We are living in a culture in which suffering is seen as negative and thus something to be avoided at all costs. Of course, God does not delight in human suffering. Yet, we must always keep in mind that suffering is part of the human condition and it should be seen in the perspective of Jesus' love. The call of the readings of today is not a call to run away from suffering or regard it in any way as punishment from God, but to face up to it squarely in the manner in which Jesus did. While we continue to believe that Jesus can work miracles even today, we must balance this understanding with the realisation that the Cross is part of Jesus' life.

The challenge is to make God's will for us, our own.

mine, let him renounce himself, take up his cross and follow me"*

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon.

Give peace, O Lord to those who wait for you, that your prophets be found true. Hear the prayers of your servant, and of your people Israel.

First Reading: Isaiah 50:5-9

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.
The Lord has opened my ear.

For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away.
I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard;
I did not cover my face against insult and spittle.

The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults. So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed.

My vindicator is here at hand. Does anyone start proceedings against me?
Then let us go to court together. Who thinks he has a case against me? Let him approach me.
The Lord is coming to my help, who dare condemn me?

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 114:1-6. 8-9

R. I will walk in the presence of the Lord, in the land of the living.

I love the Lord for he has heard the cry of my appeal;
for he turned his ear to me in the day when I called him. R.

They surrounded me, the snares of death, with anguish of the tomb; they caught me, sorrow and distress. I called on the Lord's name.
O Lord my God, deliver me! R.

How gracious is the Lord, and just; our God has compassion.
The Lord protects the simple hearts; I was helpless so he saved me! R.

He has kept my soul from death, my eyes from tears and my feet from stumbling. I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living. R.

Second Reading: James 2:14-18

A reading from the letter of St James
Take the case, my brothers, of someone who has never done a single good act but claims that he has faith. Will that faith save him? If one of the brothers or one of the sisters is in need of clothes and has not enough food to live on, and one of you says to them, 'I wish you well; keep yourself warm and eat plenty,' without giving them these bare necessities of life, then what good is that? Faith is like that: if good works do not go with it, it is quite dead.

This is the way to talk to people of that kind: 'You say you have faith and have good deeds; I will prove to you that I have faith by showing you my good deeds - now you prove to me that you have faith without any good deeds to show.'

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Galatians 6:14

Alleluia, alleluia!
My only glory is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, which crucifies the world to me and me to the world.
Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 8:27-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
Jesus and his disciples left for the villages round Caesarea Philippi. On the way he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say I am?' And they told him. 'John the Baptist,' they said, 'others Elijah; others again, one of the prophets.' 'But you,' he asked, 'who do you say I am?' Peter spoke up and said to him, 'You are the Christ.' And he gave them strict orders not to tell anyone about him.

And he began to teach them that the Son of Man was destined to suffer grievously, to be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and to be put to death, and after three days to rise again; and he said all this quite openly. Then, taking him aside, Peter started to remonstrate with him. But, turning and seeing his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said to him, 'Get behind me, Satan! Because the way you think is not God's way but man's.'

He called the people and his disciples to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me. For anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon.

How precious is your mercy, O God!
The children of men seek shelter in the shadow of your wings.
