On this Sunday the Church invites us to focus on Jesus who continues to draw us to himself, so that we can be nourished and strengthened like Elijah in the desert. The First Reading is a sort of encouragement for us because many of us are in the same boat. We can all identify with the prophet and his predicament. Unfortunately, the same Elijah who was courageous enough to face Ahab, suddenly became fearful and discouraged. However, when he thought that all hope was lost, God divinely intervened by feeding and strengthening him for his journey.

In the Second Reading, Paul reminds us that as children of God, each one of us bears the mark of the Holy Spirit. Jesus draws us to Himself every day through the Eucharistic table in order to nourish and strengthen us for our journey.

Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever;
and the bread that I shall give is my flesh,
for the life of the world.

CAN YOU HELP?

THURSDAY 16th AUGUST FROM 9.30am, we are cooking MEALS TO deliver, or FREEZE for our school and parish families in need.

We are going to have a cooking session on Thursday in the meeting room behind St John's church, to prepare meals. There are currently school families living through hard times and sick or senior parishioners who need meal support. Our parish priest, Fr Reinaldo, is generously supplying the funds to cover costs. Come and enjoy the company, help peel the veggies, stir the pot, roll meatballs or just keep the coffee on. Thankyou in anticipation...

Fr David Ranson appointed Diocesan Administrator for Broken Bay

The College of Consultors of the Diocese of Broken Bay, the group of priests who have a canonical and civil role in the governance of the Diocese, met last Friday (3 August) to fulfil its duty of electing a priest to serve as Diocesan Administrator, in the absence of a bishop following the appointment of Most Rev Peter A Comensoli as ninth Archbishop of Melbourne.

Rev Dr David Ranson has been duly elected as Diocesan Administrator, effective immediately.

As Diocesan Administrator, Fr David will lead the Diocese of Broken Bay until the Holy Father, Pope Francis, appoints a new bishop. During this period between bishops, Canon Law states that there can be no innovation, but the many initiatives of Bishop Comensoli's can be progressed through to their conclusion, with many functions and ministries of the Church continuing as normal.

"We go forward progressing the many initiatives of Bishop Comensoli's exemplary leadership of the last three and half years, and, together, we await with prayerful and expectant hearts the appointment of a new Shepherd to lead us into the future,"

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon.

Look to your covenant, O Lord, and forget not the life of your poor ones for ever. Arise, O God, and defend your cause and forget not the cries of those who seek you.

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:4-8

A reading from the first book of the Kings
Elijah went into the wilderness, a day's journey, and sitting under a furze bush wished he were dead. 'Lord,' he said 'I have had enough. Take my life; I am no better than my ancestors.' Then he lay down and went to sleep. But an angel touched him and said, 'Get up and eat.' He looked round, and there at his head was a scone baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again. But the angel of the Lord came back a second time and touched him and said, 'Get up and eat, or the journey will be too long for you.' So he got up and ate and drank, and strengthened by that food he walked for forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 33:2-9

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast. The humble shall hear and be glad. R.

Glorify the Lord with me. Together let us praise his name. I sought the Lord and he answered me; from all my terrors he set me free. R.

Look towards him and be radiant; let your faces not be abashed. This poor man called; the Lord heard him and rescued him from all his distress. R.

The angel of the Lord is encamped around those who revere him, to rescue them.

Taste and see that the Lord is good. He is happy who seeks refuge in him. R.

Second Reading: Ephesians 4:30 - 5:2

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians
Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God who has marked you with his seal for you to be set free when the day comes. Never have grudges against others, or lose your temper, or raise your voice to anybody, or call each other names, or allow any sort of spitefulness. Be friends with one another, and kind, forgiving each other as readily as God forgave you in Christ.

Try, then, to imitate God, as children of his that he loves, and follow Christ by loving as he loved you, giving himself up in our place as a fragrant offering and a sacrifice to God.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: John 6:51

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever. Alleluia!

Gospel: John 6:41-51

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John
The Jews were complaining to each other about Jesus, because he had said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' 'Surely this is Jesus son of Joseph' they said. 'We know his father and mother. How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?' Jesus said in reply, 'Stop complaining to each other.

'No one can come to me unless he is drawn by the Father who sent me, and I will raise him up at the last day.

It is written in the prophets: They will all be taught by God, and to hear the teaching of the Father, and learn from it, is to come to me. Not that anybody has seen the Father, except the one who comes from God: he has seen the Father.

I tell you most solemnly, everybody who believes has eternal life.

I am the bread of life.

Your fathers ate the manna in the desert and they are dead; but this is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that a man may eat it and not die.

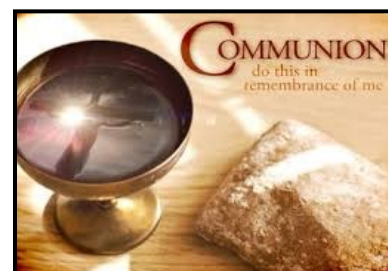

I am the living bread which has come down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
