In the Gospel of today Jesus presents the journey of life one ought to follow and the radical demands of the Kingdom. The minimum requirement to receive eternal life is to observe the commandments. The second requirement is to strengthen one's relationship with God and with others; it is equivalent to making God the centre of one's life and to depend upon him totally. One of the elements which block our growth in relationship with God and others is the attachment to material wealth. Excessive desire for material possessions and the yearning for God cannot go together because " You cannot serve both God and money " (Mt 6:24).

God is the true wealth of human beings. We are rich in the measure in which we participate in the wealth of God and in the measure we are in relationship with God.

It is necessary to strengthen one's participation in the life of God by using one's possessions and positions for the good of all. After having suggested certain plans of action, Jesus affirms the difficulty or rather the impossibility of attaining this kingdom through human merit; participation in the life of God is a gift offered by God to anyone who wishes to take up his invitation. Jesus also makes a promise of a reward for those who follow him radically i.e. to those who leave house, relations, possessions for the sake of the Gospel. Their reward is " hundredfold"

"How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the Kingdom of God"

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon.

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But with you is found forgiveness, O God of Israel.

First Reading: Wisdom 7:7-11

A reading from the book of Wisdom
I prayed, and understanding was given me; I entreated, and the spirit of Wisdom came to me.
I esteemed her more than sceptres and thrones; compared with her, I held riches as nothing.
I reckoned no priceless stone to be her peer, for compared with her, all gold is a pinch of sand, and beside her silver ranks as mud.
I loved her more than health or beauty, preferred her to the light, since her radiance never sleeps. In her company all good things came to me, at her hands riches not to be numbered.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 89:12-17

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart. Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever? Show pity to your servants. R.

In the morning, fill us with your love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days. Give us joy to balance our affliction for the years when we knew misfortune. R.

Show forth your works to your servants; let your glory shine on their children. Let the favour of the Lord be upon us: give success to the work of our hands. R.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:12-13

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

The word of God is something alive and active: it cuts like any double-edged sword but more finely: it can slip through the place where the soul is divided from the spirit, or joints from the marrow; it can judge the secret emotions and thoughts. No created thing can hide from him; everything is uncovered and open to the eyes of the one to whom we must give account of ourselves.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Matthew 5:3

Alleluia, alleluia!
Happy the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs!
Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 10:17-30

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.
Jesus was setting out on a journey when a man ran up, knelt before him and put this question to him, 'Good master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You must not kill; You must not commit adultery; You must not steal; You must not bring false witness; You must not defraud; Honour your father and mother.' And he said to him, 'Master, I have kept all these from my earliest days.' Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him, and he said, 'There is one thing you lack. Go and sell everything you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' But his face fell at these words and he went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth.

Jesus looked round and said to his disciples, 'How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!' The disciples were astounded by these words, but Jesus insisted, 'My children,' he said to them, 'how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.' They were more astonished than ever. 'In that case' they said to one another 'who can be saved?' Jesus gazed at them. 'For men' he said 'it is impossible, but not for God: because everything is possible for God.'

Peter took this up. 'What about us?' he asked him. 'We have left everything and followed you.' Jesus said, 'I tell you solemnly, there is no one who has left house, brothers, sisters, father, children or land for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not be repaid a hundred times over, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and land - not without persecutions - now in this present time and, in the world to come, eternal life.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
