the Bible's great cynic - he has no vision at all, and he believes in nothing. The king of the Jews is standing before him and he cannot recognise him. And when Jesus says that his kingdom is a kingdom of truth, Pilate utters the ultimate cynical statement: 'Truth! What is that?' Pilate no longer believes in the transcendental values of truth, goodness, beauty and altruism. He is motivated purely by self-interest, taking no responsibility for his actions (indeed, washing his hands clean of them).

Occasionally we meet cynics who only have bad things to say about the world and the Church and faith. What we most need are visionaries, people who don't deny that much is wrong, but still manage to see the good. Let us ask Christ our King to open our eyes that, amid the challenges, self-interest and scepticism that abound, we may see the signs of his presence among us in the goodness, the kindness and the self-sacrifice of so many people.

RELIC SNIPPETS

We are overjoyed and ready for the installation of the Relic of St. Cecilia, at St. Cecilia's Church, Wyong. The Mass will be celebrated by the Very Reverend Dr David Ranson VG at 11am, 23rd of November 2024.

We look forward to seeing you all there!

CHRISTMAS EVE FAMILY MASS

We warmly invite children to take part in the cherished Christmas Eve Mass on the 24th of December at 5:00 pm. This beautiful celebration offers a wonderful opportunity for our children to participate in the joy and reverence of Christmas.

Should your child wish to participate, please contact the Parish Office on 4352 1011 or Jo Helm at joanne.helm@dbb.catholic.edu.au

We look forward to coming together as a community and celebrating the birth of Christ in a way that brings joy, warmth, and faith to all.

PARISH CONSULTATION EVENING

Dear Parishioners,

As your Parish Priest, I have been working with the Parish Finance Committee, Parish Pastoral Council, advisers, and key stakeholders to consider the future of our Parish, our sites at Wyong and Tumbi Umbi and our mission. The maintenance and other operating costs for the Parish with its two separate sites are considerable and our facilities at St. Cecilia's are in dire need of renewal. Despite the generous ongoing support of our community, the Parish can no longer rely solely on traditional sources of income such as Church collections and donations. We need to consider potential opportunities which will financially assist the Parish with its ongoing commitments. I would like our parishioners to join in this journey with me. An opportunity has arisen involving CatholicCare which I would like to discuss with you. For this reason, a community consultation has been organised for the evening of Tuesday 3 December 2024. All members of our Parish community are invited to attend and contribute to the discussion. I know it is a busy time of year, but your feedback will be important and greatly valued so I hope you can join us.

Blessings,
Fr Raul

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading - Daniel 7:13-14

A reading from the prophet Daniel

I gazed into the visions of the night. And I saw, coming on the clouds of heaven, one like a son of man. He came to the one of great age and was led into his presence. On him was conferred sovereignty, glory and kingship, and men of all peoples, nations and languages became his servants. His sovereignty is an eternal sovereignty which shall never pass away, nor will his empire be destroyed.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm - Ps 92:1-2, 50

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

Second Reading - Revelation 1:5-8

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the First-born from the dead, the Ruler of the kings of the earth. He loves us and has washed away our sins with his blood, and made us a line of kings, priests to serve his God and Father; to him, then, be glory and power for ever and ever. Amen. It is he who is coming on the clouds; everyone will see him, even those who pierced him, and all the races of the earth will mourn over him. This is the truth. Amen. 'I am the Alpha and the Omega' says the Lord God, who is, who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation - Mark 11:9, 10

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our Father; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Alleluia!

Gospel - John 18:33-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

'Are you the king of the Jews?' Pilate asked. Jesus replied, 'Do you ask this of your own accord, or have others spoken to you about me?' Pilate answered, 'Am I a Jew? It is your own people and the chief priests who have handed you over to me: what have you done?' Jesus replied, 'Mine is not a kingdom of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my men would have fought to prevent my being surrendered to the Jews. But my kingdom is not of this kind.' 'So you are a king then?' said Pilate. 'It is you who say it' answered Jesus. 'Yes, I am a king. I was born for this, I came into the world for this: to bear witness to the truth; and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
