The Most Holy BODY and BLOOD of CHRIST 6th June 2021 Gospel Mk 14:12-16, 22-2b

Reproduced from God's Word 2021: Daily Reflections, published by St Pauls Publications, Strathfield

There seems to be an invisible type of glue that binds us to our families – our kin, our flesh and blood. Often additions who aren't blood-related become attached through joining a family meal. Exodus speaks of God's covenant with the Jewish people sealing their relationship with blood – a symbol of life. In the Gospel Jesus offers his own flesh and blood to seal the new life-giving covenant, a reconciliation between God and Creation that will last forever. At Eucharist we re-enact this: receiving Jesus' flesh and blood that transforms us into what we receive. We share the meal together that is the invisible glue, binding us in relationship to God, to each other and to all of creation. Jesus points to the time of the final future banquet – when all of creation has become kin, when everyone is invisibly bound together as flesh and blood. We have been invited to the family meal; we share in the Body and Blood of Christ; we become Christ's body in the world and blood-kin with everyone and everything. How might the Eucharist affect our lives today? What does it look like to share flesh and blood with Christ and all creation?

WEDDING

ANNIVERSARIES

Welcome to the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Jesus continually calls us to himself and makes himself available to us. He is everywhere but is fully present and tangible in the Blessed Sacrament, the Eucharist. He has made himself available to us in the simplest, humblest food accessible by all, bread. We go to him, adore him and receive him, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. In receiving the Eucharist, Jesus lives in us and we become one with him, taking all that he offers us, peace, hope and love into the world so that others who do not yet know him, encounter him and his promises through us

Parish Fundraiser with Environmental Benefits

October 2021

*'This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many'
Mark 14:12-16,22-26*

The Lord has redeemed all of us, all of us, with the Blood of Christ. And this Blood makes us children of God of the first class! [W]e all have a duty to do good. If we, each doing our own part, if we do good to others ... we will make that culture of encounter. (Pope Francis Homily, May 2013)

Tri-Diocesan Social Justice Twilight Reflection Evening

Every year people from the Diocese of Broken Bay, together with the Archdiocese of Sydney and the Diocese of Parramatta, gather to reflect on the Social Justice Statement issued by the Australian Catholic Bishop's Conference. The Tri-Diocesan Social Justice Twilight Reflection Evening, to be held at 6.00pm on the 30 June at Pennant Hills Bowling Club, is an opportunity to publicly acknowledge the work of social justice ministries across the dioceses and to consider how we as a church can respond to the issues addressed in the statement. This year's topic is mental health in Australia.

If you would like more information about the event or would like to attend, please contact Emma Baker on 8379 1630 or email at emma.baker@bbcatholic.org.au. RSVP by 16 June 2021 is essential due to catering and COVID-19 requirements.

Save our Graves Campaign

The Catholic Church has been operating cemeteries in NSW for more than 150 years, doing the merciful work of burying the dead, keeping their graves and giving comfort to grieving families.

Archbishop Anthony Fisher from the Archdiocese of Sydney has launched a petition to reverse a NSW Government decision to exclude faith and charitable groups from cemetery management.
