REFLECTION 29.9.2024—26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings today give a graphic description of the importance of being focused on the things of God and not allowing words and practices to become a millstone around our neck. Moses and Jesus both say “No” to misguided understandings of the truth and urge their followers to open their eyes and hearts. The reality is that God’s Spirit moves freely and the Spirit of God is given to all of us. We need therefore to be open to the possibility that God’s Spirit is working in unexpected ways, particularly wherever there is passion and commitment to life, wholeness and healing. Where do I see this Spirit—in the Church and in the world? Perhaps in those who are prophetically leading us towards more awareness and care of creation and our environment? Perhaps in initiatives to gather together the vitality and enthusiasm of young people to create an inclusive community in our local area? To be open to the possibility that God’s Spirit may well be speaking to us, despite the way it comes, is the hope of Moses, fulfilled in Jesus and lived in our time.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading Numbers 11:25-29

A reading from the book of Numbers

The Lord came down in the Cloud. He spoke with Moses, but took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders. When the spirit came on them they prophesied, but not again.

Two men had stayed back in the camp; one was called Eldad and the other Medad. The spirit came down on them; though they had not gone to the Tent, their names were enrolled among the rest. These began to prophesy in the camp. The young man ran to tell this to Moses, 'Look,' he said 'Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.' Then said Joshua the son of Nun, who had served Moses from his youth, 'My Lord Moses, stop them!' Moses answered him, 'Are you jealous on my account? If only the whole people of the Lord were prophets, and the Lord gave his Spirit to them all!'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 18:8, 10, 12-14

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

Second Reading James 5:1-6

A reading from the letter of St James

An answer for the rich. Start crying, weep for the miseries that are coming to you. Your wealth is all rotting, your clothes are all eaten up by moths. All your gold and your silver are corroding away, and the same corrosion will be your own sentence, and eat into your body. It was a burning fire that you stored up as your treasure for the last days. Labourers mowed your fields, and you cheated them - listen to the wages that you kept back, calling out; realise that the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. On earth you have had a life of comfort and luxury; in the time of slaughter you went on eating to your heart's content. It was you who condemned the innocent and killed them; they offered you no resistance.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation cf John 17:17

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your word, O Lord, is truth:

make us holy in the truth.

Alleluia!

Gospel Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

John said to Jesus, 'Master, we saw a man who is not one of us casting out devils in your name; and because he was not one of us we tried to stop him.' But Jesus said, 'You must not stop him: no one who works a miracle in my name is likely to speak evil of me. Anyone who is not against us is for us.'

'If anyone gives you a cup of water to drink just because you belong to Christ, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward.'

'But anyone who is an obstacle to bring down one of these little ones who have faith, would be better thrown into the sea with a great millstone round his neck. And if your hand should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life crippled, than to have two hands and go to hell, into the fire that cannot be put out. And if your foot should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life lame, than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. And if your eye should cause you to sin, tear it out; it is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell where their worm does not die nor their fire go out.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

SIP Notice for Church Bulletin

Spirituality in the Pub (SIP) Meeting 7.30-9.00pm 1st October at the Grange Hotel, Wyoming (cnr. Renwick St & Pacific Hwy).

The guest speakers are Margaret Allen and Paul Corkeron.

Margaret Allen: A retired high school English teacher with a strong diverse Christian background, Margaret has worshipped as an Anglican for over 30 years. Undertaking a Bachelor of Divinity early on has enabled her to rethink many aspects of her faith. Current concerns relate to social justice, inequality, and how to communicate faith in Jesus when committed Christians are in a minority.

Paul Corkeron: A cradle Catholic, Paul was a member of a religious order for nearly 40 years. During this time he taught in schools, lectured at Teacher's College, and coordinated social welfare programs in Mount Druitt. Paul's current passion concerns our spiritual relationship with the Climate Change crisis.

Who Are The Catechists And What Do They Do?

A catechist is a person who gifts an hour or more each week to the Catholic children who attend the public schools. We have 4 public primary schools in our parish. The schools are Ettalong PS, Woy Woy PS, Woy Woy South PS and Umina PS.

The catechists prepare and present lessons from the Walking With Jesus programme, to the children. These lessons are about what it means to be a Catholic Christian. They are based on the Holy Scriptures and the teaching of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

If you wish to find out more about being a catechist, teaching the Catholic children in the public schools, come to the Catechist Meeting on Thursday, 27 June at 9:15 a.m. to meet the current catechists or contact Michael Tebbutt on 0437 440 169 for more information.

Why Do People Volunteer To Be Catechists?

As a volunteer catechist, you will be talking the Good News that Jesus suffered death and rose to new life, conquering death and sin for all of us and to extend the invitation to the children to become disciples of Jesus.

As a catechist you learn more about yourself and your faith. It is an opportunity for you to give back a little of what you have been given. You will gain confidence, make a difference to the lives of the children they teach and to their families. You will meet interesting like-minded people and become an active member of the parish community as well as learning new skills and bringing new life to your faith.

Take on the challenge! Step out in faith and let the Holy Spirit lead you in this wonderful ministry. Have fun: Well, enjoy yourself to the fullest.

If you wish to find out more about being a catechist, teaching the Catholic children in the public schools, contact Michael Tebbutt on 0437 440 169 for more information.
